Weber, 2001-01-01 Bernardo Bellotto is considered to be one of the greatest topographical and landscape painters of the eighteenth century Trained as a painter of cityscapes he produced vivid and memorable images of many of the greatest cities of Europe including Venice Florence Rome Dresden Munich Vienna and Warsaw He also ventured successfully into genre portraiture allegory and history painting This beautiful book written by leading specialists on Bellotto examines his career and artistic development places his work in the context of the political needs of central European monarchs and presents a selection of his major paintings from each of his principal periods and genres Bellotto began as a painter of conventional views of Venice in the manner of his more famous uncle Canaletto However his quest for new subject matter led him to visit half a dozen cities in northern and central Italy in the early 1740s and at twenty five he left Italy for northern Europe where he spent the rest of his life working for royal and aristocratic patrons In Dresden he was engaged in the service of Augustus III where he created many glorious canvases and was awarded the title of Court Painter He then moved to Vienna and recorded its attractions for Empress Maria Theresa He ended his career as Court Painter in Warsaw and his detailed paintings of the city played an important role in its reconstruction after the Second World War The book demonstrates that in each of the places Bellotto lived he was able to capture the particular light and life with sensitivity and imagination      Bernardo Bellotto genannt Canaletto

Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition      Bernardo Bellotto Bernardo Bellotto, 2004 As part of the year in honour of Poland the Louvre displays from 5 October 2004 to 10 January 2005 a number of works depicting the city of Warsaw by Bernardo Bellotto an eighteenth century Italian painter Bellotto s set of views of the city of Warsaw is not only remarkably beautiful but is also an incomparable iconographic and historical record

Bellotto was one of the greatest Italian city painters of the eighteenth century. The set is outstanding both for the large number of paintings on the same subject and for its usefulness during the reconstruction of Warsaw after the Second World War for it enabled the old city centre to be rebuilt as it was in the eighteenth century. This book contains all 23 of Bellotto's paintings from the museum in the Royal Castle Warsaw not just the 18 paintings exhibited in the Louvre. The reproductions are large and accompanied by details. The commentaries take an iconographic approach and draw on historical evidence; some works are compared with photos of the actual places.

Italian, French and Spanish Painting Before 1800 at the Städel Jochen Sander, 1997

Giovanni Antonio Canal, Known as Canaletto 1697-1768 Dorothea Terpitz, Canaletto, 1998

In the age of the Grand Tour and the Enlightenment it was Giovanni Antonio Canal known as Canaletto who made the limpid radiant light of Venice famous far beyond the frontiers of Italy. He developed veduta painting to its finest flowering. As well as numerous views of squares and canals the artist celebrates especially in his Solennita dogali his group of city festivals Venice's former magnificence to which he has created a memorable monument.

Geography of the Gaze Renzo Dubbini, 2002-04-15

Geography of the Gaze offers a new history and theory of how the way we look at things influences what we see. Focusing on Western Europe from the seventeenth to nineteenth centuries Renzo Dubbini shows how developments in science, art, mapping and visual epistemology affected the ways natural and artificial landscapes were perceived and portrayed. He begins with the idea of the view explaining its role in the invention of landscape painting and in the definition of landscape as a cultural space. Among other topics Dubbini explores how the descriptive and pictorial techniques used in mariners' charts, view-oriented atlases, military cartography and garden design were linked to the proliferation of highly realistic paintings of landscapes and city scenes; how the picturesque system for defining and composing landscapes affected not just art but also archaeology and engineering; and how the ever-changing modern cityscapes inspired new ways of seeing and representing the urban scene in Impressionist painting, photography and stereoscopy. A marvelous history of viewing. Geography of the Gaze will interest everyone from scientists to artists.

Liechtenstein, the Princely Collections Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Sammlungen des Regierenden Fürsten von Liechtenstein, 1985

Liechtenstein is one of the smallest European states, a principality situated between Austria and Switzerland in the Upper Rhine Valley. The nation is less than three hundred years old but the ruling family, whose name it bears, traces its lineage back to the twelfth century. For successive generations members of the Princely House of Liechtenstein have been devoted art collectors. With a high degree of appreciation of artistic achievement they have pursued a centuries-long family tradition of acquiring not only great paintings and sculpture but also rare firearms, fine porcelain and other works of art. The result of this tradition is a collection of masterpieces that in its depth and breadth reflects more than four hundred years of European history and ranks among the world's greatest private collections. This publication accompanies an exhibition at The Metropolitan Museum of Art that marked the first time the masterpieces from this private collection were put on public display The rich and varied array of paintings sculpture and other works included in this exhibition not only represents the paradigm of a great European princely collection but also has the added distinction of being the collection of the only surviving monarchy of the Holy Roman Empire Metropolitan Museum of Art website
