The Languages and Press of Africa Duncan MacDougald, Jr., 2015-09-30 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 100 titles from Penn Press's distinguished backlist from 1899-1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer-reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas POLYGAMOUS WAYS OF LIFE PAST AND PRESENT IN AFRICA AND EUROPE | POLYGAME LEBENSWEISEN IN VERGANGENHEIT UND GEGENWART IN AFRIKA UND EUROPA Henry Kam Kah, Bea Lundt, 2020-01-01 Polygamy is a very complex phenomenon with a long tradition in Africa but also in Europe The anthology will contribute to the objectification of the discussion by portraying the variety of polygamous lifestyles showing the interconnections of family structure social and economic conditions cultural representations especially in fictive writing and oral tradition spiritual meaning and religious legitimation of this way of life between traditional belief Christianity and Islam Case studies from different countries in Africa south of the Sahara will be added by historic examples since antiquity in Europe up to the discussion in present times Art History in Africa J. Vansina, 2014-06-06 This is a pioneering introduction to a subject that is still at an early stage of academic development It aims to provide the reader with a systematic method for the historical understanding of African art Professor Vansina considers the medium technique style and meaning of art objects and examines the creative process through which they come into being Numerous photographs and drawings illustrate his arguments and help to explain the changes that have taken place Conflict in Africa Adda Bruemmer Bozeman, 2015-03-08 Do modern Western ideas about the nature of conflict and its resolution apply to Africa To answer this question Adda Bozeman examines conflict in Africa south of the Sahara in its many social political and cultural aspects past and present The author shows how African perspectives on war and diplomacy have evolved under the influence of nonliteracy tribalism and a concept of undifferentiated time In addition she confirms that indigenous cultural traditions are resurgent everywhere making it unlikely that African political values will become more closely aligned with those of the West The two civilizations view conflict differently and have different ways of resolving it The Africans are more at ease with conflict than their Western counterparts and they do not see war and peace as the mutually exclusive phenomena that Occidental societies hold them to be The author concludes that modern Western concepts of conflict not only do not but cannot allow for African realities Originally published in 1976 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

regions nation states and Europe as a whole in both its geographical and political incarnations Its focus on representation offers a broadly conceived and consciously inclusive approach to issues of Europeanness in modern and contemporary sport

Women Travel Abroad 1925-1932 Svoboda Dimitrova-Moeck,2009 The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863 ,1864 One Discipline, Four Ways Fredrik Barth,Andre Gingrich,Robert Parkin,Sydel Silverman,2010-03-17 One Discipline Four Ways offers the first book length introduction to the history of each of the four major traditions in anthropology British German French and American The result of lectures given by distinguished anthropologists Fredrik Barth Andre Gingrich Robert Parkin and Sydel Silverman to mark the foundation of the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology this volume not only traces the development of each tradition but considers their impact on one another and assesses their future potentials Moving from E B Taylor all the way through the development of modern fieldwork Barth reveals the repressive tendencies that prevented Britain from developing a variety of anthropological practices until the late 1960s Gingrich meanwhile articulates the development of German anthropology paying particular attention to the Nazi period of which surprisingly little analysis has been offered until now Parkin then assesses the French tradition and in particular its separation of theory and ethnographic practice Finally Silverman traces the formative influence of Franz Boas the expansion of the discipline after World War II and the fault lines and promises of contemporary anthropology in the United States The Impossibility of Self Nicholas Tapp,2010 This is a work of ethnographic reflection on Hmong society history and culture dealing with questions of the self and the notion that a romantic self inspired the ethos of hedonism associated with the consumer economy A Hmong identity is shown to have been historically constructed through the works of colonial missionaries linguists and anthropologists Yet Hmong voices have also been powerful in this process Based on recent fieldwork in Asia and overseas the Hmong diaspora is examined The modern Hmong self is presented as a prospective one constructed in diaspora and through the use of the internet and other modes of modern communication in a movement towards a virtual future which despite the dissonance of voices appealing to an ideal unity is one still rich with potentiality Imagined Olympians John Bale,2002 Worldly Provincialism H. Glenn Penny,Matti Bunzl,2003-03-17 Worldly Provincialism introduces readers to German anthropology during the age of empire and illustrates how the initial motives and interests that gave birth to German anthropology were channeled and shaped by contexts as various as romantic voyages in the South Pacific the Herero wars in Southwest Africa open air presentations of exotic peoples in Berlin and prison camps during World War I It also shows that Germans unique intellectual traditions their emphasis on concepts of culture and the late arrival of both the German nation state and the German colonial empire affected their interest in and relationships with non Europeans Worldly Provincialism confirms that there is no justification for presupposing that Europeans shared a common cultural code while abroad or for assuming that they would have behaved similarly during their interactions with non Europeans Thus we must rethink the relationships among anthropology colonialism and race It also forces a rethinking of our understanding of race in the nineteenth century when race science emerged and eclipsed many alternative racial theories H Glenn Penny is Assistant Professor of History University of Missouri Kansas City Matti Bunzl is Aaron and Robin Fischer Assistant Professor of Jewish Culture and Society Department of Anthropology University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign Eco-Geography Andreas Suchantke, 2001-05 In this collection of essays John Fentress Gardner illuminates many challenging aspects of modern life that concern him and concern most of us as well From poverty and environmental degradation to sexuality parental discipline and the pressures of modern life from the further paths of knowledge to war and peace he reveals how all these faces of life speak and he points clearly to what they themselves ask for In this sense he looks directly to the future not as a prophet or even guide but as one filled with wonder and hope He looks often to Emerson to Rudolf Steiner the Austrian philosopher and seer and to others But the weight of his regard falls upon the future particularly upon the bearers of the future today s youth Gardner has been a teacher of youth for many years in the Waldorf private school system He has a deep feeling for young people not only for their masks and attitudes of the moment but also for their deep generally unconscious longings and for what happens when these are thwarted as they often are In one of the most impressive essays of this book Gardner makes it startlingly clear that peace is not a true goal or attainment if it is viewed in opposition to war and conflict For in this opposition conflict remains It is the third transcending and holding the tension between conflict and quiescent peace in which the redeeming force is found In climbing through the heart into the Heart of hearts is found the spiritual true secret of Peace There the longing to know finds answers Africa Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), 1995 Catalogus bij een expositie van Afrikaanse kunst

Claiming Civic Virtue Jan Bender Shetler, 2019-07-09 Among communities in the Mara region of Tanzania it is considered men s responsibility to maintain history But when Jan Bender Shetler s questions turned to specific familial connections within the village she discovered her male informants had to occasionally leave the room to ask their wives for clarification The result is an original and wide ranging investigation of the gendered nature of historical memory and its influence on the development of the region over the past 150 years Shetler s exploration of these oral traditions and histories opens exciting new vistas for understanding how women and men in this culture tell their stories and assert their roles as public intellectuals with important implications for research in African and gender studies and the history of ethnicity and nationalism Catalog of the Melville J.
