Scott Fitzgerald William Faulkner Richard Wright Flannery O'Connor Cormac McCarthy and other masters of fiction The essays in this collection pay detailed attention to both the genuine artistry and the cultural significance of crime fiction in the United States It emphasizes American crime fiction's inquiry into the nature of democratic society and its exploration of injustices based on race class and or gender that are specifically located in the details of American experience Each of these essays exists on its own terms as a significant contribution to scholarship but when brought together the collection becomes larger than the sum of its pieces in detailing the centrality of crime fiction to American literature This is a crucial book for all students of American fiction as well as for those interested in the literary treatment of crime and detection and also has broad appeal for classes in American popular culture and American modernism AB Bookman's Weekly ,1994

Narrating the News Karen Roggenkamp,2005 Due to a burgeoning print marketplace during the late nineteenth century urban newspapers felt pressure to create entertaining prose that appealed to readers drawing on popular literary genres such as travel adventures detective tales and historical romances as a way of framing the news for readers Using current events for their source documents reporters fashioned their own dramas based on those that readers recognized from a broadly drawn literary culture The desire to spin attractive popular tales sometimes came at the expense of factual information This novel commercialized and sensationalistic style of reporting called new journalism was closely tied to American fiction In Narrating the News Karen Roggenkamp examines five major stories featured in three respected New York newspapers during the 1890s the story of two antebellum hoaxes Nellie Bly's around the world journey Lizzie Borden's sensational trial Evangelina Cisneros's rescue from her Spanish captors and the Janet Cooke Jimmy's World scandal to illustrate how new journalism manipulated specific segments of the literary marketplace on vital topics in literary and cultural studies gender expansionism realism and professionalization Unlike previously published studies of literature and journalism which focus only on a few canonical figures Roggenkamp looks at part of the history of mass print communications more generally exposing the competitive and reinforcing interplay between specific literary genres and their journalistic revisions Narrating the News provides an original significant contribution to the fields of literature journalism history and cultural studies Words on Cassette ,1997 Her America Susan Glaspell,2010-07 One of the preeminent authors of the early twentieth century Susan Glaspell 1876 1948 produced fourteen ground breaking plays nine novels and more than fifty short stories Her work was popular and critically acclaimed during her lifetime with her novels appearing on best seller lists and her stories published in major magazines and in The Best American Short Stories Many of her short works display her remarkable abilities as a humorist satirizing cultural conventions and the narrowness of small town life And yet they also evoke serious questions relevant as much today as during Glaspell's lifetime about society's values and priorities and about the individual search for self fulfillment While the classic A Jury of Her Peers has been widely anthologized in the last several decades the other stories Glaspell wrote between 1915 and 1925 have not been available since their original appearance This new collection reprints A Jury of Her Peers restoring its original ending and brings to light eleven other outstanding stories offering modern readers the chance to appreciate the full range of Glaspell's literary skills Glaspell was part of a generation of midwestern writers and artists including Sherwood Anderson Sinclair Lewis Willa

Cather and F Scott Fitzgerald who migrated first to Chicago and then east to New York Like these other writers she retained a deep love for and a deep ambivalence about her native region She parodied its provincialism and narrow mindedness but she also celebrated its pioneering and agricultural traditions and its unpretentious values Witty gently humorous satiric provocative and moving the stories in this timely collection run the gamut from acerbic to laugh out loud funny to thought provoking In addition at least five of them provide background to and thematic comparisons with Glaspell s innovative plays that will be useful to dramatic teachers students and producers With its thoughtful introduction by two widely published Glaspell scholars Her America marks an important contribution to the ongoing critical and scholarly efforts to return Glaspell to her former preeminence as a major writer The universality and relevance of her work to political and social issues that continue to preoccupy American discourse free speech ethics civic justice immigration adoption and gender establish her as a direct descendant of the American tradition of short fiction derived from Hawthorne Poe and Twain Books Out Loud ,2007 Golden Age Bibliomysteries (An American Mystery Classic) Otto Penzler,2023-07-11 In these classic mystery tales literature is a matter of life or death Of crime fiction s many sub genres none is so reflexive and so intriguing as the bibliomystery stories that involve crimes set somehow in the world of books In Vincent Starrett s A Volume of Poe a bookseller is murdered in Ellery Queen s The Adventure of the Three R s the detective tracks the disappearance of a local Missouri author and a killer stalks the stacks of the New York Public Library in Robert L Blochman s Death Walks in Marble Halls With fourteen tales of bibliophilic transgression from the Golden Age of the mystery genre the decades between the two World Wars this volume collects stories guaranteed to entertain featuring work from well remembered authors such as Cornell Woolrich and Anthony Boucher and from those that are lesser known today such as Carolyn Wells and James Gould Cozzens Edgar Award winning anthologist editor bookseller and mystery scholar Otto Penzler has focused extensively on the history of the bibliomystery and his expertise shines in this enjoyable collection both in the selection of stories and in the informative and illuminating introductions that accompany each one First Editions of English XVIII-XIX Century and American XIX Century Authors John Alden Spoor,1939 The New York Times Book Review ,1995-09 Queen's Quorum Ellery Queen,1969 Subject Collections ,1985 60 Years of Best Sellers, 1895-1955 Alice Payne Hackett,1956
