□GUYANA-MY ELDORADO□ DR FRANK A HANIFF,MD,2014-06-30 I am seventy six years of age have had two heart attacks and am not really very well My memory though is fine except sometimes for names but I recall the events as vividly as if they are occurring now My Far passed away on June 10 2013 Today is Valentine s Day and I visited my Far twice Our home on 2665 La Veta Avenue is a mere two minutes away I have just returned from San Bernardino Community Hospital where I visited a patient in my capacity as a Muslim chaplain I am not sure who if anyone will ever read this book It is a chronicle of our wonderful life but there are many Cinderella stories This is not a masterpiece of the English language nor is it in any way unique Writing gave me a great deal of pleasure I knew I had angels beside me and at all times one seraph We have had much joy pleasure excitement much to wonder about and much to puzzle over We have laughed and cried nearly just as much sometimes out of pleasure and sometimes out of pain and grief always we have walked with God We have made many mistakes we are only human and have alienated far too many but never deliberately nor out of meanness Those who love us will perhaps forgive and those who do not may hopefully forget our transgressions real or imagined always remembering what Jesus said about casting stones We tried to make a difference and with the help of God we did In as much as this humble effort reflects the insuperable challenges of finding peace and harmony in a small family I believe it resonates with the pain and suffering inflicted by man on his fellow man in places like Syria Central Africa and the Ukraine and with more natural disasters such as hurricanes typhoons and tornadoes which create no less pain and suffering As I approach the end of my life I continue in the Ministry of Healing in the hope that the solace and comfort I attempt to deliver will not be entirely unselfish Dr Frank A Haniff MD San Bernardino CA 92404 February 14 2014 Coming Out Raewyn

The Zen of the Wild Francis Sanzaro,2025-10-21 From the author of The Zen of Climbing and The Craft of Bouldering a manifesto for a new approach to connecting meaningfully with the wildness around and within us In recent years we have woken up to the crucial role that nature plays in our well being As we live increasingly urbanized lives we seek out wilderness and green space in times of hardship and turmoil or simply during our leisure time In the process of exploring and understanding more about the benefits of being in nature many of us have taken up swimming forest bathing cycling hiking and running in the open air But when we spend this time in the wild are we really connected to it Francis Sanzaro argues that we often obscure opportunities for real connection through our attachment to screens our anxieties about our everyday lives or simply through our egos When we observe nature we rarely do so without subconsciously filtering out the parts that don't fit into the perfect snapshot we crave To foster a genuine connection with the natural world and to better protect it we must embrace its contradictions as well as the surface beauty Through deeper engagement with our environment we can discover the wild within ourselves too The Lord Knows the Way Through the Wilderness Elvera M. were written while she was in high school Through years of teaching getting married raising three boys in Cincinnati OH and becoming an expert weaver her observations broadened and insights sharpened Her early poems reflect a deep feeling for natural things and nature's power Her loneliness during World War II is revealed in poems written about and to her husband to be in England and Germany Her sensitivity to those around her shows clearly in her poems about family friends and pets Her evolving views of God religion and philosophy are revealed in Chapter 5 Her concerns and perspectives about the world and the human family are shown in many of her poems Her poems come from her heart and her keen mind Her poems move one with their sincerity and humility They present special insights about ordinary things DIARY Rasheed Odunade Akande,2014-09-01 DIARY Dream within a dream is a work of poetry and a sequence to If Only I Knew Personal Recollections The Diary like its predecessor delves into the problems of human social cultural experience while noting the struggles both mental and physical of every individual to find acceptance and love etc The book is a complex whole for poetry lovers written in simple English dictum for all minds capable of grasping simple concepts Growing up on the Farm Henry Skupin,2007-09-06 Growing Up On the Farm in Rosebud Texas in the 1940's and 1950's has been enthusiastically received by readers especially those who lived on farms during that period of our American History Every story is about real people and things that actually happened Even though Growing Up On the Farm has humor from beginning to end I mostly make fun of myself Believe me in a 20 year period I made enough humorous mistakes to provide plenty of interesting material for a book I have received many compliments including one in which the reader states that She felt she was sitting across the kitchen table from me telling me stories of my childhood Another said that in writing my stories I did myself proud Drayton McLane owner of the Houston Astros McLane Wholesale and McLane Trucking stated Yes that once he started reading Growing Up On the Farm he found it hard to put down Drayton McLane grew up in Cameron which is the next town South of Rosebud and I got that response from him in the U S Mail 5 days after I mailed him the book I touch on just about every facet of being a kid on a Texas farm in that era and have had warm responses from readers from coast to coast and from Canada to Mexico Two stories that people seem to relate strongly to are about butchering a hog and washing clothes with homemade lye soap in a wash pot in the back yard heated by a fire from burning logs I also describe doing daily chores on the farm playing on the farm churning butter raising baby chicks plucking and butchering fryers being born at home in a house without electricity or running water attending a one room public school without running water where our bathroom was an outhouse my older brother riding his pony Sally to school each day chopping cotton picking cotton milking cows working in our huge garden canning food from the garden with our mom and doing quite a few tasks that were beyond today's expected skill levels for someone my age I cover walking one and one half miles home from school in the first grade and hitch hiking 6 miles to town to play Little League Baseball at the age of 11 and 12 I felt truly rewarded for being able to contribute in such a meaningful way to the family's lively hood A significant amount of coverage is given to some of my teenage responsibilities like hauling the entire corn crop to market each year beginning at the age of 13 along with some quite humorous mistakes that I was responsible for Of course all teenagers do a few things they never get around to telling their parents about and I did a few of those myself Since almost all of the adults from those bygone days are now long deceased I can cover them and enjoy making fun of myself Obviously I also cover my immediate family in detail and most of my extended family I believe another interesting use that can be made of this book is as reading material for the grandchildren of people that lived on farms in the 40 s and 50 s This is history that very few children will ever again experience In talking to people from that era I have found that very few parents told them many stories from their childhood Yet people that grew up on farms from across the nation have told me again and again that my stories were very similar to their experiences Once children of today read these stories they are much more likely to discuss their grandparents experiences with them while they are still alive to tell their tales I live in Houston Texas today and I am now giving a series of talks on Growing Up On the Farm and can be contacted at farmboy prodigy net if anyone would like more information or would like me to mail them a signed copy I would welcome individuals recommending this book to public and school libraries high school FFA programs retailers and their friends on my behalf
