Indigenous People, Race Relations and Australian Sport Christopher J. Hallinan, Barry Judd, 2016-05-06 The Indigenous peoples of Australia have a proud history of participation and the achievement of excellence in Australian sports Historically Australian sports have provided a rare and important social context in which Indigenous Australians could engage with and participate in non Indigenous society Today Indigenous Australian people in sports continue to provide important points of reference around which national public dialogue about racial and cultural relations in Australia takes place Yet much media coverage surrounding these issues and almost all academic interest concerning Indigenous people and Australian sports is constructed from non Indigenous perspectives With a few notable exceptions the racial and cultural implications of Australian sports as viewed from an Indigenous Australian Studies perspective remains understudied The media coverage and academic discussion of Indigenous people and Australian sports is largely constructed within the context of Anglo Australian nationalist discourse and becomes most emphasised when reporting on aspects of racial and cultural explanations of Indigenous sporting excellence and failures associated anomalous behaviour This book investigates the many ways that Indigenous Australians have engaged with Australian sports and the racial and cultural readings that have been associated with these engagements Questions concerning the importance that sports play in constructions of Australian indigeneities and the extent to which these have been maintained as marginal to Australian national identity are the central critical themes of this book This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society Sport, Literature, Society Alexis Tadié, J.A. Mangan, Supriya Chaudhuri, 2016-04-08 Sport studies and sports history have witnessed a recent substantial increase in publications However the relationship between literature and sport has been little explored Sport Literature Society looks at a wide variety of case studies ranging from Japan to England from India to Australia and covers sports as diverse as cycling football wrestling and boxing It concentrates on historical perspectives The contributors are all academics of international reputation and include historians of sport and literary scholars Literature may shape our perceptions and reactions to sport as much as sport may inform our reading As mimetic practice as aesthetic object as imaginative release sport is analogous to literature and the other arts at the same time it can become the subject of literary visual or musical elaborations Literature often conceptualises the place and role of sport in culture and society Indeed sport inhabits literature in ways that have not been adequately studied Sport studies have investigated the relationships between sport and society education gender nation and class To look again at these relationships through the prism of literature enables us to change our focus and to assess the centrality of sport in culture This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport

Rabbit Syndrome Don Watson,2001-12-01 In the fourth Quarterly Essay Don Watson takes an analytical look at the ways in which the Australian imagination has always been dominated by America Why are they so much better than we are Even when it comes to producing books like the Updike Rabbit sequence that tell us what we are like Why are they also a land of

executioners who have nevertheless created the least bad empire the world has seen Can we really expect to be deputies to America And what about our own sacred story the progressive one that we have sold for the sake of the Americanisation of our own society If we can t have a friendly independent relationship with America why don t we go the whole hog and join them In a dark brooding moody essay Don Watson plays on the paradoxes of Australia s feeling about America and offers a scathing view of an Australian culture that is asking to be engulfed by its great and powerful friend because the mental process is already so advanced This is a brilliant meditation round a set of paradoxes that are central to our long term anxieties and hopes this is a Quarterly Essay that plays on our most fundamental fears including the most terrifying of all that we shall cease to exist because we have never been Peter Craven Introduction The Australian story does not work anymore or not well enough to hang the modern story on The most useful thing is to recognise that we took the biggest step we have ever taken towards the American social model And this has profound implications for how we think of Australia and how we make it cohere Don Watson Rabbit Syndrome Larrikins Melissa Bellanta, 2012 A gripping and inspiring space adventure for kids of all ages from popular author Tristan Bancks Dash Campbell has only ever had one dream To go to space Now he and four others have been given the chance to become the first kids ever to leave our planet From building rockets behind his family s laundromat in Australia to attending a hardcore Space School in the US Dash is a long way from home And he still has an intense month of training ahead before he can even think about that glorious moment of blasting out of Earth's atmosphere and living his dream But does Dash have what it takes t Australian Book Review ,2002 Australia Grantlee Kieza, 2015-10-01 This book looks at boxing in Australia from early European settlement to the present day Packed with stories you can read about the first recorded fight the racially charged match between a white and a black man the travelling boxing shows the Indigenous champions including Lionel Rose women boxers and modern day winners such as Jeff Fenech Anthony Mundine and Kostya Tszyu It is full of fabulous images text boxes with additional snippets of information and profile boxes with vital statistics for key boxers Australian Literary Studies ,2003 Ouarterly Essay 16 Breach of Trust Raimond Gaita, 2004-12-01 In the fourth Quarterly Essay of 2004 Raimond Gaita confronts essential questions about politics as it is practised today What do politicians mean when they talk about trust Why is truthfulness important Are we as politically and morally divided as the Americans Does the war on terror authorise leaders to do things that once were considered beyond the pale Gaita argues for a conception of politics in which morality is not an optional extra He discusses why successful politicians must at times be economical with the truth but shows a way beyond cynicism on the one hand and moralising on the other Politics he says is conceivably a noble vocation as well as potentially a tragic one He looks closely at patriotism and its distortions and the temptation to betray our deepest values in the act of protecting ourselves Combining gentle evocation with gloves off argument Breach of Trust is a clarion call from one of Australia s leading thinkers I have never met anyone who believes that politicians should never lie But of course there are limits They are not set in the heavens but in culture Raimond Gaita Breach Of Trust HIEAS ,2005 Gangland This Unsporting Life James Morton, Susanna Lobez, 2019-10-01 Sport has always attracted organised crime Huge sums of money are wagered in every arena and rorts swindles and unsporting behaviour have shadowed players of all codes Cricket and footy are not immune with Heath Shaw and Ben Cousins caught up in gambling and drugs and NRL star Ryan Tandy in match fixing Plenty of punters have criminal connections Alphonse Gangitano and the Moran brothers Drugs play a major part on and off the fields of play looking at you Essendon Football Club and Cronulla Sutherland Sharks with horses and greyhounds also routinely doped James Morton and Susanna Lobez investigate the cheating underbelly of sport from the first cricket pitch invasion in the 1890s through to the contemporary scandals that will leave you wondering if there is such a thing as a sporting chance Sport and Contested Identities David Hassan, Ciaran Acton, 2017-09-07 Identity is one of the most theorised and contested of all sociological concepts and sport is fertile ground for an examination of its complexities. This book offers a wide ranging and up to date exploration of the sport identity nexus drawing examples from a variety of sporting contexts and geographical locations and incorporating a diversity of perspectives including players spectators officials the media and policy makers Covering key themes in the social scientific study of sport such as gender ethnicity and national identity it considers the impact of social cultural and technological change on the formation of sporting identities Including original real life case studies each chapter makes a unique contribution to our understanding of the complex relationship between sport and identity As this relationship is embedded within the broader structures of power that frame social inequality this book also poses important questions about the role of sport related initiatives in our society today as well as in years to come Sport and Contested Identities Contemporary Issues and Debates is fascinating reading for all students and scholars of the sociology of sport the AFL's Vilification Laws Sean Gorman, Dean Lusher, Keir Reeves, 2018-12-07 This book is the outcome of an Australian Research Council ARC funded project titled Assessing the Australian Football League's Racial and Religious Vilification Laws to Promote Community Harmony Multiculturalism and Reconciliation which investigated the impact of the Australian Football League's anti vilification policy since its introduction in 1995 With key stakeholders the Australian Football League the AFL Players Association and the Office of Multicultural Affairs previously the Victorian Multicultural Commission the book gauges the attitudes and perspectives of players and coaches in the AFL regarding Rule 35 the code s anti vilification rule The overarching themes of multiculturalism reconciliation and social harmony in the AFL workplace have been the guiding ideals that we examined and analysed The outcomes from the research vectors look at and engage with key issues about race diversity and difference as it pertains to the elite AFL code but also looks at the ongoing international conversation as it pertains to these themes in sport This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society The Best Ever Australian Sports Writing David John Headon, 2001 No Marketing Blurb Southern Religion, Southern Culture Darren E. Grem, Ted Ownby, James G. Thomas Jr., 2018-12-18 Contributions by Ryan L Fletcher Darren E Grem Paul

Harvey Alicia Jackson Ted Ownby Otis W Pickett Arthur Remillard Chad Seales and Randall J Stephens Over more than three decades of teaching at the University of Mississippi Charles Reagan Wilson's research and writing transformed southern studies in key ways This volume pays tribute to and extends Wilson's seminal work on southern religion and culture Using certain episodes and moments in southern religious history the essays examine the place and power of religion in southern communities and society It emulates Wilson's model featuring both majority and minority voices from archives and applying a variety of methods to explain the South's religious diversity and how religion mattered in many arenas of private and public life often with life or death stakes The volume first concentrates on churches and ministers and then considers religious and cultural constructions outside formal religious bodies and institutions It examines the faiths expressed via the region s fields streets homes public squares recreational venues roadsides and stages In doing so this book shows that Wilson s groundbreaking work on religion is an essential part of southern studies and crucial for fostering deeper understanding of the South's complicated history and culture Managing Expectations and Policy Responses to Racism in Sport Keir Reeves, Megan Ponsford, Sean Gorman, 2017-10-02 This volume presents research on policy responses to racism in sporting codes predominantly Australian Rules football in a global context While the three guest editors are based in Australia and their work pertains to the uniquely domestic game of Australian Rules football the outcomes research vectors and key issues from this research are part of a much larger on going international conversation that is equally relevant when considering for instance racism in English Premier League football first class cricket and basketball The book is an outcome of an Australian Research Council ARC funded project titled Assessing the Australian Football League's Racial and Religious Vilification Laws to Promote Community Harmony Multiculturalism and Reconciliation which investigated social participation and the impact of the Australian Football League's anti-racial vilification policy since its introduction in 1995 This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society The Rotarian, 1958-08 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut "Kangaroo Court" John Hirst, 2005-05-01 The Family Court was a progressive reform of Jr have written for the magazine the 1970s Now it is perhaps the most hated institution in Australia In the Kangaroo Court John Hirst investigates what went wrong This is a measured yet unsparing appraisal which interleaves individual cases with compelling legal and moral argument Hirst takes us deep into the workings of the Court and the domestic apocalypses it sees every day He explores the Court's fervour to uphold the best interests of the child no matter what and traces its chilling consequence a court where malicious allegations regularly go unpunished He notes the Court's enormous power over individual lives as well as its self proclaimed status as a caring court and wonders at its ability to overlook the defiance of its own authority In closing he considers how to reform an institution that has bred antagonism and extremism and too often entrenched paranoia and despair Lucid and urgent Kangaroo Court is a cautionary tale about the perils of high mindedness when it comes to dealing with the breakdown of families When Family Court judges talk piously of the caring court I wish they could hear the roar of pain that their piety has caused John Hirst Kangaroo Court This issue also contains correspondence discussing Quarterly Essay 16 Breach of Trust from Paul Kelly Paul Bongiorno Mungo MacCallum Natasha Cica Alex Miller and Raimond Gaita
