Modern Advertising Christopher Wixson, 2018-06-13 This book charts how promotional campaigns in which Bernard Shaw participated were key crucibles within which agency and personality could renegotiate their relationship to one another and to the consuming public. Concurrent with the rise of modern advertising the creation of Shaw's G B S public persona was achieved through masterful imitation of patent medicine marketing strategies and a shrewd understanding of the relationship between product and spokesman. Helping to enhance the visibility of his literary writing and dovetailing with his Fabian political activities G B S also became a key figure in the evolution of testimonial endorsement and the professionalizing of modern advertising. The study analyzes multiple ad series in which Shaw was prominently featured that were occasions for self promotion for both Shaw and the agencies and presage the iconoclastic style of contemporary public personality and techniques of celebrity marketing. Following Declan Kiberd's Foreword and the editor's Introduction, the contributing chapters in their order of appearance are from President of Ireland Michael D Higgins, Anthony Roche, David Clare, Elizabeth Mannion, Nelson O'Ceallaigh Ritschel, Aisling Smith, Susanne Colleary, Audrey McNamara, Aileen R. Ruane, Peter Gahan and Gustavo A. Rodriguez Martin. The essays establish that Shaw's Irishness was inherent and manifested itself in his work, demonstrating that Ireland was a recurring feature in his considerations. Redemptive Living Howard Ira Einsohn, 2023-12-27 This book explores a heretofore unremarked linkage between Bernard Shaw the twentieth century French thinker Paul Ricoeur and Jesus of Nazareth The ties that bind them are a foundational interest in the social teachings of the Nazarene and their use of a shared dialectics with respect to living the kind of compassionate life that holds out the promise in our contemporary world of achieving something approximating universal wellness on a healthy planet at peace with itself This work argues that the three principal subjects of the study independently of one another used the same dialectical method to reach the same dialectically derived conclusion about how humans can live redemptively in a fractured world Godly Heretics Marc DiPaolo, 2013-04-08 When computers freeze they are Contemporary Shavian Manifesto presents an appraisal of George Bernard Shaw's position on women in his plays The dramatist's unconventional approach itself is praiseworthy as he creates unwomanly women who are deviant and create their own space outside social conventions and practices In creating a counterpoint to the norm Shaw succeeds in creating the image of a new woman who is no longer the angel of the house The book explores the ways in which Shaw addresses gender inequality in society through an examination of women's role in the social religious moral and economic spheres In addition to studying Shaw's exploration of the radical woman this book traces his attempts to project a new woman who is the pursuer rather than being pursued The playwright questions the relegation of woman to the domestic space the arbitrary distribution of duties between men and women and patriarchally determined codes of conduct imposed upon woman His foregrounding of women as the force behind what he calls Creative Evolution achieves a kind of feminisation of the life force the central theme in his plays Shaw Fred D. Shaw's Settings Tony J.
