Social Causes of Health and Disease William C. Cockerham, 2007-10-16 In this exciting new book William Cockerham a leading medical sociologist assesses the evidence that social factors have direct causal effects on health and many diseases He argues that stress poverty unhealthy lifestyles and unpleasant living and work conditions can all be directly associated with illness Noting a new emphasis upon social structure in both theory and multi level research techniques he argues that a paradigm shift is now emerging in 21st century medical sociology which looks beyond individual explanations for health and disease As the old gives way to the new in medical sociology the field is headed toward a fundamentally different orientation William Cockerham's clear and compelling account is at the forefront of these changes This lively and accessible book offers a coherent introduction to social epidemiology as well as challenging aspects of the existing literature It will be indispensable reading for all students and scholars of medical sociology especially those with the courage to confront the possibility that society really does make people sick

Sokolowska, Jacek Holówka, A. Ostrowska, 2012-12-06 This volume contains a selection of papers presented at the International Conference on the Sociology of Medicine held between August 20th and 25th 1973 in Warsaw Jablonna The Conference was organized by the Institute of Philosophy and Sociology of the Polish Academy of Sciences in collaboration with the Research Committee on the Sociology of Medicine of the International Sociological Association The participants included medical sociologists from the United States and from the countries of Western and Eastern Europe including a delegation of general sociologists and physicians and also a group of young medical sociologists from Poland Dr Leo Kaprio

Director of the Regional Office for Europe of the World Health Organization together with a member of his staff was also present. The Conference was opened by the Deputy Minister of Health and Social Welfare of the Polish People's Republic Dr Ryszard Brzozowski. The first Chairman was Prof Jan Szczepanski, Vice President of the Polish Academy of Sciences and Director of the Institute of Philosophy and Sociology. The first speech was delivered by Prof Jivko Oshavkov from Bulgaria, then Vice Chairman of the International Sociological Association. The Conference had several objectives which we believe were successfully achieved. It was intended first to provide an occasion to bring participants of East and West together and give them a chance to exchange information on the state of medical sociology in different countries.
