Randi's Prize Robert McLuhan, 2010 James The Amazing Randi is a stage magician who says he has a million dollars for anyone who can convince him they have psychic powers No one has even come close to winning proof say sceptical scientists that there is no such thing as the paranormal But are they right In this illuminating and often provocative analysis Robert McLuhan examines the influence of Randi and other debunking sceptics in shaping scientific opinion about such things as telepathy psychics ghosts and near death experiences He points out that scientific researchers who investigate these things at first hand overwhelmingly consider them to be genuinely anomalous But this has shocking implications for science for society and for even perhaps for ourselves as individuals Hence the sceptics insistence that they should rather be attributed to fraud imagination and wishful thinking However this extraordinary and little understood aspect of consciousness has much to tell us about the human situation McLuhan suggests And at a time when militants are polarising the debate about religion its mystical spiritual element offers an optimistic and enlightened way forward Randi's Prize is aimed at anyone interested in spirituality or those curious to know the truth about paranormal claims It's an intelligent and readable analysis of scientific research into the paranormal which uniquely also closely examines the arguments of well known sceptics
