As I Remember The Inlaws Those Wonderful Schaff Relatives:

As I Remember... The Inlaws Georgina Schaff,2006-02-07 As I Remember... My Husband Georgina Schaff,2006-12-04

I am so thankful that Ken was sent to me and that God gave me the strength and wisdom to take a stand and demand changes when I did Ken could have so easily become an alcoholic a woman abuser a child abuser a statistic who drank himself to death a drunken driver who killed an innocent person or he could have killed himself in a car accident I am so thankful that under the disguise of this wild town drunk there was a very intelligent faithful hard working loving man who became the man of my life With love guidance trust truth and support he became the wonderful husband father and grandfather that he is today I am so thankful that Ken chose me that I chose him and we changed our behaviors to create a successful marriage for us I am not bragging about our success I am stating the facts and giving thanks for our great life together Change is a CHOICE I firmly believe that to succeed in marriage it takes two people fully committed to be willing to make change and work toward that success Marriage is not easy It is a give and take situation Some days you must give and other days you must take Whether it be love truth trust respect advice communication direction support comfort compassion understanding or any of the many other feelings and emotions that control the outcome of any situation By standing firm in your beliefs and working together for a positive outcome which is agreeable and workable for the two people involved the stronger your marriage will be I understand the meaning of the phrase This is a marriage made in Heaven Without God's guidance our marriage would not have survived After writing my life story I now disagree that it takes only two to make a successful marriage I firmly believe it takes three You Me and Thee We are survivors we did what we could with what we had and will be forever grateful for our life experiences and many rich memories I believe our marriage has been successful due to our sense of humor and our ability to listen reason negotiate and find solutions to our problems challenges and concerns We laugh with and at each other There is humor in almost every aspect of life sometimes you just have to search a little longer to find it but it is usually there Most of my memories of Ken and I are humorous because we have tried to find joy and laughter in everything we encountered and turn every negative into a positive Ken is a wonderful husband We are still very active still enjoy dancing with each other and enjoy giving each other a bad time Ken and I were able to accept or change our differences and our marriage today is very relaxed happy and blessed Every morning is a new day to give thanks for our time together The last thing I see before I close my eyes at night is Ken The first thing I see when I wake in the morning is my wonderful husband Ken A hug and a goodnight kiss before I go to sleep and a hug and a kiss when I wake is my assurance If I die before I wake I know I was loved here on earth and I will be prepared to meet the last MAN in my life who will watch over me throughout eternity Here is the way I look at life I have always lived within my means so when the money is gone I will still live within my means and I still have Ken and all my memories in this old house in Lemmon South Dakota I am so filthy rich in memories and so grateful for my wonderful life with my wonderful husband He chose me and I chose him It was a good choice for both of us The future is bright If Ken goes before me I still have another MAN in my life who promises me a mansion in the sky I am not worried about tomorrow because my life is in HIS hands
