of your research needs Bernard Malamud and the Trial by Love Sandy Cohen, 1974 The Modern American Urban Novel Arnold L. Goldsmith, 1991 Goldsmith challenges the view that nature is absent in the modern urban novel and interprets the phrase the interweaving of physical description and symbolism metaphor and characterization and theme and imagery that give internal form to external narrative He provides a textual analysis of seven 20th century American novels Manhattan transfer Studs Lonigan Call it sleep The Dollmaker The Assistant The Pawnbroker and Mr Sammler's planet Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Ethnic Identities in Bernard Malamud's Fiction Martín Urdiales Shaw, 2000 The present study has been divided into five general chapters each of which is centred around a basic issue related to ethnic identities This central issue may be more or less specific largely depending on its nature and on the corpus it comprises for example chapter two which bears the general title the old country and the New World is naturally the most extensive because of the great scope of this theme and the number of works it involves two novels and a considerable number of stories including the very long Man in the Drawer By contrast the last chapter entitled Beyond Race into Myth Seeking the Liberation of the Self is logically the shortest because its focus is restricted to a particular function of ethnic identities metaphorically speaking in Malamud's fantastic works the novel God's Grace and one short story Similar proportions between length complexity of theme and corpus treated are maintained in the three central chapters which focus on ethnic aspects which are neither as general as chapter two nor as specific as chapter six Bernard Malamud Revisited Edward A. Abramson, 1993 Despite the fact that Bernard Malamud 1914-1986 wrote about selflessness and love as they applied to all human beings he has long been referred to first and foremost as a Jewish American writer a term he disliked Malamud's most significant works including The Assistant 1957 The Magic Barrel 1958 The Fixer 1966 and The Tenants 1971 dealt with aspects of Jewish experience in both the Old World and the New He felt however that his characters should be understood not for their Jewishness but rather as symbolic of the human condition as sufferers Furthermore such well known novels as The Natural 1952 and A New Life 1961 are about men who either are not Jewish or do not practice their Judaism Bernard Malamud Revisited is the first comprehensive study of the author and all of his works including the posthumous 1989 publication of The People and Uncollected Stories Edward A. Abramson follows the development of Malamud's themes and techniques through a chronological study of his eight novels and a thematic discussion of his short stories Abramson's analysis of the writer's impact proves that Malamud deserves a place in the American tradition alongside

Hawthorne Melville Faulkner and Hemingway writers whose fiction is moralistic and frequently uses a particular type of allegory Malamud is not simply a chronicler of Jewish life but a universal artist whose characters grow to a moral maturity that many other American fictional protagonists never reach
