Revolutionary
Theater and the Classical Heritage Michael David Richardson, 2007 This study analyzes the work of three prominent proletarian revolutionary dramatists at the end of the Weimar Republic The work of Bertolt Brecht Friedrich Wolf and Gustav von Wangenheim is looked at against the backdrop of debates among Marxist intellectuals and artists Through a discussion of theatrical theory and close readings of individual plays this work examines the authors unique aesthetics and their enactment of a critical appropriation of the German literary heritage It also investigates their attempts to transform the audience s relationship to the theatrical production from a passive receptive to an active critical one This volume offers insights into larger questions of political and cultural continuity that characterized the Weimar and the postwar periods Half-century of Greatness Frederic Ewen, 2007-09 A Half Century of Greatness paints a vivid and dramatic picture of the creative thought of mid to late nineteenth century Europe and the influence of the unsuccessful Revolutions of 1848 It reveals often unexpected links between novelists poets and philosophers from England Germany Austria Hungary Russia and Ukraine especially Dickens Carlyle Mill the Bront s and George Eliot Hegel Strauss Feuerbach Marx Engels Wagner and several German poets the Hungarian poet Sndor Petfi Gogol Dostoevsky Bakunin and Herzen in Russia and the great Ukrainian poet Shevchenko The book was reconstructed and edited by Dr Jeffrey Wollock from Ewen's final manuscript It includes the author's own reference citations throughout a reconstructed bibliography and an updated further reading list This is Ewen's last work the long lost companion to his Heroic Imagination Together these books present a panorama of the social political and artistic aspects of European Romanticism especially foreshadowing and complementing recent work on the relation of Marxism to romanticism Anyone interested in what Lukacs called Romantic anticapitalism who appreciates such books as Marshall Berman's Adventures in Marxism 1999 Lwy Sayre's Romanticism against the Tide of Modernity 2001 or E P Thompson's The Romantics 1997 will find the Ewen volumes a welcome addition Erwin Piscator's Political Theatre C. D. Innes,1972-09-07 This 1977 text was the first full study of Erwin Piscator the German theatrical producer who was prominent in the 1920s and worked after 1945 with the writers Hochhuth Kipphardt and Weiss Professor Innes sketches the background of Dadaism and Expressionism from which Piscator came and points out the differences between Piscator and the other experimenters of his time He also gives a vivid description of Piscator's technical innovations the modern means of communication such as film the illumination of the stage from below and the treadmill a flat moving band along which the characters walked These turned drama into a multi media event Professor Innes uses Piscator's career as a focus to describe theatrical developments in the twentieth century and to discuss the role of the author the director and the actor in drama the purpose of the theatre and the involvement of the audience Performing Women Gay Gibson Cima, 2018-10-18 Some feminists criticize male playwrights for misrepresenting and thereby victimizing women through patriarchal narratives other feminists applaud selected male playwrights as creators of universal women's roles In this bold and imaginative book Gay Gibson Cima delineates previously unacknowledged complexities in the relationship between male playwrights and female characters in the modern theatre That relationship has been misinterpreted she maintains because the contributions of female actors and the variations in their actual performance conditions and styles are too often ignored Taking into account hypothetical as well as historical performances of works by representative male playwrights from Ibsen to Beckett Cima sheds important new light on the acting styles invented by women to create female characters on stage Changes in performance style Cima observes may alter conventional modes of viewing and disrupt behavioral codes generated by a patriarchal cultural system Performing Women is essential reading for theatre critics and historians feminist theorists theatre professionals and amateurs and others interested in film and the stage Homintern Gregory Woods, 2017-01-01 A landmark account of gay and lesbian creative networks and the seismic changes they brought to twentieth century culture In a hugely ambitious study which crosses continents languages and almost a century Gregory Woods identifies the ways in which homosexuality has helped shape Western culture Extending from the trials of Oscar Wilde to the gay liberation era this book examines a period in which increased visibility made acceptance of homosexuality one of the measures of modernity Woods shines a revealing light on the diverse informal networks of gay people in the arts and other creative fields Uneasily called the Homintern an echo of Lenin's Comintern by those suspicious of an international homosexual conspiracy such networks connected gay writers actors artists musicians dancers filmmakers politicians and spies While providing some defense against dominant heterosexual exclusion the grouping brought solidarity celebrated talent and in doing so invigorated the majority culture Woods introduces an enormous cast of gifted and extraordinary characters most of them operating with surprising openness but also explores such issues as artistic influence the coping strategies of minorities the hypocrisies of conservatism and the effects of positive and negative discrimination Traveling from Harlem in the 1910s to 1920s Paris 1930s Berlin 1950s New York and beyond this sharply observed warm spirited book presents a surpassing portrait of twentieth century gay culture and the men and women who both redefined themselves and changed history

Death Comes to the Maiden Camille Naish,2013-05-07 In 1791 the French femme de lettres Olympe de Gouges wrote that as women have the right to take their places on the scaffold they must also have the right to take their seats in government This book explores the issues of female emancipation through the history of female execution from the burning of Joan of Arc in 1431 to the events of the French revolution Concentrating on individual victims the author addresses the sexual attitudes and prejudices encountered by women condemned to death She examines the horrific treatment of those denounced as witches and reveals the gruesome reality of death by hanging burning or the guillotine In an attempt to uncover the historical truth behind such figures as Joan of Arc Anne Boleyn Manon Roland and Charlotte Corday she goes beyond biography to consider their deaths in symbolic terms She also considers writers such as Genet Yourcenar and Brecht and their treatment of the tragic sacrificial and erotic aspects of female execution Estrangement and the Somatics of Literature Douglas Robinson,2008-04-28 Drawing together the estrangement theories of Viktor Shklovsky and Bertolt Brecht with Leo Tolstoy's theory of infection Douglas Robinson studies the ways in which shared evaluative affect regulates both literary familiarity convention and tradition and modern strategies of alienation depersonalization and malaise This book begins with two assumptions both taken from Tolstoy's late aesthetic treatise What Is Art 1898 that there is a malaise in culture and that literature s power to infect readers with the moral values of the author is a possible cure for this malaise Exploring these ideas of estrangement within the contexts of earlier contemporary and later critical theory Robinson argues that Shklovsky and Brecht follow Tolstoy in their efforts to fight depersonalization by imbuing readers with the transformative guidance of collectivized feeling Robinson's somatic approach to literature offers a powerful alternative to depersonalizing structuralist and poststructuralist theorization without simply retreating into conservative rejection and reaction Both a comparative study of Russian and German literary theoretical history and an insightful examination of the somatics of literature this groundbreaking work provides a deeper understanding of how literature affects the reader and offers a new perspective on present day problems in poststructuralist approaches to the human condition Bible G. Ronald Murphy S.J., 2020-05-01 This study identifies the underlying patterns of persistent biblical allusion in the work of renowned playwright Bertolt Brecht Rather than reducing Brecht's use of the Bible to the purely satirical the author interprets the full dramatic function of Brecht's complex use of scripture Using examples from plays written throughout the span of Brecht's career Murphy shows how Brecht invokes the stories of Old Testament figures such as Job and Isaiah as well as the crucifixion accounts of the New Testament in order to build sympathetic characters and explore his more political The Warrior's Camera Stephen Prince, 1999-11-14 The Japanese film director Akira Kurosawa who died at the themes age of 88 has been internationally acclaimed as a giant of world cinema Rashomon which won both the Venice Film Festival s grand prize and an Academy Award for best foreign language film helped ignite Western interest in the Japanese cinema Seven Samurai and Yojimbo remain enormously popular both in Japan and abroad In this newly revised and expanded edition of his study of Kurosawa's films Stephen Prince provides two new chapters that examine Kurosawa's remaining films placing him in the context of cinema history Prince also discusses how Kurosawa furnished a template for some well known Hollywood directors including Martin Scorsese Steven Spielberg and George Lucas Providing a new and comprehensive look at this master filmmaker The Warrior's Camera probes the complex visual structure of Kurosawa's work The book shows how Kurosawa attempted to symbolize on film a course of national development for post war Japan and it traces the ways that he tied his social visions to a dynamic system of visual and narrative forms The author analyzes Kurosawa's entire career and places the films in context by drawing on the director's autobiography a fascinating work that presents Kurosawa as a Kurosawa character and the story of his life as the kind of spiritual odyssey witnessed so often in his films After examining the development of Kurosawa s visual style in his early work The Warrior s Camera explains how he used this style in subsequent films to forge a politically committed model of filmmaking It then demonstrates how the collapse of Kurosawa s efforts to participate as a filmmaker in the tasks of social reconstruction led to the very different cinematic style evident in his most recent films works of pessimism that view the world as resistant to change The Vital Lie Anthony S. Abbott, 2003-08-08 The Vital Lie is the first book to examine the reality illusion conflict in modern drama from Ibsen to present day playwrights The book questions why vital lies lies necessary for life itself are such an obsessive concern for playwrights of the last hundred years Using the work of fifteen playwrights Abbott seeks to discover if modern playwrights treat illusions as helpful or necessary to life or as signals of sicknesses from which human beings need to be cured What happens to characters when they are forced to face the truth about themselves and their worlds without the protection of their illusions. The author develops a three part historical analysis of the use of the reality illusion theme from its origins as a metaphysical search to its current elaborations as a theatrical game For Virginia and for Independence Harry M. Ward, 2011-10-14 The phrase American Revolutionary War Hero usually brings to mind George Washington John Paul Jones and other famous officers Heroes however existed throughout the ranks during the Revolution and many made their marks without ever receiving proper recognition These portraits of 28 Virginia Revolutionary soldiers expand the historical record of those who can be called a hero Whether as infantryman cavalryman marine militiaman spy frontier fighter or staffer all performed with distinction that contributed to victory A strongman who performed superhuman feats during battle a woman who fought as a soldier a militiaman who sounded a fateful alarm some gave their lives others were terribly wounded but all demonstrated heroism beyond the call of duty Joyce, Bakhtin, and the Literary Tradition M. Keith Booker,1995 Illuminates James Joyce's relationship to his literary predecessors in new and important ways
