Arts In The West Since 1945:

The Arts in the West Since 1945 Arthur Marwick, 2002 The Arts hold a revered and respected place within modern Western society but what exactly defines culture what gives it this enigmatic status what influences its composition and propagation what controls and limitations is it subject to and what can it achieve within our world Arthur Marwick tackles these issues head on with a both detailed and eclectic account of the Arts in the West since the Second World War He looks at the full range of possible candidates for the category of Art from both elite and popular cultures from high literature to pulp fiction from art house cinema to soap opera Art Music to Rock and Pop This book looks at the fascinating diversity of twentieth century art in the context of the social technological and political events movements and developments that have shaped our history such as the holocaust the television feminism Marwick examines how these factors have affected the cultural output of Western society since 1945 and in turn how art has fed back its own agenda and priorities into this society

A Companion to Contemporary Britain 1939 - 2000 Paul Addison, Harriet Jones, 2008-04-15 A Companion to Contemporary Britain covers the key themes and debates of 20th century history from the outbreak of the Second World War to the end of the century Assesses the impact of the Second World War Looks at Britain's role in the wider world including the legacy of Empire Britain's special relationship with the United States and integration with continental Europe Explores cultural issues such as class consciousness immigration and race relations changing gender roles and the impact of the mass media Covers domestic politics and the economy Introduces the varied perspectives dominating historical writing on this period Identifies the key issues which are likely to fuel future debate

Landscape and Western Art Malcolm Andrews, 1999 This book explores many issues raised by the range of ideas and images of the natural world in Western art since the Renaissance The whole concept of landscape is examined as a representation of the relationship between the human and natural worlds Featured artists include Claude Freidrich Turner Cole and Ruisdael and many different forms of landscape art are addressed such as land art painting photography garden design panorama and cartography

Cinemas of the World James Chapman, 2004-06-03 The cinema has been the pre eminent popular art form of the 20th century In Cinemas of the World James Chapman examines the relationship between film and society in the modern world film as entertainment medium film as a reflection of national cultures and preoccupations film as an instrument of propaganda He also explores two interrelated issues that have recurred throughout the history of cinema the economic and cultural hegemony of Hollywood on the one hand and on the other the attempts of film makers elsewhere to establish indigenous national cinemas drawing on their own cultures and societies Chapman examines the rise to dominance of Hollywood cinema in the silent and early sound periods He discusses the characteristic themes of American movies from the Depression to the end of the Cold War especially those found in the western and film noir genres that are often used as vehicles for exploring issues central to us society and politics He looks at national cinemas in various European countries in the period between the end of the First World War and the end of the Second which all exhibit the formal and aesthetic properties of modernism The emergence of the so called new cinemas of Europe and the wider world since 1960 are also explored Chapman is a tough thinking original writer an engaging excellent piece of work David Lancaster Film and History The Art of the Roman Empire AD 100-450 Jaś Elsner,2018 A beautifully illustrated new edition of the best single volume guide to Roman and early Christian art Provides an introduction to the great diversity of artistic styles during the period and their context

The Art of Art History Donald Preziosi,2009 This anthology is a guide to understanding art history through critical reading of the field s most innovative and influential texts focusing on the past two centuries Modern Art, 1851-1929 Richard R. Brettell,1999 In a bold new look at the Modern Art era Brettell explores the works of such artists as Monet Gauguin Picasso and Dali as well as lesser known figures in relation to expansion colonialism national and internationalism and the rise of the museum 140 illustrations 75 in color Medieval Art Veronica Sekules,2001-04-26 This refreshing new look at Medieval art conveys a very real sense of the impact of art on everyday life in Europe from 1000 to 1500 It examines the importance of art in the expression and spread of knowledge and ideas including notions of the heroism and justice of war and the dominant view of Christianity Taking its starting point from issues of contemporary relevance such as the environment the identity of the artist and the position of women the book also highlights the attitudes and events specific to the sophisticated visual culture of the Middle Ages and goes on to link this period to the Renaissance The fascinating question of whether commercial and social activities between countries encouraged similar artistic taste and patronage or contributed to the defining of cultural difference in Europe is fully explored Art in Renaissance Italy, 1350-1500 Evelyn S. Welch,2000 Between the Black Death in the mid fourteenth century and the French invasions at the end of the fifteenth artists such as Masaccio Donatello Fra Angelico and Leonardo working in the kingdoms princedoms and republics of the Italian peninsula created some of the most influential and exciting works in a variety of artistic fields Yet the traditional story of the Renaissance has been dramatically revised in the light of new scholarship and new issues have greatly enriched our understanding of the period Emphasis has been placed on recreating the experience of contemporary Italians the patrons who commissioned the works the members of the public who viewed them and the artists who produced them In this book Evelyn Welch presents a fresh picture of the Italian Renaissance Giving equal weight to the Italian regions outside Florence she discusses a wide range of works from paintings to coins and from sculptures to tapestries examines the issues of materials workshop practises and artist patron relationships and explores the ways in which visual imagery related to contemporary sexual social and political behaviour Art History After Modernism Hans Belting,2003-08 Art history after modernism does not only mean that art looks different today it also means that our discourse on art has taken a different direction if it is safe to say it has taken a direction at all So begins Hans Belting s brilliant iconoclastic reconsideration of art and art history at the end of the millennium which builds upon his earlier and highly successful volume The End of the History of Art Known for his striking and original theories about the nature of art according to the Economist Belting here examines how art is made viewed and interpreted today Arguing that contemporary art has burst out of the frame that art history had built for it Belting calls for an entirely new approach to thinking and writing about art He moves effortlessly between contemporary issues the rise of global and minority art and its consequences for Western art history installation and video art and the troubled institution of the art museum and questions central to art history s definition of itself such as the distinction between high and low culture art criticism versus art history and the invention of modernism in art history Forty eight black and white images illustrate the text perfectly reflecting the state of contemporary art With Art History after Modernism Belting retains his place as one of the most original thinkers working in the visual arts today Modern Architecture Christy Anderson,2013-02-28 A completely new approach to the history of Renaissance architecture encompassing the entire continent and dealing with the work of well known architects such as Michelangelo and Andrea Palladio alongside lesser known though no less innovative designers such as Juan Guas in Portugal and Benedikt Ried in Prague and Eastern Europe Twentieth Century Design Jonathan M. Woodham,1997-04-10 A look at the wider issues of design and industrial culture throughout Europe Scandinavia North America and the Far East The book explores the way in which 20th century designs such as the Coca Cola bottle have affected our culture more than those considered true classics

Architecture in the United States Dell Upton,1998 From Native American sites in New Mexico and Arizona to the ancient earthworks of the Mississippi Valley to the most fashionable contemporary buildings of Chicago and New York American architecture is incredibly varied In this revolutionary interpretation Upton examines American architecture in relation to five themes community nature technology money and art 109 illustrations 40 linecuts Map The Postwar Developments of Japanese Studies in the United States Helen Hardacre,1998 This volume of twelve essays with useful bibliographies in the fields of history art religion literature anthropology political science and law documents the history of United States scholarship on Japan since 1945 Frank Lobdell Frank Lobdell,Timothy Anglin Burgard,2003 The first comprehensive overview of Frank Lobdell s paintings drawings prints and sketchbooks and his long career as artist and teacher in the San Francisco Bay Area Early Medieval Art Lawrence Nees,2002 Earliest Christian art Saints and holy places Holy images Artistic production for the wealthy Icons iconography Edinburgh Festivals Angela Bartie,2014-05-14 This book explores the culture wars of 1945 1970 and is the first major study of the origins and development of this leading annual arts extravaganza American Photography Miles Orvell,2003 150 years of American photography come alive in this exciting new book placing it in its cultural context for the first time Orvell examines this fascinating subject through a wide range of well known and less well known images He ranges from portraiture and landscape photography family albums and memory and analyses the particularly American way in which American photographers have viewed the world around them Orvell combines a clear overview of the changing nature of photographic thinking and practice in this period with an exploration of key concepts The result is the first coherent history of American photography which examines issues such as the nature of photographic exploitation experimental techniques the power of the photograph to shock and whether we should subscribe to the notion of a visual history

WILDE NOW Pierpaolo Martino, 2023-05-08 WILDE NOWreads Oscar Wilde through our now through a contemporary sensibility and approach in which literature and popular culture interrogate and are interrogated by critical concepts and categories such as performance celebrity intermediality and consumerism This volume exceeds the shape and meaning of a critical study to turn into a drama of five different acts moments in Wilde's life and work his early performances in Dublin London and Oxford the 1882 American tour his successful season of the first half of the 1890s his prison years and finally his glorious resurrection in contemporary pop culture Most importantly WILDE NOW approaches these moments through contemporary rewritings and performances of Oscar Wilde in the fields of cinema music and literature by such artists as Al Pacino Rupert Everett Stephen Fry Gyles Brandreth David Hare David Bowie Morrissey Nick Cave Neil Tennant Gavin Friday These artists through their awareness of the importance of being playing Oscar in their specific worlds and cultural contexts will also show us that Wilde can be conceived as a subversive critical role one might successfully perform and appropriate now more than ever
