

A photograph of a building at night. The building has a dark, textured facade and a series of windows that are illuminated from within. A large, light-colored rectangular sign is mounted on the left side of the building, featuring the word 'Berkley' in a bold, black, serif font. The sign is partially obscured by a dark, rectangular object in the foreground. The overall scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the interior lights of the building and the sign itself.
