Bell,2008 In The Relevance of Bernard Lonergan s Notion of Self Appropriation to a Mystical Political Theology Ian Bell takes on the issue of the separation of the interior and exterior lives that has come to dominate mystical theology over the years The mystical life he claims is necessarily involved in the establishment of social structures and institutions that govern human living and the work of Bernard Lonergan on the human subject provides a means by which the connection between the interior and exterior lives may be established Because human persons operate in a consistent pattern regardless of a given moment s particularities mystical experience is no longer relegated to so called spiritual matters and the insights of mystics may be applied to the Christian call to live as agents of love With this connection in place mystical theology and political theology come together in a theology that is both mystical and political

Divine Scripture in Human Understanding Joseph K. Gordon, 2019-03-15 In six closely reasoned chapters Joseph Gordon presents a detailed account of a Christian doctrine of Scripture in the fullest context of systematic theology Divine Scripture in Human Understanding addresses the confusing plurality of contemporary approaches to Christian Scripture both within and outside the academy by articulating a traditionally grounded constructive systematic theology of Christian Scripture Utilizing primarily the methodological resources of Bernard Lonergan and traditional Christian doctrines of Scripture recovered by Henri de Lubac it draws upon achievements in historical critical study of Scripture studies of the material history of Christian Scripture reflection on philosophical hermeneutics and philosophical and theological anthropology and other resources to articulate a unified but open horizon for understanding Christian Scripture today Following an overview of the contemporary situation of Christian Scripture Joseph Gordon identifies intellectual precedents for the work in the writings of Irenaeus Origen and Augustine who all locate Scripture in the economic work of the God to whom it bears witness by interpreting it through the Rule of Faith Subsequent chapters draw on Scripture itself classical sources such as Irenaeus Origen Augustine and Aquinas the fruit of recent studies on the history of Scripture and the work of recent scholars and theologians to provide a contemporary Christian articulation of the divine and human locations of Christian Scripture and the material history and intelligibility and purpose of Scripture in those locations The resulting constructive position can serve as a heuristic for affirming the achievements of traditional historical critical and contextual readings of Scripture and provides a basis for addressing issues relatively underemphasized by those respective approaches
