Claiming The Future Choosing Prosperity For The Middle East And North Africa:

Claiming the Future Banco Mundial,1995 Claiming the Future ,1995-01-01 This report reviews the recent economic and political history of the Middle East and North Africa and discusses ways in which the region may capitalize on its natural financial and human resources to become a key player in an integrating global economy State-Owned Enterprises in the Middle East and North Africa Merih Celasun,2013-01-11 In the rapid world wide spread of privatization progress in the Middle East and North Africa region has been markedly slow This volume argues that a high level of overstaffing in public enterprises and the inability of economies to create jobs fast enough is mainly responsible for this An in depth study of the facts and a well supported conclusion makes this an impressive collection of work on a very pertinent subject The Future Security Environment in the Middle East Nora Bensahel,Daniel Byman,2004-03-12 This report identifies several important trends that are shaping regional security It examines traditional security concerns such as energy security and the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction as well as newer challenges posed by political reform economic reform civil military relations leadership change and the information revolution The report concludes by identifying the implications of these trends for U S foreign policy Unlocking the Employment Potential in the Middle East and North Africa World Bank,2003 Prospects for Middle Eastern and North African Economies Nemat Shafik,2016-07-27 Economic prospects for the countries of the Middle East and North Africa are assessed in light of the changing world economy increasing integration of trade and financial markets greater needs for educated labour and growing concerns about poverty and environmental degradation Cross country papers on thematic topics by international scholars are presented The need for major economic reforms is emphasized if the region is to use greater integration in the world economy as the basis for generating growth and jobs and reducing poverty Warm Hands in Cold Age Nancy Folbre,Lois Shaw,Agneta Stark,2013-09-13 Public discussion of population aging usually focuses on the financial burden that increasingly elderly populations will impose on younger generations Scholars give much less attention to who does the actual work of day to day care for those no longer able to care for themselves and although women are the majority among the elderly little is heard about gender differences in economic resources or the need for care This volume is dedicated to giving gender and a full range of social and cultural differences their rightful place in these discussions The authors address amongst other issues the worldwide dilemmas of eldercare the structure of income and care provisions for older populations the role of family marital status and class in these provisions the impact of policies affecting retirement age the role of social insurance in preventing poverty among elderly women The essays included address these topics in a myriad of geographical contexts including South Africa the US Palestine Australia South Korea Spain Germany and Sweden The concerns highlighted here also remind us that whether through individual families or social insurance through family caregivers or paid help the oldest generation will continue to depend on adults of working age for its well being This book was previously published as a special issue of

Feminist Economics Egypt at the Crossroads Phebe Marr,1999 The World Trade Organization, the European Union, and the Arab World Bernard Hoekman,1995 Handbook of Research on Race, Gender, and the Fight for Equality Prescott, Julie,2016-03-31 Diversity in the workforce can be attributed to both a popular cultural shift and legislative intervention Despite these forces discrimination endures in all aspects of Western society from education to employment Unequal pay and opportunities for promotion are symptoms of a systematic discrimination of individuals based on race and gender The Handbook of Research on Race Gender and the Fight for Equality provides a critical look at race gender and modern day discrimination Focusing on workplace and educational dynamics the research found within this book addresses equal opportunity and diversity requirements from a myriad of perspectives This book is an essential reference source for professionals and researchers working in equality as well as managers and those in leadership roles Democratic Backsliding in Post-Mubarak Egypt Arshad,2024-09-24 Arshad examines the phenomenon of democratic backsliding in post 2011 Egypt Capturing a critical juncture in Egyptian politics this book explains the failure of Egypt s nascent democratic experiment and its relapse into authoritarianism Egypt is the crucial playbook to understand the reversal of a country towards an authoritarian regime and what measures state and non state actors should employ to prevent backsliding The book is an essential model for understanding democratic backsliding through structural and agential factors The former encompasses society politics economics and the military while the latter deals with the choices and attitudes of the leadership during the political transition Providing crucial insights into what went wrong during the democratic transition process this text acts as a guide to curbing the rise of authoritarian regimes in the face of the next potential revolution The book is a valuable resource for scholars who are interested in democratisation authoritarian regimes military leadership political protests and political leadership Sustainable Human Development in the Twenty-First Century - Volume I Ismail Sirageldin,2008-12-31 Sustainable Human Development in the Twenty First Century is a component of Encyclopedia of Human Resources Policy Development and Management in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty Encyclopedias The volume of Human Development examines the state and nature of human development and identifies factors that determine its promotion for the twenty first century A general goal since the ultimate goal for human development is to enhance the quality of human life However the concept quality of human life is not well defined It is determined by a set of interrelated factors that cut across many disciplines with varied perspectives and paradigms These include the prevailing culture health status economic performance technological development political and social conditions the building of human capacity and capabilities and institutional development on the local and global levels For example in an environment characterized by a better quality of human life it is expected that people will be able to lead long and productive lives They are also expected to enjoy good health have access to knowledge and educational opportunities and be treated by all with respect in a socially equitable and dignified manner In the sphere of political economy they are expected to have the opportunity to participate in governance decisions that affect their lives and the community in which they live and to have the potential to earn sufficient income to supply themselves with adequate nutrition shelter and other material and aesthetic needs Furthermore people are expected to maintain a sustainable environment and equitable social contracts across space and generations especially in the context of the evolving global governance The volume of Sustainable Human Development in the Twenty First Century is divided into five topics which are then expanded into multiple subtopics each as a chapter presented in two volumes The first is Major issues in Human Development and provides an over view of the Topic with emphasis on the sociological foundation of human development The second Topic Diversity and Historical Processes reviews the historical and technological processes which have led to the present state of human diversity and differentiation The third Topic Causes of Global Change focuses on whether it is possible in the present global environment to enlarge people s capabilities so that economic progress may be translated into a multidimensional human happiness The fourth Topic Consequences of Global Change examines global change not in the narrow sense of short term economic change but rather as historical waves of long term development The fifth Topic on Planning Strategies reviews current practice and projects challenges in the next century These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College Students Educators Professional Practitioners Research Personnel and Policy Analysts Managers and Decision Makers and NGOs

Adjusting to New Realities Ms.Patricia Alonso-Gamo,Ms.Susan Fennell,Mr.Khaled Sakr,1997-01-01 This paper addresses concerns that the Middle East and North Africa MENA region with the exception of the GCC economies has lagged behind in trade liberalization This delay has adversely affected production efficiency and consumer welfare and could reduce the region s ability to attract foreign investment Against this background the paper examines the major challenges facing MENA if it is to benefit from the opportunities presented by the Uruguay Round and the European Union Mediterranean Initiative It concludes with an overview of measures that MENA countries will need to implement to benefit from these trade enhancing initiatives
