Wells, 2002 A sawmill town that has become the crossroads of South Georgia Tifton was founded by Henry Harding Tift a Connecticut Yankee in 1872 He built a sawmill in what was first known as Slab Town but the name eventually changed when sawmill worker George Badger resolving to be the first to honor village s founder climbed a pine tree and nailed a placard with TIFTON on it a condensed version of Tift s Town Today this thriving community is a meeting place for Interstate 75 U S 41 U S 319 and U S 82 and boasts a long and proud history Tifton Georgia in Vintage Postcards reveals the early beginnings of the town and its story to the present day with picturesque street scenes local schools including Abraham Baldwin

Agricultural College Georgia Coastal Plains Experiment Station people and sports and industry and agriculture Also highlighted in this engaging volume is the nearby community of Ty Ty Petoskey in Vintage Postcards C. S. Wright, 2004 Historic Petoskey and the greater Little Traverse Bay area possess a wealth of natural and cultural gifts The region s virgin forests crystal clear waters and powerful Native American heritage inspired Henry Wadsworth Longfellow to write The Song of Hiawatha Its plentiful wildlife and peaceful natural settings provided Ernest Hemingway with his early hunting and fishing experiences Abundant natural resources set the stage for industries like the fur trade lumbering shipping and limestone quarrying Petoskey s ideal location on the picturesque bay has attracted visitors and adventurers since the 1870s In this unique volume author C S Wright explores the many legacies of the Petoskey area from the native tribes that first protected the land through the eras of industry transportation and tourism A rare collection of historic postcards illustrates Petoskey s rich history providing immaculate images of pastoral scenes industrial achievements striking architecture and community development

Berrien County Directory and History Edward B. Cowles, 2017-10-26 Excerpt from Berrien County Directory and History Containing Historical and Discriptive Sketches of the Villages and Townships Within the County and the Names and Occupations of Persons Residing Therein 1871 The preface is generally the last thing written the last thing printed and the last thing read and is often considered a nuisance Ours shall at least have the virtue of being short At the commencement of this work it was the intention of the publisher to present merely a Directory of Niles and of the several villages in the County but as the work of canvassing progressed we were convinced that to make the work of the greatest usefulness to business men we must include a list of land owners in the several townships With the aid of the Supervisors we are enabled to present the names of resident land owners of each town We have also procured the post office address as far as possible and in this respect we believe that we are in advance of any Directory ever published This will explain the delay attending the publication of this book About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
