People of Today, 2006 Callaghan's Journey to Downing Street P. Deveney, 2015-12-11 An account of how one Labour Party politician after suffering the biggest setback of his political career used the anti Vietnam War demonstrations in Grosvenor Square the battle over trade union reform and the Troubles in Northern Ireland to propel himself to No 10 A Yorkshire Lass at the Court of Thatcher Elizabeth Peacock, 2013-11-14 Elizabeth Peacock served as MP for Batley and Spen for 14 years and was one of the most outspoken politicians during her time at Westminster Famed for her no nonsense just common sense approach Elizabeth won many admirers along with a reputation for being difficult Not afraid to vote against her own party the Conservatives Elizabeth genuinely said and did what she thought was right for all Britain but especially her local constituents At the time she became an MP she was one of very few women to do so but quickly made her mark in a very male dominated environment She was the first woman MP to take part in the Lords v Commons charity motor race at Brands Hatch in which she more than held her own Elizabeth was heavily involved in the Miners Strike of the 80's and was one of the few to vote against her own government as well as meeting regularly with Arthur Scargill an unthinkable thing to do for a Conservative MP She would go on to vote against the Major government too never to be difficult but just because she thought their actions weren't in the best interest of the nation Her outspoken views on the IRA would lead to an unsuccessful but extremely frightening attack on her car whilst parked outside her home In this candid honest and often very funny autobiography Elizabeth reveals what it was like to work at Westminster during those turbulent years She offers frank assessments of the men and women she worked with including Margaret Thatcher John Major and many others A completely absorbing and insightful read Burke's Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Landed Gentry Bernard Burke,1939 A

Crisis in Britain Today C. Bloom,2000-11-30 In 1997 thirty years after the demise of Swinging London Britain again seemed to be the centre of the cultural universe with a thriving arts scene a new Labour government and a young and enterprising prime minister Cool Britannia seemed to sum up the new spirit of the 1990s in the hip language of the 1960s In this book Bloom offers a radical and controversial guide to the possibilities for intellectual life popular culture literary production and political authority in multi cultural Britain in 2000 and beyond The Edinburgh Magazine and Literary Miscellany ,1825 Scots Magazine, and Edinburgh Literary Miscellany ,1825 The Slow Downfall of Margaret Thatcher Bernard Ingham,2019-06-11 Branded the rough spoken Yorkshire Rasputin Bernard Ingham served as Margaret Thatcher's press secretary for virtually all of her eleven year premiership adroitly steering the government's relationship with the media and the Prime Minister's relationship with the nation Known for his unswerving loyalty he robustly defended Thatcher from her critics in both the press and the political jungle earning him friends and foes in equal measure as she went on to win three consecutive elections Thatcher's last days in power however saw some of the most remarkable events in British political history and Ingham was for once helpless to turn the tide These eagerly anticipated diaries cover two turbulent years from January 1989 to December 1990 a period Ingham terms the long slow assassination detailing the succession of crises that led to the Prime Minister's resignation in November 1990 and the critical roles played by the big political beasts of the time With his trademark gruff candour and wry wit Ingham s spirited diaries shed new light on Thatcher s final months in No 10 charting the dramatic downfall of one of the most influential figures of the twentieth century
