Lal, Kate Fortune, 2000-01-01 An encyclopaedia of information on major aspects of Pacific life including the physical environment peoples history politics economy society and culture The CD ROM contains hyperlinks between section titles and sections a library of all the maps in the encyclopaedia and a photo library Routledge Handbook on Tourism and Small Island States in the Pacific Marcus L. Stephenson, 2022-12-30 This timely handbook critically examines the development and role of tourism in small Pacific Island states located across Melanesia Micronesia and Polynesia The volume presents an expansive evaluation of current issues challenges and potentialities for the 13 self governing states Interdisciplinary in coverage and borne of a varied and international authorship this handbook incorporates 27 specifically commissioned and original contributions Structured into four thematic sections and embellished with insightful tables and illustrations throughout the overarching ethos of this volume is to contribute to framing the role of tourism tourism development and the tourism industry within the context of self governing Pacific Island states faced with the challenge of pursuing an independent path of development In doing so the work highlights and deciphers various tourism development perplexities in the Pacific examining closely the intersecting sociocultural geopolitical environmental organizational operational and strategic challenges This volume thus discusses a range of issues facilitators and inhibitors of tourism growth and development climate change ecological concerns and eco tourism non tourism and undertourism crisis management and the COVID 19 virus transportation and tourism infrastructural concerns tourism policy and planning including tourism governance sectoral links between tourism food and agriculture gender and micro entrepreneurship community management and participation cultural and natural heritage sites and the handicraft industry The work pays critical attention to the various trajectories of sustainable tourism and the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals Despite the many challenges and concerns raised the book implicates the importance of good governance progressive post COVID 19 recovery strategies and directives and creative and imaginative options in the successful development re development and advancement of tourism As a definitive reference resource for this subject area this handbook will be of great interest to students researchers and academics within tourism development studies geography Pacific studies sustainability and environmental studies Culture, Kastom, Tradition Lamont Lindstrom, Geoffrey Miles White, 1994

Atlas of World Art John Onians, 2004 Combines a survey of world art with maps showing the associations and dissemination of culture across the globe Australian National Bibliography, 1991 Artistic Heritage in a Changing Pacific Philip J. C. Dark, Roger G. Rose, 1993-09-01 The great value of this work is the uniformly high quality of papers and their revelation of contemporary trends in Oceanic art research Ethnoarts World Art Ben Burt, 2020-07-12 What do we mean by art As a category of objects the concept belongs to a Western cultural tradition originally European and now increasingly global but how useful is it for understanding other traditions To understand art as a universal human value we need to look at how the concept was constructed in order to reconstruct it through an understanding of the wider world Western art values have a pervasive influence upon non Western cultures and upon Western attitudes to them This innovative yet accessible new text explores the ways theories of art developed as Western knowledge of the world expanded through exploration and trade conquest colonisation and research into other cultures present and past It considers the issues arising from the historical relationships which brought diverse artistic traditions together under the influence of Western art values looking at how art has been used by colonisers and colonised in the causes of collecting and commerce cultural hegemony and autonomous identities World Art questions conventional Western assumptions of art from an anthropological perspective which allows comparison between cultures It treats art as a property of artefacts rather than a category of objects reclaiming the idea of world art from the art world This book is essential reading for all students on anthropology of art courses as well as students of museum studies and art history based on a wide range of case studies and supported by learning features such as annotated further reading and chapter opening summaries Library Catalogue: Subject catalogue University of London.
