As On A Darkling Plain:

A Darkling Plain Kristen Renwick Monroe, Chloe Lampros-Monroe, Jonah Robnett Pellecchia, 2015 A Darkling Plain fills a scholarly void by asking how people maintain or reclaim their humanity during war On a Darkling Plain James Haydock, 2008-03-27 Speaking the deepest and truest thoughts of humankind in the language available only to the gifted the Victorian poets elected to do more than merely sing as versifiers By coming to grips with thorny contemporary issues and suggesting workable solutions they struggled to lead their people out of the wilderness Tennyson who came to be known as the voice of Victorianism is the poet most often credited with this ambition But Matthew Arnold and the other major poets had a similar aim Their poems while not devoid of feeling are charged with the main currents of social scientific religious and philosophical thought Interwoven and resonating in sensuous song is their own thought The best of the poetry fits the word and thought to the troubling developments of the time and rises to a prophecy to predict the problems of our time A

Transformations of Mind Michael McGhee, 2000-04-28 The book offers a conception of philosophy as a form of self enquiry which begins not in reflection but in silence and meditation conceived as conditions for the emergence and cessation of contending states of mind which influence perception and action The philosopher thus becomes a kind of cartographer of a shifting interior landscape This underlying perspective explains the personal nature of the writing and its mixing of genres The book draws on both the Greek and Buddhist traditions recognising that it is time for Western thinkers to acknowledge and respond to an intercultural canon It aims to integrate ethics and a non theistic philosophy of religion through the medium of aesthetics mapping Buddhist mindfulness and the Greek virtues and vices of temperance and licentiousness continence and incontinence onto an account of the development of moral sentiments and their relation to practical judgement in the context of oppressive political and social realities
