The Art of Richard Long William Malpas,2007 A critical study of the work of British artist Richard Long

Postmodern Powys Joe Boulter,2008 The Course of English Surrealist Poetry Since the 1930s Rob Jackaman,1989 This study proposes that there has been a revival of surrealist poetry and traces an uninterrupted thread of development in surrealism throughout 20th century English poetry Altered Reading Jill Robbins,1999-05-15 How might the ethical philosophy of the renowned French thinker Emmanuel Levinas relate to literature Because his philosophy addresses the very opening of ethical experience it cannot be applied readily as a critical method to literary texts Yet Levinas s work studied as it is with literary sources and quotations demands a literary account With an attitude at once respectful and interrogative closely attentive to Levinas s texts while in dialogue with readings by Derrida Blanchot and Bataille Altered Reading shows how the thread of the literary leads directly to the internal tensions of Levinas s ethical discourse Jill Robbins provides a comprehensive critical account of Levinas's early and mature philosophy as well as later key transitional essays. In an invaluable appendix she includes her own translation of an important previously untranslated essay by Bataille on Levinas. Altered Reading will interest philosophers, literary critics, scholars of religion and others drawn to Levinas's work.

Amorous Life Harald William Fawcner, 2007. AMOROUS LIFE One of the most fascinating explorations of the work of British novelist John Cowper Powys by H. W. Fawcner, one of the foremost commentators of this neglected completely extraordinary author. EXTRACT Weymouth Sands is a wonderful novel. In a sense it is the foremost work to come from the pen of John Cowper Powys. There is a sense of aesthetic consummation saving the novel from the sprawling excessiveness of some of its chief creative rivals. A Glastonbury Romance has the same indomitable energy and even the same type of internal happiness but it does not have an equal sense of measure, poise and economy. At the same time Weymouth Sands is not a curtailment of Powys's genius in the way that Great Expectations sacrifices Dickens's marvellous capacity for nonsensical digression demonstrated as early as Pickwick Papers. The lack of bulk and the loss of enormity do not prevent Weymouth Sands from asserting itself as much. Weymouth is not less solid than Glastonbury. The advancing and retreating sea tides are not conceived on a scale that is more limited than the one utilized as canvas for the grand brushstrokes of history in Owen Glendower. In becoming John Cowper's most aesthetically perfect work Weymouth Sands has made no sacrifices whatsoever. Here that which is most aesthetic is by the same token that which is most Powysian, most eccentric. For some strange reason the eccentricity of Weymouth Sands is compatible with the principles of traditional aesthetic form, something which we can say of few other works from the hand of this artist. John Cowper's best fiction and best philosophy is built on the idea, indeed reality of deliciousness. Deliciousness as such vanishes from the writer's horizon as he progressively slips from the height of his powers into old age. In this sliding Powys drifts away not only from the astonishing precision of his material, hold on the richness of his own life, receptivity but also from the idea of the work of art as a quintessentially Powysian construct. In John Cowper Powys's best works the idea of the presence of deliciousness is indistinguishable from the idea of the presence of amorous life. By amorous life I basically mean what the narrator means in Weymouth Sands when describes the ideal erotic affectivity of women like Gipsy May Marret and Peg Frampton as a latent passion to offer up their amorous life as mystics offer up their souls. In this assertion amorous life and soul are understood as being on a par as somehow being each other's possible substitutes. In other words the soul passes imperceptibly into amorous life for a mystic who no longer lives in the ancient world of dogma but in the world as we know it today. In a sense in fact amorous life is a refinement of soul. The Cleaving Dr. Isabelle Thuy Pelaud, 2025-04-15.
