Berlin Dorothy Elkins, T. H. Elkins, B. Hofmeister, 1988-03-17 Berlin Dorothy Elkins, T. H. Elkins, 2015-03-31 This anniversary study presents a readable informative account of the development and current structure of Berlin Berlin Thomas Henry Elkins, Burkhard Hofmeister, 1988 This anniversary study presents a readable informative account of the development and current structure of Berlin Berlin Dorothy Elkins, 2005 Berlin Divided City, 1945-1989 Philip Broadbent, Sabine Hake, 2010-09-01 A great deal of attention continues to focus on Berlin's cultural and political landscape after the fall of the Berlin Wall but as yet no single volume looks at the divided city through an interdisciplinary analysis This volume examines how the city was conceived perceived and represented during the four decades preceding reunification and thereby offers a unique perspective on divided Berlin's identities German historians art historians architectural historians and literary and cultural studies scholars explore the divisions and antagonisms that defined East and West Berlin and by tracing the little studied similarities and extensive exchanges that occurred despite the presence of the Berlin Wall they present an indispensable study on the politics and culture of the Cold War Divided Cities Jon Calame, Esther Charlesworth, 2011-11-29 In Jerusalem Israeli and Jordanian militias patrolled a fortified impassable Green Line from 1948 until 1967 In Nicosia two walls and a buffer zone have segregated Turkish and Greek Cypriots since 1963 In Belfast peaceline barricades have separated working class Catholics and Protestants since 1969 In Beirut civil war from 1974 until 1990 turned a cosmopolitan city into a lethal patchwork of ethnic enclaves In Mostar the Croatian and Bosniak communities have occupied two autonomous sectors since 1993 These cities were not destined for partition by their social or political histories They were partitioned by politicians citizens and engineers according to limited information short range plans and often dubious motives How did it happen How can it be avoided Divided Cities explores the logic of violent urban partition along ethnic lines when it occurs who supports it what it costs and why seemingly healthy cities succumb to it Planning and conservation experts Jon Calame and Esther Charlesworth offer a warning beacon to a growing class of cities torn apart by ethnic rivals Field based investigations in Beirut Belfast Jerusalem Mostar and Nicosia are coupled with scholarly research to illuminate the history of urban dividing lines the social impacts of physical partition and the assorted professional responses to self imposed apartheid Through interviews with people on both sides of a divide residents politicians taxi drivers built environment professionals cultural critics and journalists they compare the evolution of each urban partition along with its social impacts The patterns that emerge support an assertion that division is a gradual predictable and avoidable occurrence that ultimately impedes intercommunal cooperation With the voices of divided city residents updated partition maps and previously unpublished photographs Divided Cities illuminates the enormous costs of physical segregation European Cities & Technology David C. Goodman, Colin Chant, 1999 This text explores one of the most fundamental changes in the history of human society the transition from rural to urban ways of living It covers a range of urban technologies including new building materials and designs The Wiley-Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies Anthony M. Orum, 2019-04-15 Provides comprehensive coverage of major topics in urban and regional studies Under the guidance of Editor in Chief Anthony Orum this definitive reference work covers central and emergent topics in the field through an examination of urban and regional conditions and variation across the world It also provides authoritative entries on the main conceptual tools used by anthropologists sociologists geographers and political scientists in the study of cities and regions Among such concepts are those of place and space geographical regions the nature of power and politics in cities urban culture and many others The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies captures the character of complex urban and regional dynamics across the globe including timely entries on Latin America Africa India and China At the same time it contains illuminating entries on some of the current concepts that seek to grasp the essence of the global world today such as those of Friedmann and Sassen on global cities It also includes discussions of recent economic writings on cities and regions such as those of Richard Florida Comprised of over 450 entries on the most important topics and from a range of theoretical perspectives Features authoritative entries on topics ranging from gender and the city to biographical profiles of figures like Frank Lloyd Wright Takes a global perspective with entries providing coverage of Latin America and Africa India and China and the US and Europe Includes biographies of central figures in urban and regional studies such as Doreen Massey Peter Hall Neil Smith and Henri Lefebvre The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies is an indispensable reference for students and researchers in urban and regional studies urban sociology urban geography and urban anthropology Berlin on the Brink Daniel F. Harrington, 2012-06-24 The Berlin blockade brought former allies to the brink of war Britain France the United States and the Soviet Union defeated and began their occupation of Germany in 1945 and within a few years the Soviets and their Western partners were jockeying for control of their former foe Attempting to thwart the Allied powers plans to create a unified West German government the Soviets blocked rail and road access to the western sectors of Berlin in June 1948 With no other means of delivering food and supplies to the German people under their protection the Allies organized the Berlin airlift In Berlin on the Brink The Blockade the Airlift and the Cold War Daniel F Harrington examines the Berlin question from its origin in wartime plans for the occupation of Germany through the Paris Council of Foreign Ministers meeting in 1949 Harrington draws on previously untapped archival sources to challenge standard accounts of the postwar division of Germany the origins of the blockade the original purpose of the airlift and the leadership of President Harry S Truman While thoroughly examining four power diplomacy Harrington demonstrates how the ingenuity and hard work of the people at the bottom pilots mechanics and Berliners were more vital to the airlift s success than decisions from the top Harrington also explores the effects of the crisis on the 1948 presidential election and on debates about the custody and use of atomic weapons Berlin on the Brink is a fresh comprehensive analysis that reshapes our understanding of a critical event of cold war history The Limits Of Globalization Alan Scott, 2013-01-11 Both the force and the limitations of the globalizing forces operating in the world today can best be understood through an analysis of their concrete manifestations Using examples from the people s art of Potsdammer Platz to the ways in which Western cultural icons are reinterpreted in Asian magazines this collection of essays unpicks the rhetoric of globalization in political analysis cultural theory and urban and economic sociology and exposes the myth of the global society as in many cases a dangerous exaggeration Japan and Central Europe Restructuring Winfried Flüchter,1995 Revised and updated papers originally presented at the 7th Japanese German Geographical Conference Aug 16 27 1992 in Heidelberg and Duisburg Germany

Architecture, Power and National Identity Lawrence Vale,2014-05-01 The first edition of Architecture Power and National Identity published in 1992 has become a classic winning the prestigious Spiro Kostof award for the best book in architecture and urbanism Lawrence Vale fully has fully updated the book which focuses on the relationship between the design of national capitals across the world and the formation of national identity in modernity Tied to this it explains the role that architecture and planning play in the forceful assertion of state power The book is truly international in scope looking at capital cities in the United States India Brazil Sri Lanka Kuwait Bangladesh and Papua New Guinea Walls, Borders, Boundaries Marc Silberman,Janet Ward,Karen E. Till,2012 How is it that walls borders boundaries and their material and symbolic architectures of division and exclusion engender their very opposite This edited volume explores the crossings permeations and constructions of cultural and political borders between peoples and territories examining how walls borders and boundaries signify both interdependence and contact within sites of conflict and separation Topics addressed range from the geopolitics of Europe s historical and contemporary city walls to conceptual reflections on the intersection of human rights and separating walls the memory politics generated in historically disputed border areas theatrical explorations of border crossings and the mapping of boundaries within migrant communities The East European Economy in Context David Turnock,2003-09-02 Since 1989 the former communist countries of Eastern Europe have witnessed a profound and dramatic upheaval The economic coherence of this region formerly maintained through the adoption of the Soviet system of government has fractured In The East European Economy in Context Communism and Transition David Turnock examines the transition from communist to free market economies both within and between the states of Eastern Europe As well as containing an informative survey of the impact of communism The East European Economy in Context provides Political profiles of individual countries A clear study of the contrasts between northern and balkan groups Summaries of regional variations in the transition process An exploration of the new state structures and resources Discussion of political stability inter ethnic tensions and progress in economic change The Economy of East Central Europe, 1815-1989 David Turnock,2004-03 From an expert in the field this major survey includes new research and recent changes in the region and reviewing two centuries of modernization examines the history of Eastern European economies within a wider political and ideological context Building the Cold War Annabel Jane Wharton,2001 In postwar Europe and the Middle East Hilton hotels were quite literally little Americas For American businessmen and tourists a Hilton Hotel with the comfortable familiarity of an English speaking staff a restaurant that served cheeseburgers and milkshakes trans Atlantic telephone lines and most important air conditioned modernity offered a respite from the disturbingly alien For impoverished local populations these same features lent the Hilton a utopian aura The Hilton was a space of luxury and desire a space that realized permanently and prominently the new and powerful presence of the United States Building the Cold War examines the architectural means by which the Hilton was written into the urban topographies of the major cities of Europe and the Middle East as an effective representation of the United States Between 1953 and 1966 Hilton International built sixteen luxury hotels abroad Often the Hilton was the first significant modern structure in the host city as well as its finest hotel The Hiltons introduced a striking visual contrast to the traditional architectural forms of such cities as Istanbul Cairo Athens and Jerusalem where the impact of its new architecture was amplified by the hotel s unprecedented siting and scale Even in cities familiar with the Modern the new Hilton often dominated the urban landscape with its height changing the look of the city The London Hilton on Park Lane for example was the first structure in London that was higher than St Paul s cathedral In his autobiography Conrad N Hilton claimed that these hotels were constructed for profit and for political impact an integral part of my dream was to show the countries most exposed to Communism the other side of the coin the fruits of the free world Exploring everything the carefully drafted contracts for the buildings to the remarkable visual and social impact on their host cities Wharton offers a theoretically sophisticated critique of one of the Cold War s first international businesses and demonstrates that the Hilton s role in the struggle against Communism was as Conrad Hilton declared significant though in ways that he could not have imagined Many of these postwar Hiltons still flourish Those who stay in them will learn a great deal about their experience from this new assessment of hotel space

The Urban Ecologies of Divided Cities Amira Osman, John Nagle, Sabyasachi Tripathi, 2023-06-12 The book discusses how division affect the fabric of cities and people s sense of identity and agency and are reflected in physical features architecture and urban planning The question of divided cities represents a complex and multistranded urban Ecology at once both social and spatial it cannot be limited to a single science or discipline such as social or spatial fields This suggests integrated and cross disciplinary understandings as well as integrated or parallel approaches and solutions Urban ecologies of division manifest in multiple forms One of their most palpable expressions is conflict with parallels around the world and often with correlations in the spatial fabric Violence in such contexts is often a surface expression of deeper socio economic or ideological differences Whether as a result of intervention by authority or by dissent between groups a divided city inevitably becomes a place of conflict in various forms and intensity eroding the joy of living and sense of collective belonging to the detriment of all In effect it erodes the collective advantage of being part of a more unified society A city exists in collections of social structures which mutually form a society A divided city implies divided social structures and in consequence a divided society The papers compiled in this book present many case studies of divided cities discussing the different causes of divisions and their effects on societies Some of the causes can be linked to conflicts wars colonialism or legislative political systems In response to the serious challenges resulting from these divisions the book aims to provide opportunities for new approaches and possibilities for new interventions and solutions making it significant to urban planners architects and policymakers

Narrative and Culture Janice Carlisle, Daniel R. Schwarz, 2010-08-01 Narrative and Culture draws together fourteen essays in which leading scholars discuss narrative texts and practices in a variety of media and genres subjecting them to sustained cultural analysis The essays cross national borders and historical periods as often and as easily as they traverse disciplinary boundaries and they examine canonical fiction as well as postmodern media photography film television The primary subject of these pieces notes Janice Carlisle is the relation between the telling of tales and the engagement of their tellers and listeners in the practices of specific societies Contributors Nina Auerbach Thomas B Byers Jay Clayton Marcel Cornis Pope Mary Lou Emery Colleen Kennedy Vera Mark Caroline McCracken Flesher Paul Morrison Ingeborg Majer O Sickey John Carlos Rowe Daniel R Schwarz Carol Siegel Felipe Smith

Atlas of Improbable Places Travis Elborough, 2021-07-06 Atlas of Improbable Places shows the modern world from surprising new vantage points that will inspire urban explorers and armchair travellers alike to consider a new way of understanding the world we live in

Tourism and Political Boundaries Dallen J. Timothy, 2002-09-11 The importance of political boundaries in the development function and flow of tourism cannot be overemphasized In light of today's political transformations and processes of globalization this book provides a systematic examination of the relationships between boundaries and tourism and offers a basis upon which tourism can be better managed and researched in a geo political context
