God Bless America Kathleen E.R. Smith,2014-10-17 After Pearl Harbor Tin Pan Alley songwriters rushed to write the Great American War Song an Over There for World War II The most popular songs however continued to be romantic ballads escapist tunes or novelty songs To remedy the situation the federal government created the National Wartime Music Committee an advisory group of the Office of War Information OWI which outlined proper war songs along with tips on how and what to write The music business also formed its own Music War Committee to promote war songs Neither group succeeded The OWI hoped that Tin Pan Alley could be converted from manufacturing love songs to manufacturing war songs just as automobile plants had retooled to assemble planes and tanks But the OWI failed to comprehend the large extent by which the war effort would be defined by advertisers and merchandisers Selling merchandise was the first priority of Tin Pan Alley and the OWI never swayed them from this course Kathleen E R Smith concludes the government s fears of faltering morale did not materialize Americans did not need such war songs as Goodbye Mama I m Off To Yokohama There Are No Wings On a Foxhole or even The Sun Will Soon Be Setting On The Land Of The Rising Sun to convince them to support the war The crusade for a proper war song was misguided from the beginning and the music business then and now continues to make huge profits selling love not war songs

A Hot-bed of Musicians Paula Hathaway Anderson-Green,2002 In the Blue Ridge Mountains along the Virginia North Carolina border an extraordinarily rich musical heritage survives and flourishes Even before the legendary Bill Monroe coined the term bluegrass in the mid 1950s the traditional music of this area was coming into its own as a distinctive style Early performers from the 1920s through the 1950s many of whom migrated northward during the Great Depression popularized the music they had grown up hearing thereby preserving and celebrating the cultural legacy of their home region In A Hot Bed of Musicians Paula Anderson Green tells the stories of several of these legendary performers and instrument makers from the Upper New River Valley Whitetop Mountain region including Ola Belle Campbell Reed Albert Hash and Dave Sturgill These men and women began to bring the music of Appalachia to a wider audience well before Nashville became the center of country music Making extensive use of interviews the book reveals the fascinating experiences and enduring values behind the practice of old time music This musical heritage remains an indispensable component of Appalachian culture and Anderson Green traces the traditions down to the present generation of musicians there Written for anyone with an interest in mountain music this book focuses on performers from Alleghany and Ashe Counties in North Carolina and Carroll County and Grayson County in Virginia It includes a comprehensive appendix of place names and music venues as well as annotated lists of musicians and the songs they have performed The Author Paula Hathaway Anderson Green is an adjunct professor of English at Kennesaw State University and does research in Appalachian studies
