Asante Stools:

The Asante Stool Sharon F. Patton,1980 The Asante Stool Sharon F. Patton,1980 State and Society in Pre-colonial Asante T. C. McCaskie,2003-10-30 Scholarship on the West African kingdom of Asante is at the leading edge of Africanist research In this book T C McCaskie gives a detailed and richly nuanced historical portrait of precolonial Asante His delineation of state and society in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries is centred on an extended analysis of the crucial ritual of the annual Kumase odwira festival It is at once a profound historical reconstruction of an African polity and a deeply informed meditation on key Asante concepts and ideas Throughout the book the Asante experience is consistently discussed in a relation to a broad range of historiography and critical theory The Asante Malcolm D. McLeod,1981 The Asante World Edmund Abaka,Kwame Osei Kwarteng,2021-05-30 The Asante World provides fresh perspectives on the Asante the largest Akan group in Southern Ghana and what new scholars are thinking and writing about the world the Asante made By employing a thematic approach the volume interrogates several dimensions of Asante history including state formation Asante Ahafo and Bassari Dagomba relations in the context of Asante northward expansion and the expansion to the south It examines the role of Islam which although extremely intense for just a short time had important ramifications Together the essays excavate key aspects of Asante political economy and culture exemplified in kola nut production the kente adinkra cloth types and their associated symbols proverbs and drum language The Asante World explores the Asante origins of Jamaican maroons Asante secular government contemporary politics of progress governance through the institution of Ahemaa or Queenmothers epidemiology and disease and education in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Featuring innovative and insightful contributions from leading historians of the Asante world this volume is essential reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and scholars concerned with African Studies African diaspora history the history of Ghana and the Gold Coast the history of Islam in Africa and Asante history The History of Ashanti Kings and the Whole Country Itself and Other Writings Prempeh I (King of Ashanti),A. Adu Boahen,2003 This text useful for understanding the history of the great West African kingdom of Asante now in Ghana is also an early and perhaps the earliest example of history writing in English by an African ruler Asante in the Nineteenth Century Ivor Wilks,1989-09-29 Originally published in 1975 and reprinted with additional introductory material in 1989 this book provides an in depth account of Asante history during the nineteenth century The focus of the book is on the broad political development of Asante society concentrating on the material factors which affected the decision making process during various administrations This focus reflects the complex and sophisticated nature of the Asante social system a system which had its basis in administrative unity and a core idea of nationhood The text utilizes the abundant archival printed and oral source materials available regarding the Asante offering the reader a profound insight into the nature and structure of a remarkable society This is a fascinating book that will be of value to anyone with an interest in African history Religion and Chieftaincy in Ghana Louise Muller,2013 Based on extensive research and applying formidable expertise in African history philosophy historical anthropology and religious studies this is a superb analysis of the history and transformation of the roles of chieftaincy in the religious institutions rituals and ideas among the Asante Development in Unity Volume One Daasebre Prof. Oti Boateng,2015-02-06 Development in Unity A Compendium of Works of Daasebre Prof Emeritus Oti Boateng Volume1 is a compilation of research works published articles speeches seminar presentations addresses and radio broadcasts written by the author over the past 40 years In these articles the author a distinguished statistician a university don a UN commissioner a Vice Chancellor of the World Academy of Letters and a traditional ruler combines his rich scholarly background and his deep understanding of complex traditional national and international issues in addressing some challenges that face humankind The book is divided into nine sub themes namely 1 Education 2 Governance 3 Statistics 4 Population and Health 5 Natural Disasters 6 Oil and Gas 7 Chieftaincy and Culture 8 Religion and 9 Economy The theme of this book Development in Unity is derived from the mission of the Akwantukese Festival which is Development in Unity for the Welfare of the People The Akwantukese Festival was instituted in 1997 by the Omanhene Chiefs and People of New Juaben to commemorate the fifth anniversary of Daasebre Professor Emeritus Oti Boatengs enstoolment as Omanhene of New Juaben in the Eastern Region of Ghana The Festival commemorates the migration of the Juabens and their allies from Asante to the Eastern Region of Ghana in the 1870s The basic goal of Akwantukese is to promote the socio economic progress of the people through education traditions and customs It further serves as a tourist attraction for people all over the world Akwantukese also reinforces the ancestral unity between the citizens of Asante and Jew Juaben for peaceful co existence The articles in this first volume have been carefully selected to emphasize these ideals thereby creating a gift for posterity As you enjoy these collections look out for the next volume in the series which is scheduled to come out very soon Ghana in Pictures Yvette La Pierre,2004-01-01 Introduces through text and photographs the land history government people and economy of Ghana The Creation of Inequality Kent Flannery,Joyce Marcus,2012-05-15 Flannery and Marcus demonstrate that the rise of inequality was not simply the result of population increase food surplus or the accumulation of valuables but resulted from conscious manipulation of the unique social logic that lies at the core of every human group Reversing the social logic can reverse inequality they argue without violence Approaching African History Michael Brett,2013 Africa is a huge continent as large as the more habitable areas of Europe and Asia put together This book takes as its subject the last 10 000 years of African history and traces the way in which human society on the continent has evolved from communities of hunters and gatherers to the complex populations of today History of Ashanti by Otumfuo, Nana Osei Agyeman Prempeh II Tom C McCaskie,2022-10-31 A history of Asante from the late 17th century to the 1930s authorized and produced by the 12th Asantehene Osei Agyeman Prempeh II Perhaps the single longest historical work produced by a ruler of any sub Saharan African society this is an indigenous account of the three hundred year history of a still vigorous African polity The Early State in African

Perspective ,2023-07-24 The essays in this volume are the product of an interdisciplinary research seminar on The Early State in Africa conducted during the 1979 1980 academic year at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem This seminar was one of a series of seminars on comparative civilizations The participants included historians sociologists political scientists and specialists in comparative religion who shared an interest in the emergence and dynamics of the state in Africa and were concerned with trying to understand its origins and its various manifestations on the continent

Divine Rulers in a Secular State Timo Kallinen,2016-03-25 The divine kingship and chiefship of the Asante people of central Ghana have been undergoing a shift towards secularization since the start of the colonial era Timo Kallinen maintains that a close examination of this transformation provides us with a better understanding of secularization processes in Ghana more broadly and in other post colonial societies whose historical development likewise differs from that of the modern West and which have largely confronted secular modernity through encounters with European colonialism Throughout the volume secularization is understood as a process in modern society whereby divinity is separated from the ways in which both human society is regulated and physical nature is understood to function Divine Rulers in a Secular State has been divided into three thematic parts each with a short theoretical introduction In the first two analysis is primarily inspired by the work of Louis Dumont while in the third the theoretical ideas of Webb Keane and Bruno Latour are of central importance The undifferentiated order of the pre colonial Asante kingdom in which the chiefly and priestly functions of the rulers were not separated comprises the initial focus Sacrifices and marriage exchanges both of which were directed at establishing and perpetuating relations between the living and the spirits of the dead ancestors are posited as the most important responsibilities of the chief Also explored are perceptions that the founding of the kingdom and its authority structure are the results of sacrifices offered to various gods by the Asante king and his chiefs The second part examines the dissolution of the traditional order since the onset of British colonial occupation The secularization process was initiated by the aspirations of colonial administrators and missionary bodies who aimed to maintain Christian converts under the political authority of their non Christian chiefs who were still important ritual leaders Consequently it was necessary to start dividing society along political and religious lines so that only the former was a mandatory concern for all The kernel of modern citizenship was planted at the same time as the religious conscience of individuals started to shape their rights and duties towards their political rulers Furthermore theories about Asante as a state based on contract and representation were proposed and developed In the post colonial era chiefship has been put into the service of the independent nation state both as an instrument of administration and a nationalistic symbol while most recently chiefs have been depicted as leaders in civil society even receiving support from global developmental organizations Yet traditional chieftaincy is strongly criticized by certain Christian groups belonging to the Pentecostal Charismatic movement which still see it as integrally linked to traditional cosmologies The third part of the book takes the discussion beyond the separation of the categories of religion and politics Secularization has also has also entailed the dematerialization of religion establishing it as something that ought to be understood primarily as mental or spiritual in a secular society things like deities witchcraft or sacrifices should not be recognized as proper agents and actions at the level of immanent relations In Ghana such views are effectively contradicted by religious groups which see spiritual forces as the most powerful agents in social relations The cases discussed deal with attempted state control of anti witchcraft activities the efficiency of protective magic during political upheavals and Pentecostal notions of demonic influences in secular politics The Conclusions section brings the themes of the book together by discussing the large scale effects of the secular project in contemporary Ghanaian society Research is based on anthropological fieldwork conducted in Ghana in 2000 2001 and 2005 2006 data drawn from several archival sources located in Ghana and the United Kingdom and the anthropological and historical literature on Ghana and the Asante Bride's Book of Etiquette (Revised) Bride's Magazine
