Understanding and Managing Children's Behaviour through Group Work Ages 7 - 11 Cath Hunter, 2013-05-02 I would highly recommend the skills expertise and delivery that Cath can bring to a school and can guarantee that any school following her advice will not regret it Carl McIver Head of School St Willibrord s R C Primary

Manchester I have worked with Cath Hunter now in two schools and find that the work she does with children parents and staff is amazing Sam Foord Headteacher Ravensbury Community School Manchester Understanding and Managing Children s Behaviour provides the reader with an insight into children s emotional wellbeing and helps them to understand what and how children communicate and how to respond in a way that provides positive messages increases their emotional vocabulary and encourages them to change their behaviour It provides an alternative and effective child centred way of managing children s behaviour through introducing the concept of reflective language and other tools equipping staff with new skills that are transferable across the school in any role The book is divided into two sections enabling the reader to link theory with practice The first section takes the reader on a journey to help them understand the different factors that influence children s behaviour The second section of the book focuses on the group work programmes how they can be used their value and the impact they can have on children and the school as a whole The activities in the group work programme explore the concept of using reflective language as a behaviour management tool and are designed to motivate build confidence self esteem and resilience Useful pedagogical features throughout the book include Practitioner and classroom management tips and reflective tasks Strategies and practical ideas for staff to use to help them engage more deeply with the contents of the book Flexible tried and tested group work programmes designed to promote inclusion rather than exclusion Clear step by step instructions for delivering the work programmes Case studies showing behaviour examples with detailed explanations for the behaviour and strategies to respond to it The book is aimed at all primary school staff especially teaching assistants learning mentors and family workers who can deliver the group work programmes It is also recommended reading for SENCOs and trainee teachers and will also be useful for therapists who work with children and are looking at delivering other approaches in their work     Writing History 7-11 Hilary Cooper, 2014-06-05 Writing History 7 11 supports students and primary teachers helping them to explore ways in which activities involving the talk that underpins historical enquiry can be developed into reading and exciting extended reflective writing The step that teachers and pupils take from talk for learning to talk for writing is a vital one In this book the authors argue that all aspects of historical enquiry leading to writing involve discussion and dialogue which permeate every aspect of doing history From this perspective they set out a theoretical framework for understanding the role of talk and reading in developing pupils critical thinking and confident reflective writing then demonstrate through a series of case studies in which teachers university lecturers and pupils work together how the theory is put into practice in the classroom Themes include How to support children in writing in a variety of interesting genres How to make links between the National Curriculum 2013 for History and for English How to plan for breadth and depth studies in the new National Curriculum How activities in History 5 11 can be developed into exciting extended writing The second half of the book draws upon case studies from a number of real primary classrooms with children of different ages Each case study shows how teaching was planned to develop children s confidence and enjoyment in discussion and to scaffold reasoned written explanation and argument Topics presented are all relevant to the new curriculum framework and include talking and reading about Time change and significance over 6000 years writing a television script Celtic Britain and the Roman Army writing a travel brochure about Celtic Britain The destruction of Roman towns writing a Saxon poem An archaeological investigation of a body in a Danish peat bog writing a newspaper report Did any countries benefit from WW11 writing an argued viewpoint The expansion westwards of European settlers writing a flap book exploring different perspectives This indispensable book provides not only sources for pupils to use in their writing but also models and exemplars of different styles and voices to draw upon

Real-World Writers: A Handbook for Teaching Writing with 7-11 Year Olds Ross Young,Felicity Ferguson,2020-05-28 Real World Writers shows teachers how they can teach their pupils to write well and with pleasure purpose and power It demonstrates how classrooms can be transformed into genuine communities of writers where talking reading writing and sharing give children confidence motivation and a sense of the relevance writing has to their own lives and learning Based on their practical experience and what research says is the most effective practice the authors share detailed guidance on how teachers can provide writing study lessons drawing on what real writers do and how to teach grammar effectively They also share a variety of authentic class writing projects with accompanying teacher notes that will encourage children to use genres appropriately creatively and flexibly The authors simple yet comprehensive approach includes how to teach the processes and craft knowledge involved in creating successful and meaningful texts This book is invaluable for all primary practitioners who wish to teach writing for real

The Schoolmaster and Women Teacher's Chronicle ,1954 Primary English: Teaching Theory and Practice Jane Medwell,David Wray,Hilary Minns,Vivienne Griffiths,Elizabeth Coates,Liz Coates,2024-06-29 The essential teaching theory and practice text covering the professional knowledge skills and understanding required to be an effective teacher of primary English
