The History of Canada John Mercer McMullen,1891 The Pictorial History of England: a History of the People as Well as of the Kingdom George Lillie Craik,1858 Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work Francis J. Turner,2006-01-01 All of us as Canadians are touched throughout our lives by some aspect of social welfare either as recipients donors or taxpayers But despite the importance of the social network in our country there has been no single source of information about this critical component of our society Even professionals in the field of social work or social services have not had a comprehensive volume addressing the myriad features of this critical societal structure The Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work fills this need Over five hundred topics important to Canadian social work are covered written by a highly diverse group of social workers covering all aspects of the field and all areas of the country Practitioners policy makers academics social advocates researchers students and administrators present a rich overview of the complexity and diversity of social work and social welfare as it exists in Canada The principal finding from this project underscores the long held perception that there is a Canadian model of social work that is unique and stands as a useful model to other countries The Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work will be an important source of information both to Canadians and to interested groups around the world The Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work is available in e book version by subscription or from university and college libraries through the following vendors Canadian Electronic Library Ebrary MyiLibrary and Netlibrary

The Spectator ,1838 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik,2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada s flagship genre It continues to attract the country s most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre s beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre s development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature

For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany Importers Manual USA Edward G. The United States as a Neighbour from a Canadian Point of View Robert Falconer, 2014-01-30 First published in 1925 this book examines the United States as a neighbour to Canada Falconer analyses the shared history of the two countries and the similarities and differences between Canadian and American ways of life as well as Canada's continued role as interpreter between the United States and Britain The novel english as paradigm of canadian literary identity Natalia Rodriguez Nieto, 2014-04-02 La presente tesis se centra en el género novelístico en lengua inglesa como paradigma de la Identidad literaria canadiense con el fin de analizar su construcción restrictiva por medio de la Recuperación de contribuciones de mujeres y autores étnicos que han sido bien relegadas o bien infravaloradas como agentes literarios relevantes Esta investigación abarca un periodo que comprende desde la publicación de la primera novela canadiense en inglés The History of Emily Montague de Frances Brooke en 1769 hasta 1904 año en el que la obra de Sara Jeannette Duncan titulada The Imperialist vio la luz es decir desde los comienzos del género en inglés hasta la primera novela modernista La primera parte engloba el marco teórico general del Nuevo Historicismo el Feminismo y los Estudios étnicos puesto que resaltan el papel crucial de la historización de la literatura en la creación de tradiciones e identidades literarias e impulsan una visión crítica tanto de la producción literaria de mujeres y escritores étnicos como de su consideración. La segunda parte se centra en la historia tradicional e identidad literarias canadienses. Por medio de la novela se analiza el proceso de antologización de la literatura canadiense en inglés a través de un estudio detallado sobre la presencia/ausencia de autoras y autores étnicos en antologías publicadas entre 1920 y 2004. También se incluyen las contribuciones de críticos/as feministas y/o étnicos/puesto que cuestionan axiomas establecidos en la historia tradicional e identidad canadienses y posibilitan el acceso a las obras de estos escritores/as alternativos cuyos diversos sentidos identitarios de otro modo silenciados son revelados. Precisamente estos diferentes sentidos de la identidad son el eje de la tercera parte. Desde 1769 a 1904 existen una primera novela frecuentemente infravalorada escrita Frances Brooke, novelas olvidadas de autoras con gran reconocimiento como Susanna Strickland Moodie, escritoras relevantes en la ficción juvenil como es el caso de Agnes Maule Machar, Margaret Murray Robertson y Margaret Marshall Saunders, contribuciones tempranas de autores étnicos como Martin Robinson Delany y Winnifred Eaton, así como novelistas de éxito de la talla Agnes Early Fleming, Lily Dougall, Susan Frances Harrison y Sara Jeannette Duncan. Dando voz y resaltando su relevancia, este trabajo demuestra que la literatura canadiense temprana está plagada de autoras y autores étnicos inteligentes, poderosos y reconocidos cuyas aportaciones deben ser reconsideradas si se pretende seguir manteniendo el carácter multicultural y no patriarcal de las letras canadienses. Estas novelas de un autor afroamericano y residente temporal en Canadá, de una mujer canadiense de ascendencia china, inglesa y un amplio espectro de mujeres inmigrantes o nativas pone de manifiesto no sólo que Canadá cuenta con un pasado literario sólido y forjado desde la diversidad sino que cuestiona el hecho de que esta herencia literaria todavía necesita ser recuperada. House

Documents, Otherwise Publ. as Executive Documents United States. Congress. House, 1866 Identifying as Arab in Canada Houda Asal, 2020-10-11T00:00:00Z While Arabs now attract considerable attention from media, the state and sociological studies, their history in Canada remains little known. Identifying as Arab in Canada begins to rectify this invisibilization by exploring the migration from Makkah, the Middle East to Canada from the late 19th century through the 1970s. Houda Asal breathes life into this migratory history and the people who made the journey and examines the public collective existence they created in Canada in order to understand both the identity Arabs have constructed for themselves here and the identity that has been constructed for them by the Canadian state. Using archival research, media analysis, laws and statistics and a series of interviews, Asal offers a thorough examination of the institutions these migrants and their descendants built and the various ways they expressed their identity and organized their religious, social and political lives. Identifying as Arab in Canada offers an impressively researched but accessibly written, much needed glimpse into the long history of the Arab population in Canada. Eight Years in Canada Richardson (Major, John), 1847
