Asclepius Emma Jeanette Levy Edelstein, Ludwig Edelstein, 1945 Asclepius, 1975 Asclepius : a collection and interpretation of the testimonies Asclepius, 1970 Studia Patristica F. Young, P. Parvis, 2006 Papers presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 2003 see also Studia Patristica 40 41 42 and 43 The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers These range over the whole field both East and West from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents dates of events and such like and some unveil new texts The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject

Oxford Textbook of Spirituality in Healthcare Mark Cobb, Christina M Puchalski, Bruce Rumbold, 2012-08-09 Spirituality and healthcare is an emerging field of research practice and policy Healthcare organisations and practitioners are therefore challenged to understand and address spirituality to develop their knowledge and implement effective policy This is the first reference text on the subject providing a comprehensive overview of key topics Solidarity Perfected Kevin McCrudden, 2008-12-10 This monograph examines the concept of Jesus perfection in the Epistle to the Hebrews in relation to the broader theological themes of divine beneficence and divine philanthropia Three times in Hebrews Jesus is described as being perfected Hebrews 2 10 5 9 7 28 and in two of these instances Hebrews 2 10 5 8 9 the author explicitly links the theme of Jesus suffering to the content of his perfection By examining representative selections of Greek non literary papyri this study argues that the customary application of the Greek verb to denote the idea of legal notarization of a public document suggests the more comprehensive idea of official definitive attestation Informed by such a notion of perfection as official definitive attestation this study argues that the language of Christ's perfection in Hebrews functions as a christological grammar for reflecting upon the character of Christ Far from being remotely transcendent Jesus is characterized instead by divine beneficence and philanthropia by a motivation to draw near to the community of the faithful gathered around his memory This study argues for the cogency of this proposal based on exegetical grounds the literary character of Hebrews as an epistolary homily and the social setting of Hebrews as one characterized by social distress and or persecution in or near the vicinity of Rome

From Homer to Hatzi-Yavrouda Marianthi Kaplanoglou, George Katsadoros, Birgit Olsen, Christos Zafiropoulos, 2024-12-17 From Homer to Hatzi Yavrouda Aspects of Oral Narration in the Greek Tradition provides a multidisciplinary discussion of the concept of orality in the framework of Greek narrative tradition from Antiquity to the 21st century Orality is a prominent concept in contemporary folkloristics philology and other related fields and a basic concept for the study of culture in a historical and critical perspective Its definition has long been debated as has its communicative value and use This volume presents different perspectives and academic fields classics byzantine studies folklore studies comparative literature and discusses topics such as interrelationship with written literature cross cultural and trans historical influences different genres as well as specific narrators and their role in their communities Orality is viewed as a tool for research a body of texts an entity of vernacular practices or as a series of communication strategies The Greek tradition is taken as a point of departure for a diachronic analysis of orality from Homer to the female storyteller Hatzi Yavrouda from Kos It is the hope that the analysis of the Greek case will contribute to discussions about the concept on a larger scale This volume also shows that orality both in its old and new forms is continuously present in modern and post modern discourse and still dominates everyday communication despite our growing dependence on digital and iconic universes

Light and Darkness in Ancient Greek Myth and Religion Menelaos

Christopoulos, Marion Meyer, Olga Levaniouk, 2010-09-25 Light and darkness played an important role beyond the division of time in ancient Greek myth and religion the contributors to Light and Darkness in Ancient Greek Myth and Religion consider its function on both the individual and social level as manifested in modes of thought and behavior and expressed in language beliefs ritual and iconography The book is divided into five parts color semantics appearance and concealment eye sight insight being and beyond and cult Each subdivision contains a wealth of information for the reader ranging from detailed explanations of the interplay between lexical categories that denote darkness and light and the effect of blindness on metaphysical matters to the qualities of cultic light This unique volume will be of interest to readers in fields as diverse as ancient Greek history metaphysics and iconography

Homer in Performance Jonathan Ready, Christos

Tsagalis, 2018-08-13 Before they were written down the poems attributed to Homer were performed orally usually by rhapsodes singers reciters who might have traveled from city to city or enjoyed a position in a wealthy household Even after the Iliad and the Odyssey were committed to writing rhapsodes performed the poems at festivals often competing against each other As they recited the epics the rhapsodes spoke as both the narrator and the characters These different acts performing the poem and narrating and speaking in character within it are seldom studied in tandem Homer in Performance breaks new ground by bringing together all of the speakers involved in the performance of Homeric poetry rhapsodes narrators and characters The first part of the book presents a detailed history of the rhapsodic performance of Homeric epic from the Archaic to the Roman Imperial periods and explores how performers might have shaped the poems The second part investigates the Homeric narrators and characters as speakers and illuminates their interactions The contributors include scholars versed in epigraphy the history of art linguistics and performance studies as well as those capable of working with sources from the ancient Near East and from modern Russia This interdisciplinary approach makes the volume useful to a spectrum of readers from undergraduates to veteran professors in disciplines ranging from classical studies to folklore

The Scientist in the Early Roman Empire Richard Carrier, 2017-12-01 In this extensive sequel to Science Education in the Early Roman Empire Dr Richard Carrier explores the social history of scientists in the Roman era Was science in decline or experiencing a revival under the Romans What was an ancient scientist thought to be and do Who were they and who funded their research And how did pagans differ from their Christian peers in their views toward science and scientists Some have claimed Christianity valued them more than their pagan forebears In fact the reverse is the case And this difference in values had a catastrophic effect on the future of humanity The Romans may have been just a century or two away from experiencing a scientific revolution But once in power Christianity kept that progress on hold for a thousand years while forgetting most of what the pagans had achieved and discovered from an empirical anatomy physiology and brain science to an experimental physics of water gravity and air Thoroughly referenced and painstakingly researched this volume is a must for anyone who wants to learn how far we once got and why we took so long to get to where we are today
