Class Conflict And Mobility Theories And Studies Of Class Structure:

Class, Conflict, and Mobility Joseph Lopreato, Lawrence E. Hazelrigg, 1972 Class, Ideologies and Educational Futures D Livingstone, 2012-05-16 This book provides a systematic and detailed analysis of class relations in advanced capitalist societies as a basis for understanding both class differences in educational practices and the relative effects of class and other social background factors on public attitudes toward education Secondly the book offers an empirically grounded summary of the contending educational ideologies in advanced capitalism through a discourse analysis of the public statements of spokes persons for major class groupings Thirdly using the data from several public opinion surveys in Ontario profiles of public attitudes on critical education issues are interpreted in terms of the actual effects of class and other social background factors as well as the mediating influences of contending ideologies Finally a general approach and array of tactics for creating practical alternative educational and social futures are illustrated through the book Gender and Rural Development: Introduction Olanike F. Deji, 2011 Gender equality is gaining global recognition as a catalyst for sustainable development and a proven stratagem for alleviating poverty and enhancing food security in developing countries of Africa where agriculture is the main economic stay The book Gender and Rural Development Volume 1 introduces gender discussions into key topics in the curriculum for Nigerian university agricultural undergraduate studies with the purpose of enhancing gender responsive agricultural and rural development programs projects policies and budgets required for sustainable development Series Spektrum Berliner Reihe zu Gesellschaft Wirtschaft und Politik in Entwicklungsländern Berlin Series on Society Economy and Politics in Developing Countries Vol 106 Labor Markets, Gender and Social Stratification in East Asia , 2015-12-22 Following the Asian economic crisis of the 1990s this is the first book to examine the structure and transformation of the labor markets and social stratification of contemporary East Asia namely Japan Korea Taiwan and China focusing in particular on gender inequality It deals with social mobility and gender differences in unemployment temporary employment and self employment Additionally gender segregation social identity and suicide rates are also addressed Taken together the issues raised in this volume reinforce the advantage of a comparative approach to East Asian Studies The findings supported by strong statistical analysis clearly call into question a longstanding view that East Asian gender regimes and class structure are homogeneous Indeed this is demonstrably not the case as Labor Markets Gender and Social Stratification in East Asia shows revealing as it does considerable diversities in labor markets gender regimes and social mobility within East Asian societies due to historical and institutional differences Contributors include Chang Chin Fen Kim Young Mi Oda Akiko Phang Hanam Sakaguchi Yusuke Shibata Haruka Takamatsu Rie Takenoshita Hirohisa Tarohmaru Hiroshi Xie Guihua and Yamato Reiko Urbanism and Urbanization Noel Iverson, 2022-10-24 Nature humaine et évolution bio-culturelle , 1986 Human Nature and Biocultural Evolution Joseph Lopreato, 2024-12-02 First published in 1984 Human Nature and Biocultural Evolution aims to delineate a theory of human nature viewed as an interrelated set of genetically programmed behavioral predispositions and a theory of biocultural evolution The author s approach is based on the hypothesis that innate predispositions and cultural environmental factors cooperate to determine human behavior and socio cultural forms Professor Lopreato begins by tracing the development of evolutionary biology up to sociobiology It is his argument that the social and biological disciplines have for over a century been moving towards a synthesis and that Homo sapiens is neither just another animal nor so unique a being that culture has become divorced from its genetic underpinnings The argument is supported with evidence from evolutionary biology and social science with a critical discussion of basic issues of behavioral science and with an analysis of certain famous theories in social science e g theories of suicide anomie capitalism which prove to be richer and more complete when viewed from a biocultural perspective The theory of human nature is arrived at through a rich analysis of ethnographic psychological and sociological arguments and data as well as facts and theories from comparative zoology In the process the author treats critically numerous theoretical problems associated with topics such as exploitation class consciousness structured inequality reciprocal behavior territorial aggression religious ritual socialization ethnicity and prejudice The author concludes with an examination of behavioral predispositions that are hypothesized to be at the base of cultural variation

Power in the Workplace Steven Peter Vallas,1993-01-01 This book presents a systematic case study of the hi tech communications industry that reveals many trends in managerial authority in the workplace Vallas reveals the mechanisms that enable advanced capitalist firms to achieve and maintain control over the workers they employ He demonstrates that the spread and integration of automated technologies place lower level human labor in positions of declining power The new regime does not deskill workers and need not lead toward what some have called electronic sweatshops Nevertheless Vallas concludes that increasing managerial control over production poses a major challenge to those who advocate labor participation in the management of American industries
