Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Women, Voice, and Agency Yanıkkaya, Berrin,Nairn, Angelique Margarita,2020-07-31 Across the world it has remained a significant challenge for women to be heard within crucial components of society Male domination has a vast history of restricting the visibility and voices of women in areas including economics and politics In recent years however those longstanding barriers are beginning to crumble as feminism and women s rights have become vital areas of research Understanding the importance of having a voice and its relation to the construction of women s empowerment as well as existing limitations in global regions is imperative Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Women Voice and Agency is a collection of innovative research on the examination of giving voice to women s issues in the contemporary world and their increasing impact within the various pillars of society While highlighting topics including social change digital activism and inclusion this book is ideally designed for researchers activists policymakers practitioners politicians advocates educators and students seeking current research on women empowerment and the interpretation of women s voices throughout the globe Collaboration Through Craft Amanda Ravetz,Alice Kettle,Helen

Felcey, 2017-07-27 Offering a challenging new argument for the collaborative power of craft this ground breaking volume analyses the philosophies politics and practicalities of collaborative craft work The book is accessibly organised into four sections covering the cooperation and compromises required by the collaborative process the potential of recent technological advances for the field of craft the implications of cross disciplinary and cross cultural collaborations for authority and ownership and the impact of crafted collaborations on the institutions where we work learn and teach With cutting edge essays by established makers and artists such as Allison Smith US and Brass Art UK curator Lesley Millar textile designer Trish Belford and distinguished thinker Glenn Adamson Collaborating Through Craft will be essential reading for students artists makers curators and scholars across a number of fields Seals, Craft, and Community in Bronze Age Crete Emily S. K. Anderson, 2016-10-14 Early Minoan Crete is re envisioned as a space of social innovation in which change occurred through people and objects Craft and the Kingly Ideal Mary W. Helms, 2013-08-26 In ancient Mediterranean cultures diamonds were thought to endow their owners with invincibility In contemporary United States culture a foreign made luxury car is believed to give its owner status and prestige Where do these beliefs come from In this study of craft production and long distance trade in traditional nonindustrial societies Mary W Helms explores the power attributed to objects that either are produced by skilled artisans and or come from afar She argues that fine artisanship and long distance trade both of which are more available to powerful elites than to ordinary people are means of creating or acquiring tangible objects that embody intangible powers and energies from the cosmological realms of gods ancestors or heroes Through the objects these qualities become available to human society and confer honor and power on their possessors Helms novel approach equates trade with artistry and emphasizes acquisition rather than distribution She rejects the classic Western separation between economics and aesthetics and offers a new paradigm for understanding traditional societies that will be of interest to all anthropologists and archaeologists
