A. den Brinker, Brian Paul Muhs, S. P. Vleeming, 2005 There seems to be no brief English equivalent for the concept of a Berichtigungsliste This demotic Berichtigungsliste collects and critically presents corrections and supplements to editions of demotic documentary texts papyri ostraka inscriptions mummy labels graffiti everything demotic that was not clearly written as a secular or religious literary composition We have added all the information we have found concerning inventory numbers and photographs as well as republications of the texts in question which the scholar working with these texts might like to have Although the Berichtigungsliste chiefly concerns text editions be they published in monographs or articles texts that have been published only in photography or facsimile are also included The period covered for the publications that have been ransacked for the purpose of our Berichtigungsliste is roughly the Twentieth Century 1900 2000 In subsequent volumes we intend to extend this time range into the Nineteenth Century as well as into the future Economy and Society in the Age of Justinian Peter Sarris, 2006-09-28 The reign of the Byzantine Emperor Justinian 527 65 stands out in late Roman and medieval history Justinian reconquered far flung territories from the barbarians overhauled the Empire's administrative framework and codified for posterity the inherited tradition of Roman law This work represents a modern study in English of the social and economic history of the Eastern Roman Empire in the reign of the Emperor Justinian Drawing upon papyrological numismatic legal literary and archaeological evidence the study seeks to reconstruct the emergent nature of relations between landowners and peasants and aristocrats and emperors in the late antique Eastern Empire It provides a social and economic context in which to situate the Emperor Justinian's mid sixth century reform programme and questions the implications of the Eastern Empire's pattern of social and economic development under Justinian for its subsequent post Justinianic history

Egypt in Late Antiquity Roger S. Bagnall, 2021-05-11 This book brings together a vast amount of information pertaining to the society economy and culture of a province important to understanding the entire eastern part of the later Roman Empire Focusing on Egypt from the accession of Diocletian in 284 to the middle of the fifth century Roger Bagnall draws his evidence mainly from documentary and archaeological sources including the papyri that have been published over the last thirty years

Settling a Dispute Traianos Gagos, 1994 Family squabbles and fights over real estate were no less complex in sixth century Egypt than they are in the modern world In this unusual volume Peter van Minnen and Traianos Gagos investigate just such a struggle as described in a two part papyrus some five feet long Composed by the ancient equivalent of a notary public the papyrus describes the outcome after mediation of a family dispute about valuable real estate Traianos Gagos and Peter van Minnen offer an English translation and a clear Greek text of the two papyrus fragments as well as an important discussion of the nature of such mediation its role in contemporary society a consideration of the town of Aphroditon and its social and political elite as well as many other topics that spring from this kind of document The use of methodologies from modern jurisprudence and anthropology together with an accessible style of writing mean that Settling a Dispute will be of interest to persons in many fields including history Classics and Near Eastern studies All Greek is translated and an extensive commentary offers much helpful information on the text Traianos Gagos is Associate Archivist of the University of Michigan's papyri collection Peter van Minnen is Senior Research Associate in the papyri collection at Duke University
