Webb,2010-09-01 In this important book Webb makes two central claims First that effective preaching without a manuscript is not a matter of talent as much as it is a matter of preparation Preachers can learn the practices and disciplines that make it possible to deliver articulate thoughtfully crafted sermons not from a written page but as a natural spontaneous act of oral communication Throughout the book the author offers specific examples including a transcript of a sermon preached without manuscript or notes Second that the payoff of learning to preach without a manuscript is nothing less than sermons that more effectively and engagingly give witness to the good news An Introduction to Ministry Ian S. Bate John Bate,1884 Preaching that Matters Stephen Farris,1998-01-01 Preaching is the art of building a bridge in the hearer's mind from the ancient world of the biblical text to the realities of our daily lives. Throughout this book, Stephen Farris offers splendid insights into ways that the Bible can connect with modern life and gives specific guidance to preachers on how to make these connections happen. This is a highly practical book for ministers and for classroom use. A Path to Faithful Preaching Paul Young, 2024-05-15. Young contends: Preaching is faithful when its mission message and method conform to God's design for preaching. However much that passes for preaching has a mission message and method that begins and ends with man, not God. Not all that calls itself preaching is faithful. If faithful preaching is your goal, there is real help in these pages. In this book, you will learn what faithful preaching is and how to do it. Creative Preaching and Oral Writing Carl Hoefler, 1978. Creative Preaching and Oral Writing begins with a definition of preaching, then goes into a discussion of the creative importance of attitude toward the preaching task, toward the content, toward self, and toward the listeners. Skillfully comparing the structure of the sermon to the structure of the bumble bee, Richard Hoefler says: A good speech is like a bumble bee. It possesses five basic parts, each one playing a vital formation in the total process of the flight of the bumble bee: a head, a body, a stinger, legs, and wings. They enable both the bumble bee and the speech to get off the ground and into their work. After thorough discussion of the structure of the sermon, the author goes into detailed explanation of the use of the oral style of writing sermons. The illustrations and examples will enable student or the seasoned pastor to dramatically improve his or her preaching effectiveness. Richard Carl Hoefler, Professor of Preaching and Worship and Dean of Chapel in the Lutheran Seminary, Columbia, South Carolina, is a graduate of Wittenberg University and the Hamma School of Theology, Springfield, Ohio. He received a Master's degree from Princeton University and a Doctor of Divinity degree from Roanoke College in Salem, Virginia. Previously, Richard Carl Hoefler was pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Springfield, Ohio, as well as instructor in Wittenberg University and Sinclair College, Dayton, Ohio. Dr. Hoefler says that his greatest accomplishment comes when a student says to him: "You opened up the meaning of the gospel for me. I had never heard it before."
