John Axe

From the pages of Doll Reader® magazine, some of the most interesting and well-researched articles by renowned author/collector John Axe have been compiled for your reading enjoyment into The Best of John Axe.

Research which began as a quest for more knowledge about his own collection was transformed into informative articles in which John Axe shared his findings with other collectors. After acquiring a number of dolls, John began to investigate their backgrounds and origins, and the information he soon amassed and presented to collectors put him in the forefront of doll experts.

Over the years, the articles which John produced enabled collectors to learn more about their collections as well as enjoy them more. Now, Hobby House Press, Inc., has gathered the "best" of these articles by John Axe and put them into one volume for easy access. Here the reader will find interesting facts and information about such diverse dolls as Pennocchio, Charlie McCarthy, Tom®, Sonja Henie, Howdy Doodly, Gibby®, Kewpie, Anne Shirley, Sarna Class, Elvis Presley and, of course, Shirley Temple. In addition, he has also written extensively about Alexander and Effanbee dolls, among others. Two of his monographs which are out-of-print have been republished in this volume also — Collectible Black Dolls and Collectible Patsy Dolls and Patsy-Types.

John has excelled as an artist and an example of his work in the form of a paper doll is included. In short, there is something in this volume for every facet of doll collecting — something to please, educate and entertain every reader!
