Bert Geer Phillips And Taos Art:

Bert Geer Phillips and the Taos Art Colony Julie Schimmel, Robert Rankin White, 1994 The only book length study of the initiator of the Taos art colony     Bert Geer Phillips Jenny Parks Forwood, A detailed and entertaining history of Phillips a founding member of the Taos Society of Artists the first artist to permanently settle in Taos NM and is considered to be the founder of the Taos art colony     Branding the American West Marian Wardle, Sarah E. Boehme, 2016-02-17 Artists and filmmakers in the early twentieth century reshaped our vision of the American West In particular the Taos Society of Artists and the California based artist Maynard Dixon departed from the legendary depiction of the Wild West and fostered new images or brands for western art This volume illustrated with more than 150 images examines select paintings and films to demonstrate how these artists both enhanced and contradicted earlier representations of the West Prior to this period American art tended to portray the West as a wild frontier with untamed lands and peoples Renowned artists such as Henry Farny and Frederic Remington set their work in the past invoking an environment immersed in conflict and violence This trademark perspective began to change however when artists enamored with the Southwest stamped a new imprint on their paintings The contributors to this volume illuminate the complex ways in which early twentieth century artists as well as filmmakers evoked a southwestern environment not just suspended in time but also permanent rather than transient Yet as the authors also reveal these artists were not entirely immune to the siren call of the vanishing West and their portrayal of peaceful yet exotic Native Americans was an expansion rather than a dismissal of earlier tropes Both brands cast a romantic spell on the West and both have been seared into public consciousness Branding the American West is published in association with the Brigham Young University Museum of Art Provo Utah and the Stark Museum of Art Orange Texas     A Place in the Sun Thomas Brent Smith, 2016-01-20 Of the hundreds of foreign students who attended the Munich Art Academy between 1910 and 1915 Walter Ufer 1876 1936 and E Martin Hennings 1886 1956 returned to the United States to foster the development of a national art They ultimately established their reputations in the American Southwest The two German American artists shared much in common and both would gain membership in the celebrated Taos Society of Artists Featuring nearly 150 color plates and historical photographs A Place in the Sun is a long overdue tribute to the lives achievements and artistic legacy of these two important artists In tracing the lifelong friendship and intersecting careers of Ufer and Hennings the contributors to this volume explore the social and artistic implications of the artists German heritage and training Following their training in Munich both men hoped to build careers in the spirited art environment of Chicago Both were sponsored by wealthy businessmen many of German descent The support of these patrons allowed Ufer and Hennings to travel to the American Southwest where they like so many other talented artists fell under the spell of Taos and its picturesque scenery They also encountered the region s Native peoples and Hispanic culture that inspired many of their paintings Despite their mutual interests Ufer and Hennings were not identical by any means Each artist had a distinct artistic style and as the essays in this volume reveal the two men could not have had more different personalities or career trajectories Connoisseurs of southwestern art have long admired the masterworks of Ufer and Hennings By offering a rich sampling of their paintings alongside informative essays by noted art historians A Place in the Sun ensures that their significant contributions to American art will be long remembered A Place in the Sun is published in cooperation with the Denver Art Museum

The Taos Society of Artists Robert Rankin White, 1998 This definitive documentary history of the Society that made the northern New Mexico town famous as an art colony

Little Art Colony and US Modernism Geneva M. Gano, 2020-08-18 This book is first to historicise and theorise the significance of the early twentieth century little art colony as a uniquely modern social formation within a global network of modernist activity and production

New Mexico Richard Melzer, 2011 A pictorial celebration of New Mexico's history and landscape In celebration of New Mexico's statehood centennial Richard Melzer focuses on the various social and political elements that have made the Land of Enchantment what it is today Filled with images that document the past hundred years New Mexico is a photographic delight accompanied by brief insightful essays that leave the reader in no doubt of a history that is both imposing and exciting in its scope This book is also an official product of the state's centennial celebration Richard Anthony Melzer is a professor of history at the University of New Mexico Valencia Campus He is a former president of the Historical Society of New Mexico and is the author of many books and articles on twentieth century New Mexico history

Eanger Irving Couse Virginia Couse Leavitt, 2019-01-24 Eanger Irving Couse 1866-1936 showed remarkable promise as a young art student His lifelong interest in Native American cultures also started at an early age inspired by encounters with Chippewa Indians living near his hometown Saginaw Michigan After studying in Europe Couse began spending summers in New Mexico where in 1915 he helped found the famous Taos Society of Artists serving as its first president and playing a major role in its success This richly illustrated volume featuring full color reproductions of his artwork is the first scholarly exploration of Couse s noteworthy life and artistic achievements Drawing on extensive research Virginia Couse Leavitt gives an intimate account of Couse s experiences including his early struggles as an art student in the United States and abroad his study of Native Americans his winter home and studio in New York City and his life in New Mexico after he relocated to Taos In examining Couse s role as one of the original six founders of the Taos Society of Artists the author provides new information about the art colony s early meetings original members and first exhibitions As a scholar of art history Leavitt has spent decades researching her subject who also happens to be her grandfather Her unique access to the Couse family archives has allowed her to mine correspondence photographs sketchbooks and memorabilia all of which add fresh insight into the American art scene in the early 1900s Of particular interest is the correspondence of Couse s wife Virginia Walker an art student in Paris when the couple first met Her letters home to her family in Washington State offer a vivid picture of her husband s student life in Paris where Couse studied under the famous painter William Bouguereau at the Acad mie Julian Whereas many artists of the early twentieth century pursued a radically modern style Couse held true to his formal academic training throughout his career He gained renown for his paintings of southwestern landscapes and his respectful portraits of Native peoples Through his depictions of the domestic and spiritual lives of Pueblo Indians Couse helped mitigate the prejudices toward Native Americans that persisted during this era

The Legendary Artists of Taos Mary Carroll Nelson,1980 The founding of New Mexico s famous art colony and its pioneer artists Jacket subtitle American Cowboy ,2004-01 Published for devotees of the cowboy and the West American Cowboy covers all aspects of the Western lifestyle delivering the best in entertainment personalities travel rodeo action human interest art poetry fashion food horsemanship history and every other facet of Western culture With stunning photography and you are there reportage American Cowboy immerses readers in the cowboy life and the magic that is the great American West

Buried Treasures Richard Melzer,2007 Melzer offers an impressive new book about famous New Mexico gravesites usually the only monuments left to honor the human treasures who helped shape state national and often international history

Ernest L. Blumenschein Robert W. Larson,Carole B. Larson,2013-05-07 Few who appreciate the visual arts or the American Southwest can behold the masterpieces Sangre de Cristo Mountains or Haystack Taos Valley 1927 or Bend in the River 1941 and come away without a vivid image burned into memory The creator of these and many other depictions of the Southwest and its people was Ernest L Blumenschein cofounder of the famous Taos art colony This insightful comprehensive biography examines the character and life experiences that made Blumenschein one of the foremost artists of the twentieth century Robert W Larson and Carole B Larson begin their life of Blumy with his Ohio childhood and trace his development as an artist from early study in Cincinnati New York City and Paris through his first career as a book and magazine illustrator Blumenschein and artist Bert G Phillips discovered the budding art community of

Taos New Mexico in 1898 In 1915 the two along with Joseph Henry Sharp E Irving Couse and other like minded artists organized the Taos Society of Artists famous for preferring American subjects over European themes popular at the time Leaving illustration work behind Blumenschein sought a distinctive place in his American homeland and in fine art painting He moved with his family to Taos in 1919 and began his long career as a figurative and landscape painter becoming prominent among American artists for his Pueblo Indian figures and stunning southwestern landscapes Robert Larson calls Blumenschein a transformational artist trained classically but drawing to a limited degree on abstract representation Placing Blumenschein's life in the context of World War I the Great Depression and other national and world events the authors show how an artistic genius turned a fascination with the people light and color of New Mexico into a body of work of lasting significance to the international art world
