Road to Gold Mark Spector, 2020-11-17 Celebrate another historic gold medal with the behind the scenes story of the Canadian World Junior program from bestselling author Mark Spector On the World Juniors hockey stage today Canada is known as the team to beat They hold the record for the most gold medals won eighteen since the tournament's inception their games draw millions of fans each year and the tournament serves as a showcase for each year's best talent But things weren't always so rosy For years Canada languished in obscurity at the World Juniors Wearing the red and white wasn't a mark of honour but merely a sideshow to the players owners resented the interruption to their league operations and Canada was an afterthought at the tournament Canada was supposed to be better at hockey than any nation on earth but no one took them seriously So the team set out on a reclamation mission The Program of Excellence was born and with it a new hope for hockey s future in Canada No more would Canada be content with merely showing up Instead each year the country would send its best talent from Gretzky to Lemieux to Crosby to McDavid to reclaim its spot at the top of the hockey world Tracing the owner disputes off ice antics and riveting on ice action of nearly forty years at the World Juniors Road to Gold is full of inside stories from hockey greats And this edition features a new chapter reliving the amazing final game against Russia in January 2020 that brought the gold medal back to Canada Funny smart and clear eyed Mark Spector traces the remarkable rise of the Canadian World Junior program and shows how Canada created not just a new team but a new dream for the sport
