The New Politics of Regionalism Ulf Engel, Heidrun Zinecker, Frank Mattheis, Antje Dietze, Thomas Plötze, 2016-10-04 This edited volume approaches regionalism as one potential pattern in a changing global order Since the end of the Cold War different forms of territorialization have emerged and we are confronted with an increasing number and variety of actors that are establishing regional projects This volume offers an innovative contribution to the study of this new complexity by exploring constellations of regional actors spatial scales and imaginations beyond state centred perspectives as well as on multiple often overlapping levels The chapters analyse the emergence trajectories and outcomes of regionalisms from the perspective of the Global South specifically concentrating on regional projects in Latin America and Africa but also in the Asia Pacific They attempt to identify the specific conditions and junctures of different forms of region making in their external global and internal local national dimensions The volume also places special emphasis on interactions spatial entanglements and comparisons between regionalisms in different parts of the world By expanding beyond the perspective of North South transfers this book seeks to better understand the dynamics and diversity of interregional interactions This volume will appeal to scholars of global studies international political economy international relations human geography and development studies as well as area studies specialists who focus on Latin America and Africa Chinese Foreign Relations Robert G. Sutter,2010 A third edition of this book is now available This comprehensive and thoroughly updated introduction to Chinese foreign relations discerns the opportunities and limits China faces as it seeks increased international influence Tracing the record of twists and turns in Chinese foreign relations since the end of the Cold War Robert G Sutter provides a nuanced analysis that shows that despite popular perceptions of its growing power Beijing is hampered by both domestic and international constraints This text s balanced and meticulous assessment shows China s leaders exerting more influence in world affairs but remaining far from dominant Facing numerous contradictions and tradeoffs they move cautiously as they deal with a complex global environment

International Broadcasting and Its Contested Role in Australian Statecraft Geoff Heriot,2023-03-14 This book offers an insightful reappraisal of international broadcasting as discursive rather than soft power in service of democratic statecraft This at a time when issues of transnational media the credibility of news and the perils of disinformation and information warfare figure worryingly in public discourse Reflecting the perspective of middle power Australia author Geoff Heriot locates the strategic utility of multiplatform international broadcasting with reference to contemporary theories of soft hard smart power projection and intercultural communication He applies a fresh model of strategic analysis to the political history of Radio Australia examining the various external and internal variables that resulted in its flawed success in political communication during the late Cold War period The Making of the Asia Pacific See Seng Tan,2025-10-01 This illuminating volume critically surveys the power of narratives in shaping the discourse on the post Cold War Asia Pacific The author examines the purposes practices power relations and protagonists behind policy networks such as the Council for Security Cooperation in the Asia Pacific and the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council Asia-Pacific Issues ,2002 public affairs information service ,     The Determinants of Leadership Fei Su, 2022-08-25 This book investigates the determinants of leadership in East Asia emphasizing the significance of followership in the success and failure of leadership projects proposed by China Japan and the United States While doing so it answers a central question in the field of international relations Why do potential leader countries succeed in obtaining potential followers in some instances but fail to do so in other instances Employing an inclusive leadership and societal approach the book investigates how the leading countries motivate followership in East Asian economic and security dynamics It analyzes how Chinese Japanese and American leadership obtained acceptance from potential followers focusing on the significance of domestic politics of potential follower countries in shaping their governmental preferences and generating followership The book features empirical evidence in six case studies covering topics such as the successful Chinese endeavor of South Korea joining the Chinese initiative for the Asian Infrastructure and Investment Bank AIIB the failed US attempt to prevent South Korea from doing so the US s success to convince Japan to join the Trans Pacific Partnership TPP the failed Japanese strive for winning South Korea s support for Japan s bid for a permanent seat at the UN Security Council UNSC the Chinese failure at obtaining the Philippines backing of the Chinese aspirations in the South China Sea SCS during the Aquino Presidency and finally the Chinese success on the same effort during the Duterte presidency The book will appeal to students scholars and researchers of international relations interested in a better understanding of leadership determinants in East Asia Global Power Shift foreign policy as well as East Asian economic and security dynamics     3rd ASEAN Reader Ooi Kee Beng, Sanchita Basu Das, Terence Chong, Malcolm Cook, Cassey Lee and Michael Yeo Chai Ming, 2016-04-29 Over the past two decades ISEAS has compiled abridged articles that analyse key aspects of Southeast Asia s development and the ASEAN process The ASEAN Reader was published in 1992 just as the Cold War ended while The Second ASEAN Reader came in 2003 in the wake of the 1997 Asian crisis and the September 11 attacks in 2001 The past decade has not been spared its share of intense changes with the rise of China and India bringing new challenges to the region s power equation and the impact of the 2008 global financial crisis Despite this the momentum towards an integrated ASEAN community has been maintained The articles in The Third ASEAN Reader study the trends and events of recent years and discuss the immediate future of Southeast Asia

Security Politics in the Asia-Pacific William T. Tow, 2009-10-15 Asia is experiencing major changes in its security relations This book brings together respected experts to assess both the theoretical and empirical dimensions of the Asian security debate Building on the latest research on Asia s regional security politics it focuses on the regional global nexus as a way to understand the dynamics of Asian security politics and its intersection with global security Contributors to the volume offer diverse but complementary perspectives on which issues and factors are most important in explaining how security politics in Asia can be interpreted at both the regional and global levels of analysis Issues addressed include power balancing and alliances governance and democracy maritime and energy security the relationship between economics and security human security terrorism nuclear non proliferation climate change and pandemics This work will serve as a standard reference on the evolution of key issues in Asian security      ASEAN's Cooperative Security Enterprise H. Katsumata,2010-01-20 Katsumata demonstrates that something interesting is taking place inside the ASEAN Regional Forum ARF He shows that an association of minor powers in Southeast Asia is promoting its cooperative security norm and influencing the policies of its external partners Thus the ARF is one of the important pathways to regional security      Asian Responses to the Global Financial Crisis Jehoon Park,T. J. Pempel,Geng Xiao,2012-01-01 This book takes account of the global financial crisis from Asian perspectives considering Asian responses to the crisis via two key arenas regionalism in Asia and the G20 The expert contributors both Asian and Western illustrate that as G20 members many Asian countries are now able to showcase their increasing powers and influence on global issues Within this context and via multidisciplinary economic and political science perspectives the book deals with various issues such as World System analysis the debate between the Washington Consensus and the Beijing Consensus roles within the G20 and the contribution of middle powers such as Korea and Australia The application of European experiences to Asia is also considered as are perspectives from the US The book concludes that the key to resolving the current global economic crisis lies in how quickly a new global governance and monitoring system can be constructed and that there are multiple roles for Asian countries to play in its development Written with a uniquely multidisciplinary approach this book will prove a fascinating read for a wide ranging audience encompassing academics students researchers and policymakers in a number of fields including Asian studies economics public policy and regional studies
