As Long as Nothing Happens, Nothing Will Jie Zhang, 1988 Party tyranny and nepotism sexual hypocrisy and other evils bring unhappiness to the lives of ordinary people in a collection of stories by one of China's most popular authors

Stalin and Mao Lucien Bianco, 2018-03-15 China's ascent to the ranks of the world's second largest economic power has given its revolution a better image than that of its Russian counterpart Yet the two have a great deal in common Indeed the Chinese revolution was a carbon copy of its predecessor until Mao became aware not so much of the failures of the Russian model but of its inability to adapt to an overcrowded third world country Yet instead of correcting that model Mao decided to go further and faster in the same direction The aftershock of an earthquake may be weaker but the Great Leap Forward of 1958 in China was far more destructive than the Great Turn of 1929 in the Soviet Union It was conceived with an idealistic end but failed to take all the possibilities into account China's development only took off after and thanks to Mao's death once the country turned its back on the revolution Lucien Bianco's original comparative study highlights the similarities the all powerful bureaucracy the over exploitation of the peasantry which triggered two of the worst famines of the 20th century control over writers and artists repression and labor camps The comparison of Stalin and Mao that completes the picture leads the author straight back to Lenin and he quotes the observation by a Chinese historian that If at all possible it is best to avoid revolutions altogether

Billionaire's Ex-Wife Returns With A Baby Krystal Write, 2024-08-23 We are divorced Adams She sighed and wanted to walk away but he held her It doesn't matter He answered his voice laced with determination I don't love you anymore That doesn't matter either What matters is that I want you and there's nothing you or anyone can do about it Alicia's journey was a tumultuous blend of highs and lows marred by the torment she endured at the hands of her husband and his family all for the sin of childlessness When she finally faced the harsh reality of a divorce letter her pleas fell on deaf ears Resigned she signed the papers and left Unknown to all she harbored a secret a life blossoming within her Six years later Alicia returns her daughter in tow only to be confronted by a past she thought she had left behind her ex husband now yearning for her anew In this twisted game of fate what surprises lie in wait for Alicia Book 3 of the series Learned in the Trenches Maria Angela Capello, Hosnia S. Hashim, 2017-10-13 This book shares the learnings and perspectives of two pioneer women who waded the many challenges posed by multiculturalism and gender in one of the corporate environments more rigid and traditional in the business world the energy sector in the Middle East How they managed to create a growth space for themselves and their teams is a story of professional and personal tenacity shaping a privileged perspective that enabled them to understand the root causes of barriers as well as envision plausible solutions They propose in the book not only their vision but a remarkable collection of unfiltered interviews to influential leaders in the energy sector to complete a vision of what is key to achieve success when leading or consulting in a corporate environment The book offers a compilation of very personal approaches to professionalism resilience work and ultimately success from within and outside the ranks of highly regarded corporations in the energy sector The ultimate aim is that of triggering a self reflection in the readers grounded on the learnings and perspectives of those who made it to the highest roles of one of the less understood business environments
