The Formation of Islam Jonathan P.

Berkey,2003 Jonathan Berkey s 2003 book surveys the religious history of the peoples of the Near East from roughly 600 to 1800 CE The opening chapter examines the religious scene in the Near East in late antiquity and the religious traditions which preceded Islam Subsequent chapters investigate Islam s first century and the beginnings of its own traditions the classical period from the accession of the Abbasids to the rise of the Buyid amirs and thereafter the emergence of new forms of Islam in the middle period Throughout close attention is paid to the experiences of Jews and Christians as well as Muslims The book stresses that Islam did not appear all at once but emerged slowly as part of a prolonged process whereby it was differentiated from other religious traditions and indeed that much that we take as characteristic of Islam is in fact the product of the medieval period John of Damascus, First Apologist to the Muslims Daniel J. Janosik,2016-11-08 Much of the world today is convulsed in an epic struggle between the Christian West and Islam Scholars seeking to understand the issues look back in history to unearth the roots of this conflict Of great value in this effort are the writings of an eyewitness a devoted Christian who served as chief financial officer of the Umayyad Empire and wrote at the time Islam was developing John of Damascus 675 750 authored two major works the Heresy of the Ishmaelites and the Disputation between a Christian and a Saracen to provide an apologetic response to Islam from a Christian perspective His writings shed light on many questions that are pertinent today When was the Qur an actually written What was the role of the powerful caliph Abd al Malik in the making of Muhammad How did the theological issues related to the deity of Christ and the Trinity develop in the early days of Islam This book delves into the life of John and studies his apologetic writings in detail utilizing the first English translation from the critical text It seeks to address these questions thoughtfully provide valuable insights from the past and then equip today s church as it engages with Islam The Early Islamic Conquests Fred Mcgraw Donner,2014-07-14 In this contribution to the ongoing debate on the nature and causes of the Islamic conquests in Syria and Iraq during the sixth and seventh centuries Fred Donner argues for a necessary distinction between the causes of the conquests the causes of their success and the causes of the subsequent Arab migrations to the Fertile Crescent Originally published in 1982 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Introduction to Islamic Civilization Roger Savory,1976-05-28 Based on a successful series of
