Stoddard, 1991-01-01 Bonded Leather binding Books for All Providence Public Library (R.I.), 1928 American Autobiography, 1945-1980 Mary Louise Briscoe, 1982 This bibliography provides access to over 5 000 American autobiographies published in book form by private and commercial presses from 1945 through 1980 intro American Book Publishing Record, 1971 The Autobiographical Notes of Charles Evans Hughes Charles Evans Hughes, 1973 Charles Evans Hughes 1862 1948 was lawyer governor of New York Supreme Court Justice presidential candidate in 1916 Secretary of State in the Harding and Coolidge administrations a member of the World Court and Chief Justice of the United States from 1930 until his retirement in 1941 To some Hughes appeared larger than life Robert H Jackson once said of him He looks like God and talks like God But to those who knew him well he was quite human extraordinarily gifted but human nonetheless His Autobiographical Notes portray him as no biography could and provide comment on almost a century of American history as seen by one who played a part in shaping its course Hughes s notes reveal two sides of his personality a serious side when he was at work and a genial sometimes humorous side when he was relaxing or with friends and family When he writes of unofficial life especially his boyhood college years and early years at the bar he is raconteur telling his story with a certain amount of humor when he writes of his official life he tends to be matter of fact The early chapters describe the formative influence which shaped his character his loving but intellectually demanding parents and deeply religious training his unusual early education which took place mostly at home and gave full scope to his precocity Hughes s accounts of college life in the 1870s at Madison now Colgate and Brown University and of his career as a young lawyer in the New York City of the 1880s and 1890s are valuable portraits of an era Brought up to a high sense of duty Hughes from the start of his career felt bound to take worthy legal cases and it was his reputation for integrity and thoroughness that led to his selection as counsel in the gas and insurance investigations of 1905 1906 This was the turn of events that precipitated him into the public eye and subsequently into politics The culmination of his career came in 1937 when he led the Supreme Court through a constitutional crisis and confronted Franklin Roosevelt in the Court packing battle In the intervening thirty years Hughes was a major figure in American political and legal circles His Notes record his impressions of presidents statesmen and justices His reflections on the diplomacy of the 1920s and on the causes leading up to the Second World War are of immense historical importance The editors have supplied an introduction to the Notes commenting on Hughes s personality and public image his political style and rise to fame They have remained unobtrusive throughout intervening only to clarify references and provide necessary details For the rest they let Hughes speak for himself in the crisp and clear style that reveals his unusual intelligence and the retentive and analytical mind that distinguished his conduct of affairs Justice Felix Frankfurter wrote of Hughes I have known or know about most of the leading men of my time both here and in England enough to justify me in forming a judgment There isn t the slightest doubt that C E H is among the few really sizable figures of my lifetime He is three dimensional and has impact Here in these Notes is this great man drawn in life size proportions      Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents ,2000      Congressional Record United States.
