Berger's Fall Roman:

Narrative Transformations from L'Astrée to Le Berger Extravagant Leonard Hinds, 2002 Though Honore d'Urfes L'Astree 1607/28 and Charles Sorel's Le berger extravagant 1627/28 use similar imagery of death entombment and renewal Hinds French language and literature Indiana U argues that they use them to different ends Indeed he says the latter is a parody of the first and between them lies a watershed between romanticism and the reaction against it Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Romans and the Apologetic Tradition Anthony J. Guerra, 1995-01-05 Of all the letters in the Pauline corpus the Letter to the Romans has attracted the greatest degree of scholarly attention Yet surprisingly scant consideration has been given to the question of its literary genre Taking up the comparatively brief suggestions of previous scholars Dr Guerra argues that the Letter belongs to the protreptic genre the class of writing in antiquity which urges the adoption of a particular way of life or a deeper commitment to it setting out its advantages replying to objections and demonstrating its superiority Working through each chapter of the Letter in turn he indicates how Paul provides a critique of non Christian ways of life both Jewish and Gentile and affirms the superiority of the Christian Gospel It becomes apparent that the Pauline apologetics of Romans stand between the hellenistic Jewish tradition and the later Greek Christian apologists and may have influenced the latter
