Asian Christian Theology Douglas J. Elwood, 1980 Good No Highlights No Markup all pages are intact Slight Shelfwear may have the corners slightly dented may have slight color changes slightly damaged spine Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology R. S. Sugirtharajah, 2010-05 The most important emerging themes and voices engaged in Asian Christian theology today Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology provides the latest extension of interpretive trends reflected in earlier volumes now unavailable such as the classic Living Theology in Asia Arranged thematically Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology first captures the ongoing dialogue between the dominant theologies of Asia and the continent's subalterns women tribals and untouchables such as Indian dalits and Japanese burakumin These essayists including Kuribayashi Teruo Arvind P Nirmal Nirmal Minz and Chung Hyun Kyung share the experience of those people who are treated as invisible non entities who recover self identity and self validation in theological expression The next group of essayists among them Peter K H Lee Choi Man Ja Jyoti Sahi Archie Lee Chi Chung and Samuel Rayan provide a wealth of stunning interpretive data in the uniquely Asian method of extra textual hermeneutics This perspective weaves Asian literary and non literary resources into theology Third Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology offers examples of the narrative theology that is also a cultural outgrowth of Asia including writings by Aloysius Pieris Kwok Pui Lan M M Thomas Astrid Lobo Gajiwala and Stanley J Samartha Their highly personal stories directly integrate lived experience with theology which as Sugirtharajah points out is a prerequisite for any vibrant dynamic theology Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology concludes with essays that document some crucial contemporary issues for Asian theology These include Wang Hsien Chi on Taiwanese homeland theology Noh Jung Sun on Korean reunification Felix Wilfred on human rights Samuel Rayan on the environmental crisis and Tissa Balasuriya on the responsibilities of the theologian in contexts of ethnic conflict Asian Christian Theology Timoteo D. Gener, Stephen T. Pardue, 2019-07-31 Asian Christian Theology provides a survey of contextually reflective robustly evangelical theology for students to engage with the core doctrines of Christianity and their outworking in different cultures across Asia The contributors of the chapters come from all corners of Asia to systematically examine traditional doctrinal themes and contemporary concerns for the Asian church Ideal for use as a companion textbook in Asian seminaries and institutions this book will also provide excellent further reading for those outside of Asia seeking global theological perspectives and for those in contexts of significant Asian diaspora Many excellent books surveying theology exist but this book is a major step forward for students and scholars seeking to understand the dynamic environment of evangelical theology in Asia Asian Contextual Theology for the Third Millennium Paul S Chung, Veli Matti Karkkainen, Kim Kyoungh-Jae, 2010-03-25 In this volume an attempt is undertaken to highlight the genesis progress and transformation of Asian contextual theology of minjung introducing its historical point of departure its development and its transformation in light of younger Korean and Korean American scholars endeavors In this regard the new Asian contextual theology which is emerging strives to integrate both minjung and the wisdom of World Religions into its own framework and direction assuming the character of a public theology and remaining humble and open before God's mystery while featuring its association with minjung in a holistic way

The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred, 2014 Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia

Exploring the New Testament in Asia Samson L. Uytanlet, Bennet Lawrence, 2024-08-31 There is a growing recognition that God's design is for us to read Scripture alongside the whole church in all of its cultural and linguistic diversity Exploring the New Testament in Asia is a textbook for students and scholars of the New Testament to help the church hear and see the good news of Jesus anew This collection of essays offers theological reflections on New Testament themes from Asian perspectives while addressing contextual issues in light of the New Testament Touching on topics such as salvation holiness poverty ethnic tensions reconciliation honoring elders persecution and hospitality the scholars in this book demonstrate the importance of a varied contemporary context for understanding the New Testament The result is a theological contribution that is both contextually relevant and biblically faithful Asian American Christianity Reader Timothy Tseng, Viji

Nakka-Cammauf, 2009-08-20 This textbook is an interdisciplinary collection of scholarly and religious articles about Asian American Christianity Its four sections contexts sites identity and voices offer in depth understanding of both Catholic and Protestant traditions practices theologies and faith communities It also highlights diversity and complexity across lines of gender generation denomination race and ethnicity in Asian American Christianity Christianity with an Asian Face

Peter C. Phan, , 2015-02-19 Globalizing Theology Craig Ott, Harold A. Netland, 2006-10 Internationally recognized scholars offer a groundbreaking look at the powerful force of globalization and what it means for the church The Grace of Sophia Grace Ji-Sun Kim, 2010-02-01 The Grace of Sophia reaches out to Korean North American women including former victims of severe religious and cultural suffering in Korea and current casualties of racism classism and sexism in North America By sharing her own views on racism the patriarchal Korean society and multifaith understandings of wisdom author Grace Ji Sun Kim offers strength for the journey to empowerment and hope in the search for a liberative Korean North American women's Christology Contextualization David J. Hesselgrave, Edward Rommen, 2000-09-01 Meanings Methods and Models Contextualization Meanings Methods and Models is a classic textbook that brings together the meanings proposals and tasks involved in contextualization The authors trace its historical development beginning with its roots in the Bible and early Church They examine how cultural linguistic and theological elements influence the way the Gospel is communicated across different contexts The book highlights how the Church has wrestled with expressing timeless truths in culturally relevant ways while maintaining biblical integrity Hesselgrave and Rommen engage with the ideas of key theologians and missiologists evaluating a range of contextualization models from traditional mission methods to more adaptive culture centered approaches They provide a balanced critique of these proposals identifying both strengths and limitations The authors conclude by offering their own definition and approach to contextualization one that is both faithful to Scripture and practically effective for global mission work today Contextual Theology Paul Duane Matheny, 2012-07-26 For centuries the global understanding of Church has been shaped by Western theological imperatives Yet today the decline of institutional religion in the West and the extraordinary growth of the Church of the global South mean that a radical movement beyond such theologies is required Paul Matheny argues that the Church would benefit by becoming more contextualized and less Western Contextual Theology is an attempt to address that issue and to examine how a reassessment of the relationship of the Gospel to cultural context can advance this critical and necessary development Through an accessible and critical approach Matheny considers the historical background to contextual theology In the same way he aims to show how to use contextual methods to think theologically and act missiologically in different cultural contexts

Discovering the Bible in the Non-Biblical World Pui-Lan Kwok, 2003-09-16 As a Chinese woman a feminist theologian and a biblical scholar Pui lan Kwok brings a new perspective and voice to the task of hermeneutics Her multidimensional reading of the Bible draws on a tradition much older than that of the West while it simultaneously incorporates the insights of contemporary feminist and Third World theologies Seeing herself as wanderer between the worlds of East and West Pui lan Kwok draws on the work of contemporary biblical scholars as well as the millennia old commentaries on the Book of Change the Dao de Jing and the Bhagavad Gita Her creativity and imagination come into play as she gradually inseparably links reader text and context The first three chapters locate the context from which she approaches the Bible as an Asian woman Pui lan considers Asian traditions as well as the social biography of Asian peoples and discusses the complex issues of using the Bible in feminist theology Chapters Four and Five approach the unique Asian context with its long traditions of orality and exegesis of ancient scriptures Chapter Six analyzes the challenges of Asian critics to western interpretations of scripture and raises sharp issues of colonial oppression Finally Discovering the Bible in the Non Biblical World shows how the multiple oppressions of women provide a context for rediscovering the Bible's liberating message Must reading for anyone engaged in biblical studies cross cultural education and feminist theology I highly recommend this richly instructive and powerful book

Elisabeth Schassler Fiorenza Harvard Divinity School An important addition to the fast growing literature on Asian biblical discourse R S Sugirtharajah University of Birmingham A significant contribution to the hermeneutical conversation arising from the global context of reading of the Bible Sharon H Hinge Wesley Theological Seminary Theology for Earth Community Dieter T. Hessel, 2003-08-18 This volume brings together original essays by both seasoned professionals and emerging scholars who examine state of the art scholarship and pedagogy in ecologically alert theology Authors assess what various theologians have to offer and draw implications for reshaping religious and environmental studies as well as preparing the next generations of church leaders or pastoral workers What needs to be done these authors ask to bring biblical studies systematics social ethics practical theology spiritual formation and liturgy up to speed with eco justice thought and action on environmental questions An Intercultural Theology of Migration Gemma Cruz, 2010-01-15 Migration has long been associated with the social sciences However as a phenomenon that provides windows into possibly new forms of oppression and at the same time paths toward human liberation a systematic theological look at contemporary migration is long overdue Building on the emerging interest on migration in theology this book presents an intercultural theology of migration drawn from the experience of Filipino women domestic workers in Hong Kong in dialogue with theological ethics and liberationist theologies The result is a new look at the phenomenon of contemporary migration

'Justification by Grace Alone' Facing Confucian Self-Cultivation Arne Redse, 2015-09-29 Chinese contexts as influenced by the religious moral philosophy of New Confucianism are characterized by the idea of becoming a sage through self cultivation For Christian theology with its emphasis on God's grace rather than on self cultivation Confucian teaching in this matter may appear as a problem Chinese Christian theology may ask How can the Christian doctrine of justification by grace alone be contextualized in Chinese contexts which are characterized by the contradicting idea of self cultivation Another question may be equally interesting for Christian theology in all contexts Which insights can be attained from an attempt at contextualizing the Christian doctrine of justification to contexts influenced by New Confucianism In this book professor Arne Redse contributes to answering these questions Theologies of the 21st Century David L. Smith, 2014-10-02 What theologies are popular and formative of Christian thinking in the present day How should they be assessed by those Christians who want to be in the world without being of the world Theologies of the 21st Century begins with an overview of the historical roots from which current theological thinking has developed and then moves on to a detailed evaluation of the chief doctrinal and practical emphases taking an evangelical biblical perspective that seeks to be at once both critical and irenic Identity in Community Paul Kwong, 2011 The term ContactZone was coined in postcolonial discourse to signify the place where cultures and religions meet It implies that first contact cultural religious exchange and conflict have always been determined by power relations Through making use of communication theories hermeneutics and aesthetics intercultural theology generates new terminologies and theoretical tools to explore these interactions Its scope ranges from issues such as dialogue and syncretism to fundamentalism and ethnicity Perspectives of culture religion race class and gender alike are involved in the necessary multi axial approach ContactZone is going to create a space where a choir of multiple voices is responding to the challenges of the cultural religious pluralism of the 21st century Archbishop Paul Kwong 1950 develops the idea of identity in community as central to the mission and theological agenda of Christians in Hong Kong In a wide ranging multidisciplinary study he analyzes diverse perspectives on the territory s recent history and compares the methodological approaches of local theologians with contextual theologies from other parts of the world He argues that the overlapping cultural and religious identities of Christians in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region SAR of China can empower Hong Kong people to embrace rather than to exclude differences and otherness so that they can accept and live out our their identities in community without having to make a choice for one among the many China and Christianity Stephen Uhalley,Xiaoxin Wu,2015-03-04 This collection offers fresh perspectives on Sino Western cultural relations with particular regard to the experience of Christianity in China The contributors include authorities from China including Hong Kong and Taiwan Europe including Russia and Eastern Europe and North America The Gospel in Human Contexts Paul G. Hiebert,2009-06 A leading evangelical anthropologist missiologist provides students of intercultural ministry with an understanding of worldview and a strategy for effective long term ministry
