Stowell, 2014-11-13 Analyzing the literature on art from the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries The Spiritual Language of Art explores the complex relationship between visual art and spiritual experiences during the Italian Renaissance Though scholarly research on these writings has predominantly focused on the influence of classical literature

this study reveals that Renaissance authors consistently discussed art using terms concepts and metaphors derived from spiritual literature By examining these texts in the light of medieval sources greater insight is gained on the spiritual nature of the artist s process and the reception of art Offering a close re readings of many important writers Alberti Leonardo Vasari etc this study deepens our understanding of attitudes toward art and spirituality in the Italian Renaissance Finding the Monk Within Edward C. Sellner,2008 Finding the Monk Within is written with the conviction that lying deep within every person and underlying much of contemporary western and eastern cultures is an ancient memory a vital archetypal energy related to monasticism and its spirituality This book recovers that monastic memory the living presence of the past for those who desire to name and incorporate monastic values values of solitude and silence faith and compassion friendship and mentoring contemplation and leadership itself The author examines the social and religious dimensions in the fourth century that gave rise to monasticism then looks at Christian leaders from late antiquity to the medieval period associated with monasticism in both East and West who have much to teach about monastic values and their relevance for today among them Antony the first monk Augustine and Jerome John Cassian Brigit of Kildare and early Celtic monasticism Gregory the Great Benedict and Scholastica and finally Bernard of Clairvaux By studying the history of monasticism and its great heroes we come to realize that for the Christian much of what we call monastic is purely and simply what being a follower of Christ is all about and that being a monk whether inside monastic enclosures or outside in the world is simply becoming the sort of person everyone ought to be a person who unites action and contemplation in the care of souls writes the author By becoming familiar with the stories and thought of these inspirational figures readers will be inspired to incorporate monastic perspectives and values into their own lives Holy Power, Holy Presence Elizabeth Dreyer,2007 Western theology is frequently criticized for not having a fully developed pneumatology According to these critics preoccupation with Christology and an excessive focus on the nature and unity of God have come at the expense of a full theology of the three persons While admitting that there is some truth to these criticisms Elizabeth Dreyer maintains that those who level them base their conclusions on a narrow range of texts and thus fail to establish a true neglect of the Holy Spirit Medieval authors offer a wealth of creative language and insight that speaks to the role of the Holy Spirit in contemporary spirituality and contributes to a renewed pneumatology for the twenty first century Book jacket Hear the Ancient Wisdom Charles R. Within Spiritual Direction Cynthia Herman, 2020-05-26 ABSTRACT Key to the process of spiritual growth is the knowledge that human beings long for love They desire to know their worth and value This seeking leads to a desire for a relationship with God In order to grow in faith to a deeper relationship with God it is important to first have a strong sense of one's own worth as a basis for growth This involves an accurate self perception and a loving self acceptance Affirmation can help to develop a loving self acceptance where one can experience feel and see one's worth Affirmation is a gift of love from one person to another where one receives oneself as one experiences one's own goodness and dignity from the other and one learns one is lovable Another key to spiritual growth is self knowledge Self acceptance and self knowledge are the beginning of the spiritual life Developing emotional awareness leads to greater self knowledge Emotions need to be listened to and interpreted as part of the development of self knowledge and self acceptance This emotional awareness is the beginning of understanding the negative patterns of behavior that comes out of one's woundedness With the healing presence of Christ through prayer one can experience God's love for them in one's woundedness and know that God dwells within and desires to transform and heal wounds with his love This affirms one in one's worthiness enabling one to be able to open to receive love and then return love In spiritual direction one seeks a relationship with God It is a sacred time of growth conversion and transformation It is a time when one looks at a relationship with self others and God One is empowered by the grace of God to enter this process and continue the development of these relationships The ministry of spiritual direction is called to be the sacred place where humanity in their fullness meets their God and accepts his mercy When one surrenders to this grace one is surrendering to love mercy and affirmation One's self image and relationship with others and God are touched and experienced in a new light Encyclopedia of Catholicism Frank K.
