The Communicative Event in the Works of Günter Grass

Nicole A. Thesz, 2018 A major contribution to Grass scholarship that looks at his career as a whole and identifies four phases or stages of his writing in terms of communicative strategy and style Crossing Hitler Benjamin Carter Hett, 2008-09-18 During a 1931 trial of four Nazi stormtroopers known as the Eden Dance Palace trial Hans Litten grilled Hitler in a brilliant and merciless three hour cross examination forcing him into multiple contradictions and evasions and finally reducing him to helpless and humiliating rage the transcription of Hitler's full testimony is included At the time Hitler was still trying to prove his embrace of legal methods and distancing himself from his stormtroopers The courageous Litten revealed his true intentions and in the process posed a real threat to Nazi ambition When the Nazis seized power two years after the trial friends and family urged Litten to flee the country He stayed and was sent to the concentration camps where he worked on translations of medieval German poetry shared the money and food he was sent by his wealthy family and taught working class inmates about art and literature When Jewish prisoners at Dachau were locked in their barracks for weeks at a time Litten kept them sane by reciting great works from memory After five years of torture and hard labor and a daring escape that failed Litten gave up hope of survival His story was ultimately tragic but as Benjamin Hett writes in this gripping narrative it is also redemptive It is a story of human nobility in the face of barbarism The first full length biography of Litten the book also explores the turbulent years of the Weimar Republic and the terror of Nazi rule in Germany after 1933 in sidebar Winner of the 2007 Fraenkel Prize for outstanding work of contemporary history in manuscript To be published throughout the world Bericht an meine Familie Erwin Lichtenstein, 1985 Danzig 1930-1945 Dieter Schenk, 2013
