Thinking About Exhibitions Bruce W. Ferguson,Reesa Greenberg,Sandy Nairne,2005-08-11 An anthology of writings on exhibition practice from artists critics curators and art historians plus artist curators It addresses the contradictions posed by museum and gallery sited exhibitions as well as investigating the challenge of staging art presentations displays or performances in settings outside of traditional museum or gallery locales

Transmedium Garrett Stewart,2018-01-26 If you attend a contemporary art exhibition today you're unlikely to see much traditional painting or sculpture Indeed artists today are preoccupied with what happens when you leave behind assumptions about particular media such as painting or woodcuts and instead focus on collisions between them and the new forms and ideas that those collisions generate Garrett Stewart in Transmedium dubs this new approach Conceptualism 2.0 an allusion in part to the computer images that are so often addressed by these works A successor to 1960s Conceptualism which posited that a material medium was unnecessary to the making of art Conceptualism 2.0 features artworks that are transmedial that place the aesthetic experience itself deliberately at the boundary between often incommensurable media The result Stewart shows is art whose forced convergences break open new possibilities that are wholly surprising intellectually enlightening and often uncanny

Fred Forest's Utopia Michael F. Leruth,2017-09-08 France's most famous unknown artist the innovative media provocateur Fred Forest precursor of Eduardo Kac Jodi the Yes Men RT Mark and the Guerilla Girls The innovative French media artist and prankster provocateur Fred Forest first gained notoriety in 1972 when he inserted a small blank space in Le Monde called it 150 cm² of Newspaper 150 cm² de papier journal and invited readers to fill in the space with their own work and mail their efforts to him In 1977 he satirized speculation in both the art and real estate markets by offering the first parcel of officially registered artistic square meters of undeveloped rural land for sale at an art auction Although praised by leading media theorists Vil m Flusser lauded Forest as the artist who pokes holes in media Forest's work has been largely ignored by the canon making authorities Forest calls himself France's most famous unknown artist In this book Michael Leruth offers the first book length consideration of this iconoclastic artist examining Forest's work from the 1960s to the present Leruth shows that Forest chooses alternative platforms newspapers mock commercial ventures video based interactive social interventions media hacks and hybrids and more recently the Internet that are outside the exclusive precincts of the art world A fierce critic of the French contemporary art establishment Forest famously sued the Centre Pompidou in 1994 over its opaque acquisition practices After making foundational contributions to Sociological Art in the 1970s and the Aesthetics of Communication in the 1980s the pioneering Forest saw the Internet as another way for artists to bypass the art establishment in the 1990s Arguing that there is a strong utopian quality in Forest's work Leruth sees this utopianism not as naive or conventional but as a reverse utopianism rather than envisioning an impossible ideal Forest reenvisioned and probes the quasi utopia of our media augmented everyday reality The interface is the symbolic threshold to be crossed with an open mind
