Jan Dean, 2007 The act of painting takes on metaphorical significance as Dean navigates themes of creation and documentation of life through art What emerges is a sensuously layered and intriguing meditation on the past that offers a sense of connectedness and hope for the future Quarterly Essay 16 Breach of Trust Raimond Gaita, 2004-12-01 In the fourth Quarterly Essay of 2004 Raimond Gaita confronts essential questions about politics as it is practised today What do politicians mean when they talk about trust Why is truthfulness important Are we as politically and morally divided as the Americans Does the war on terror authorise leaders to do things that once were considered beyond the pale Gaita argues for a conception of politics in which morality is not an optional extra He discusses why successful politicians must at times be economical with the truth but shows a way beyond cynicism on the one hand and moralising on the other Politics he says is conceivably a noble vocation as well as potentially a tragic one He looks closely at patriotism and its distortions and the temptation to betray our deepest values in the act of protecting ourselves Combining gentle evocation with gloves off argument Breach of Trust is a clarion call from one of Australia's leading thinkers I have never met anyone who believes that politicians should never lie But of course there are limits They are not set in the heavens but in culture Raimond Gaita Breach Of Trust The Best Australian Poetry, 2007 The Best Australian Poems, 2005 The Poetic Eye: Occasional

"Kangaroo Court" John Hirst,2005-05-01 The Family Court was a progressive reform of the 1970s Now it is perhaps the most hated institution in Australia In the Kangaroo Court John Hirst investigates what went wrong This is a measured yet unsparing appraisal which interleaves individual cases with compelling legal and moral argument Hirst takes us deep into the workings of the Court and the domestic apocalypses it sees every day He explores the Court s fervour to uphold the best interests of the child no matter what and traces its chilling consequence a court where malicious allegations regularly go unpunished He notes the Court s enormous power over individual lives as well as its self proclaimed status as a caring court and wonders at its ability to overlook the defiance of its own authority In closing he considers how to reform an institution that has bred antagonism and extremism and too often entrenched paranoia and despair Lucid and urgent Kangaroo Court is a cautionary tale about the perils of high mindedness when it comes to dealing with the breakdown of families When Family Court judges talk piously of the caring court I wish they could hear the roar of pain that their piety has caused John Hirst Kangaroo Court This issue also contains correspondence discussing Quarterly Essay 16 Breach of Trust from Paul Kelly Paul Bongiorno Mungo MacCallum Natasha Cica Alex Miller and Raimond Gaita The Verse Novel Linda Weste,2023-07-28 In these thirty five interviews with verse novelists from Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand Linda Weste explores the uniqueness of storytelling through poetry and the genre of the verse novel Her subjects are notable representatives of a region where verse novels for Adults Children and Young Adults thrive among them is Steven Herrick winner of the prestigious Deutscher Jugendliteraturpreis in 2019 and what they have to say enriches our understanding of the verse novel across each of its publishing categories Australian Literary Studies ,2008 Night's Glass Table Karen Zelas,2012 The poems in Night's Glass Table are tight and emotionally powerful and deal with themes such as death grief and love Zelas chooses her words with care and her poems are always eloquent and evocative She demonstrates a sound use of conventions and her writing is well crafted and technically excellent Night's Glass Table won the 2012 IP Picks Best First Book Award
