The Best of Helen Creighton Helen Creighton, 1988      THE BEST OF HELEN CREIGHTON. SEL. & INTRO. BY ROSEMARY BAUCHMAN. Helen Creighton, 1988      The North American Folk Music Revival: Nation and Identity in the United States and Canada, 1945-1980 Gillian Mitchell, 2016-02-17 This work represents the first comparative study of the folk revival movement in Anglophone Canada and the United States and combines this with discussion of the way folk music intersected with and was structured by conceptions of national affinity and national identity Based on original archival research carried out principally in Toronto Washington and Ottawa it is a thematic rather than general study of the movement which has been influenced by various academic disciplines including history musicology and folklore Dr Gillian Mitchell begins with an introduction that provides vital context for the subject by tracing the development of the idea of the folk folklore and folk music since the nineteenth century and how that idea has been applied in the North American context before going on to examine links forged by folksong collectors artists and musicians between folk music and national identity during the early twentieth century With the boom of the revival in the early sixties came the ways in which the movement in both countries proudly promoted a vision of nation that was inclusive pluralistic and eclectic It was a vision which proved compatible with both Canada and America enabling both countries to explore a diversity of music without exclusiveness or narrowness of focus It was also closely linked to the idealism of the grassroots political movements of the early 1960s such as integrationist civil rights and the early student movement After 1965 this inclusive vision of nation in folk music began to wane While the celebrations of the Centennial in Canada led to a re emphasis on the Canadianness of Canadian folk music the turbulent events in the United States led many ex revivalists to turn away from politics and embrace new identities as introspective singer songwriters Many of those who remained interested in traditional folk music styles such as Celtic or Klezmer music tended to be very insular and conservative in their approach rather than linking their chosen genre to a wider world of folk music however more recent attempts at fusion or world music suggest a return to the eclectic spirit of the 1960s folk revival Thus from 1945 to 1980 folk music in Canada and America experienced an evolving and complex relationship with the concepts of nation and national identity Students will find the book useful as an introduction not only to key themes in the folk revival but also to concepts in the study of national identity and to topics in American and Canadian cultural history Academic specialists will encounter an alternative perspective from the more general broad approach offered by earlier histories of the folk revival movement      Scripturalizing the Human Vincent L. Wimbush, 2015-07-16 Scripturalizing the Human is a transdisciplinary collection of essays that reconceptualizes and models scriptural studies as a critical comparative set of practices with broad ramifications for scholars of religion and biblical studies This critical historical and ethnographic project is focused on scriptures scripturalization scripturalizing as shorthand for the psycho cultural and socio political work we make language do for and to us Each essay focuses on an instance of or situation involving such work engaging with the Bible Book of Mormon Bhagavata Purana and other sacred texts artifacts and practices in order to explore historical and ongoing constructions of the human Contributors use the category of scriptures understood not simply as texts but as freighted shorthand for the dynamics and ultimate politics of language as tools for self illumination and self analysis The significance of the collection lies in the window it opens to the rich and complex view of the highs and lows of human un making as it establishes the connections between a seemingly basic and apolitical religious category and a set of larger social cultural phenomena and dynamics

Oak Island Illustrated John Bell, 2021-09-07 More than two centuries ago compelling evidence of buried treasure was found on Nova Scotia's Oak Island Since then extensive engineering works have been discovered and mysterious objects unearthed in and around the island's Money Pit. The ongoing search has been featured on a long running popular television series but to this day the island guards its secrets. In this book historian John Bell presents all the competing theories about who buried treasure on the island and how the complex structures in the Money Pit that have kept treasure hunters at bay were created. Is the island the former settlement of pre-Columbian Vikings? The location of a lost pirate treasure or royal treasures from England? The hiding spot for rogue captains of Spanish treasure ships? John Bell presents each theory in turn. Bell also provides a detailed illustration of the mysterious work that was done on the island prior to the discovery of the Money Pit in 1795. The illustration shows each element of the Pit's design as it was first built including elaborate flood tunnels, a cave in shaft and more. This book offers a fascinating opportunity to explore many centuries of world history from the perspective of one of the greatest mysteries of all time. The extensive visuals showcase what treasures could have been hidden and illustrate the lives of the adventurers, renegades, pirates, politicians and paranormal entities that might be responsible for this puzzle. Quill & Quire, 2004 Helen Creighton Helen Creighton, 1975 Quest of the Folk, CLS Edition Ian McKay, 2009-05-01 The popular conception of Nova Scotians as a pure, simple, idyllic people is false, argues Ian McKay. In The Quest of the Folk he shows how the province's tourism industry and cultural producers manipulated and refashioned the cultural identity of the region and its people to project traditional folk values. McKay offers an in-depth analysis of the infusion of a folk ideology into the art and literature of the region and the use of the idea of the Simple Life in tourism promotion. He examines how Nova Scotia's cultural history was rewritten to erase evidence of an urban capitalist society, class and ethnic differences and women's emancipation. In doing so he sheds new light on the roles of Helen Creighton, the Maritime region's most famous folklorist, and Mary Black, an influential handicrafts revivalist, in creating this false identity. African-American Pioneers in Anthropology Ira E. Harrison, Faye V. Harrison, Faye Venetia Harrison, 1999 This pathbreaking collection of intellectual biographies is the first to probe the careers of thirteen early African American anthropologists, detailing both their achievements and their struggle with the latent and sometimes blatant racism of the times. Invaluable to historians of anthropology, this collection will also be useful to readers interested in African American studies and biography. The lives and work of Caroline Bond Day, Zora Neale Hurston, Louis Eugene King, Laurence Foster W. Montague Cobb, Katherine Dunham, Ellen Irene Diggs, Allison Davis, St. Clair Drake, Arthur Huff Fauset, William S. Willis Jr., Hubert Barnes, Ross Elliot Skinner. The Sixties in Canada M. Athena Palaeologu, 2009 An extraordinary work that brings to life the events and trends of the 60s in Canada. Flip Flop Fantasy Christina Laflamme, 2017-11-27 On a hot and humid July day in 2016 I set out from my home in the heart of Toronto on a three hundred dollar bicycle, alone, forty-one years old, with next to no camping or long distance cycling experience. My destination, more than two thousand kilometers away, the Cabot Trail. I had no idea what I was doing or why I was doing it. All I knew was I was scared as hell. Single, no children, and perhaps feeling a little lost, I was unsure of so many things about my life However this bike ride I was entirely sure about It was the only thing that felt right so perhaps the journey would give me the reason But would my girlish gumption be enough to see me through camping alone in the deep dark woods riding across thousands of kilometers and climbing the many mountains of the Cabot Trail Would going it alone and placing my faith in my fellow humans prove well founded Every moment was like a wild and wonderful wager I knew in my heart that women are strong and that people are good And this summer I basically bet my life on it      Made-in-Canada Humour Beverly J.
