Bernar Venet:

Bernar Venet Barry Schwabsky, Florence Derieux, Clare Lilley, 2020-06-17 The first true monograph on the work of celebrated French conceptual artist and sculptor Bernar Venet. Bernar Venet is one of France's most celebrated living artists. Having emerged from the late 1960s avant-garde scene in New York, Venet developed a personal aesthetic based on an innovative use of mathematics and science where control, chance and chaos converge to form a fine equilibrium while investigating their relationship with the environment. Conversant in many media, Venet is mostly known for his monumental outdoor sculptures in major cities worldwide and in fall 19 his Arc Majeur is due for completion at a site in Belgium at almost 200 feet in height. 60 metres. Venet's sculpture will be taller than New York's Statue of Liberty. Bernar Venet Donald Burton Kuspit, 2002 A collection of three essays and one interview on the works of mathematical muralist Bernar Venet.

Bernar Venet Thierry Lenain, Thomas McEvilly, Bernar Venet, 2007-09-18 Bernar Venet b 1941 France is a master of contemporary conceptual art who has worked in all media from painting and sculpture to film, music and ballet. In his early work, Venet sought to distill art to strip it of aesthetic or expressive content and to reestablish it as purely conceptual. He withdrew from the art world in 1971, fulfilling a promise he had made four years prior to stop producing new work once he perceived that his term was up. After a six-year hiatus, the artist reemerged and over the next thirty years produced a vast body of work in diverse media. This monograph, complete with over 300 illustrations, addresses the struggle of aesthetic and intellectual forces at play in contemporary art through the work of one of its foremost practitioners. Today, Venet's sculptures—massive iron structures in three categories: lines and angles, arcs and indeterminate lines—are exhibited in museums and public spaces across the world. These forms, whether striking out independently into the air, leaning against a chateau, curving upward from the earth, or twisting arbitrarily around themselves or each other, stand at the threshold between the physical and the abstract, between the material and the purely geometric, testing the liminal spaces between art world and mind.

Bernar Venet Bernar Venet, 1976 Bernar Venet, 2009 Devenu propriété de Bernar Venet depuis 1989, le domaine du Muy, situé dans l'arrière-pays varois, est plus qu'un lieu de villégiature. C'est l'exemple unique d'un site entier investi par un artiste, où ses propres créations pondent une collection exceptionnelle d'art contemporain et où les espaces privés s'ouvrent à la vue de tous. Le reporter Robert Arnoux et le critique d'art Damien Sausset retracent l'histoire de ce lieu qui fut tour à tour un moulin, puis une usine, de sa naissance au XVIII^e siècle jusqu'à ce qu'il devienne la résidence de Bernar Venet, qui en a fait un espace d'art. Bernar Venet Bernar Venet, 1995 Bernar Venet Bernar Venet, Barbara Rose, 2010 Bernar Venet Carter Ratcliff, 1994 One of France's most uniquely compelling artists, Bernar Venet has devoted the last two decades to an investigation of meaning and form in sculpture. Venet was trained as a painter but quickly became involved with conceptual art, experimenting with mathematical and aesthetic principles in a variety of media, particularly sculpture. In this illustrated book, critic Carter Ratcliff provides an illuminating look at the complex relationship between form, language, and meaning in Venet's recent work Bernar Venet performances, etc. 1961-2006. Ediz. inglese e francese Bernar Venet, 2006

 If it is not surprising how many mediums Bernar Venet has worked in from sculpture to painting to photography to sound to furniture it is surprising how many he has used in performance From the first moments of Performance dans les d tritus in 1961 through sound compositions corresponding to and implicating his visual work to a ballet for which he wrote the music created the choreography and designed both the set and costumes Venet has been omnivorous recording mathematical poems on vinyl the engines of the Concorde on CD and finally the sounds of the creation of his own sculpture In 2004 Venet had three simultaneous solo shows in New York City two at the Robert Miller and Jim Kempner galleries and a third along the Park Avenue Mall where his large scale Indeterminate Line pieces were installed In 2005 he was named Chevalier de la Legion d Honneur France's highest decoration Bernar Venet Carter Ratcliff, 1993 *Bernar Venet.
