Berlin A Fresh View Of The German Capital:

Berlin ,1994 Berlin ,1994 Writing the New Berlin Katharina Gerstenberger,2008 Newness and its discontents Berlin literature in the 1990s and beyond Erotic sites sexual topographies after the Wall Bodies and borders the monsters of Berlin Multicultural Germans and jews of many cultures imagining Jewish Berlin Goodbye to East Berlin Looking for perspectives the construction at Potsdamer Platz Representing the German Nation Mary Fulbrook,Martin Swales,2000-12-15 Modern Germany with its ruptures from late unification in 1871 through to the formation of two opposing German states provides a case study for an analysis of the issue of representations of identity in Germany since the war

Berlin - The Symphony Continues Carol Anne Costabile-Heming,Rachel J. Halverson,Kristie A. Foell,2013-02-18 The sudden fall of the Berlin Wall is one of the defining images of the late twentieth century The subsequent unification of Germany and the decision to return Berlin to its status as capital has made the constant changes within the city a matter of public interest It also offered Berlin the opportunity to create a new image for itself one that can serve as a counterbalance to the politically charged recent history of Berlin as the capital of Nazi Germany and former East Berlin as the capital of the German Democratic Republic Poised between capitalist Western Europe and the former communist powers in Eastern Europe Berlin occupies a fascinating geopolitical space This anthology presents a unique glimpse into the various constituencies that make up Berlin and that impact the city s challenges and promises Berlin's Forgotten Future Matt Erlin,2004 Through an analysis of the works of the Berlin Aufkl rer Friedrich Gedike Friedrich Nicolai G E Lessing and Moses Mendelssohn Matt Erlin shows how the rapid changes occurring in Prussia s newly minted metropolis challenged these intellectuals to engage in precisely the kind of nuanced thinking about history that has come to be seen as characteristic of the German Enlightenment The author s demonstration of Berlin s historical theoretical significance also provides perspective on the larger question of the city s impact on eighteenth century German culture Challenging the widespread idea that German intellectuals were anti urban the study reveals the extent to which urban sociability came to be seen by some as a problematic but crucial factor in the realization of their Enlightenment aims Towards Effective Place Brand Management Gregory Ashworth,Mihalis Kavaratzis,2010-01-01 Many facets of place branding such as identities image promotion or sense of place have been around for a long time However the need to analyse their nature in the context of branding and to examine their relationships in detail has grown rapidly in the last decade or so as places all over the world have put branding activities higher than ever in theiragenda This important new book examines and clarifies key aspects of the recently popularised concept of place branding expounding many controversies confusions and discords in the field The expert contributors clarify several unresolved issues surrounding the application of place branding in particular its multiple goals They provide adetailed analysis of the role of local communities in place branding strategies and illustrate not only how but also why brand management should be implemented Case studies from a range of jurisdictions and cultural and political viewpoints are drawn upon each illustrating an array of issues or techniques in specific economic cultural and geographical contexts This book provides a theoretically informed but practically oriented overview and discussion of the increasingly popular field of place branding as an instrument of place management As such it will strongly appeal to both academics and practitioners in the fields of place marketing place branding local development tourism planning and development tourism marketing cultural geography urban and regional planning Consultants in local authorities national and regional tourism boards will also find this to be a fascinating read

German-Australian Encounters and Cultural Transfers Benjamin Nickl,Irina Herrschner,Elżbieta M. Goździak,2018-01-12 This book approaches Australo German relations from comparative and interdisciplinary perspectives It maps new pathways into the rich landscape of the Australo German transnational encounter which is characterized by dense and interwoven cultural historical and political terrains Surveying an astonishingly wide range of sites from literary translations to film festivals Aboriginal art to education systems the contributions offer a uniquely expansive dossier on the migrations of people ideas technologies money and culture between the two countries The links between Australia and Germany are explored from a variety of new interdisciplinary perspectives and situated within key debates in literary and cultural studies critical theory politics linguistics and transnational studies The book gathers unique contributions that span the areas of migration aboriginality popular culture music media and institutional structures to create a dynamic portrait of the exchanges between these two nations over time Australo German relations have emerged from intersecting histories of colonialism migration communication tourism and socio cultural representation into the dramatically changed twenty first century where traditional channels of connection between nations in the Western hemisphere have come undone but new channels ensure cross fertilization between newly constituted borders

Berlin - Washington, 1800-2000 Andreas Daum,Christof Mauch,2005-12-26 Publisher description European Directory of Sustainable and Energy Efficient Building 1999 John Goulding,2014-05-01 This directory has become a valued source of information for energy efficient building designers and specifiers throughout Europe and the details and scope of product service and supplier listings have again been extensively updated for this edition

Planning Twentieth Century Capital Cities David Gordon,2006-09-27 This book examines the plans for sixteen important capital cities around the world each with its own fully illustrated chapter written by an expert on the urban development of that city

The Political Fragmentation of Germany Zef M. Segal,2019-05-27 This book analyses the development of German territorial states in the nineteenth century through the prism of five Mittelstaaten Bavaria Saxony Hanover W rttemberg and Baden It asks how a state becomes a place and argues that it involves a contested and multi faceted process one of slow and uneven progress The study approaches this question from a new and crucial angle that of spatiality and public mobility The issues covered range from the geography of state apparatus the aesthetics of German cartography and the trajectories of public movement Challenging the belief that territorial delimitation is primarily a matter of policy and diplomacy this book reveals that political territories are constructed through daily practices and imagination Paper and Iron Niall

Ferguson,2002-11-07 Few economic events have had a more profound or enduring impact than the German hyperinflation of 1923 still remembered popularly as a root cause of Hitler s rise to power Yet many historians have argued that inflationary policies were on balance advantageous to post 1918 Germany both boosting growth and helping to reduce reparations The scholarly consensus is that there was no viable alternative to inflation In Paper and Iron Niall Ferguson takes a different view He argues that inflation was indeed an economic and political disaster and further that there were alternative economic policies which could have stabilised the German currency in 1920 To explain why these were not adopted he points to long term defects in the political institutions of the Reich which went back as far as the 1890s and which persisted beyond 1918 The book therefore reveals the Wilhelmine origins of Weimar s failure as well as casting light on the origins of the Third Reich Archives, Documentation, and Institutions of Social Memory Francis Xavier Blouin,William G.
