Berlin Dorothy Elkins, T. H. Elkins, 2005-08-04 This anniversary study presents a readable informative account of the development and current structure of Berlin Berlin Walter Hagemann, 1987 Berlin Doroth Elkins, 2005 Sale in Berlin Christoph Kreutzmüller, 2015-08 Before the Nazis took power Jewish businesspeople in Berlin thrived alongside their non Jewish neighbors But Nazi racism changed that gradually destroying Jewish businesses before murdering the Jews themselves Reconstructing the fate of more than 8 000 companies this book offers the first comprehensive analysis of Jewish economic activity and its obliteration Rather than just examining the steps taken by the persecutors it also tells the stories of Jewish strategies in countering the effects of persecution In doing so this book exposes a fascinating paradox where Berlin serving as the administrative heart of the Third Reich was also the site of a dense network for Jewish self help and The Berlin Tenement and the City Katharina Borsi, 2025-06-23 The Berlin Tenement and the City describes assertion the development of the Berlin tenement from 1860 to 1914 showing how it became both Berlin's standard housing type and its principal urban component the city s ubiquitous typology In contrast to earlier historical categorizations of the tenement as a rental barrack here it is described as an evolving typology that dynamically responded to the demands of the city and urban reform In this dynamic understanding of architecture the tenement is the protagonist of the actual unfolding of the city its growth and densification as well as its spatial and social differentiation Charting the evolution of the productive tenement into a morphology combining living and manufacturing and the rise of tenements increasingly differentiated according to class traces their contribution to the evolution and generalization of norms of housing and domesticity This book is essential reading for scholars students architects and urbanists interested in Berlin or the history of housing and the city Earth That Modernism Built Kenny Cupers, 2024-11-26 An intellectual history of architectural modernism for an age of rising global inequality and environmental crisis The Earth That Modernism Built traces the rise of planetary design to an imperialist discourse about the influence of the earthly environment on humanity Kenny Cupers argues that to understand how the earth became an object of design we need to radically shift the terms of analysis Rather than describing how new design ideas and practices traveled and transformed people and places across the globe this book interrogates the politics of life and earth underpinning this process It demonstrates how approaches to modern housing landscape design and infrastructure planning are indebted to an understanding of planetary and human ecology fueled by settler colonialism and imperial ambition Cupers draws from both canonical and unknown sources and archives in Germany Namibia and Poland to situate Wilhelmine and Weimar design projects in an expansive discourse about the relationship between soil settlement and race This reframing reveals connections between colonial officials planning agricultural hinterlands garden designers proselytizing geopolitical theory soil researchers turning to folklore and Bauhaus architects designing modern communities according to functionalist principles Ultimately The Earth That Modernism Built shows how the conviction that we can design our way out of environmental crisis is bound to exploitative and divisive ways of inhabiting the earth

European towns and cities Cultrans Arthur Engelbert,2005 Realism's Others Eva Aldea, Geoffrey Baker, 2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism's Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction s treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class Präsentationen mit LaTeX Voss, Herbert, 2009-01-01 Mit LaTeX lassen sich Pr sentationen von hoher Qualit t erzeugen Zus tzlich kann das Satzsystem TeX benutzt werden um auf einfache Weise animierte Folien zu erstellen Welches Paket welcher Befehl welche Syntax Dieses Buch zeigt wie man Pr sentationen mit den beiden wichtigsten Klassen powerdot und beamer erstellt Anhand von Beispielen wird zudem gezeigt wie man ein eigenes Corporate Design umsetzen kann um eine eigene Dokumentenklasse oder ein eigenes Paket zu erstellen
