Claire And Present Danger:

Tarnished Heroes, Charming Villains and Modern Monsters Lynnette Porter, 2014-01-10 The heroes villains and monsters portrayed in such popular science fiction television series as Heroes Lost Battlestar Galactica Caprica Doctor Who and Torchwood as well as Joss Whedon's many series illustrate a shift from traditional clearly defined characterizations toward much murkier definitions Traditional heroes give way to gray heroes who must become more like the villains or monsters they face if they are going to successfully save society This book examines the ambiguous heroes and villains focusing on these characters different perspectives on morality and their roles within society Appendices include production details for each series descriptions and summaries of pivotal episodes and a list of selected texts for classroom use Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Sequels Janet G. Contemporary Spanish American Novels by Women Susan Carvalho,2007 A reading of contemporary women s fiction in Spanish America in which space rather than time is seen as the driver of the narrative Space is critical to imaginative writing As English novelist Elizabeth Bowen has observed nothing can happen nowhere This book offers an interdisciplinary framework for reading novels and in particular women s fiction in Spanish America with a focus on geoplots on space rather than time as the narrative engine Following the work of Lefebvre and Friedman the author examines recent works by Spanish America s most visible women novelists Angeles Mastretta Mexico Isabel Allende Chile Rosario Ferr Puerto Rico Sara Sefchovich Mexico and Laura Restrepo Colombia and the ways in which their female protagonists challenge the spatial barriers erected by capitalist hegemony Margins borders liminal spaces the chora space and the body are emphasized as potential sites of transgression The analysis identifies spatial negotiation as a mechanism both for cementing and for undermining authority thus exposing the strategies through which literature constructs and represents power SUSAN CARVALHO is Associate Professor of Hispanic Studies at the University of Kentucky and Director of the Middlebury College Spanish School Exile and Nomadism in French and Hispanic Women's Writing Kate Averis,2017-07-05 Women in exile disrupt assumptions about exile belonging home and identity For many women exiles home represents less a place of belonging and more a point of departure and exile becomes a creative site of becoming rather than an unsettling state of errancy Exile may be a propitious circumstance for women to renegotiate identities far from the strictures of home appropriating a new freedom in mobility Through a feminist politics of place displacement and subjectivity this comparative study analyses the novels of key contemporary Francophone and Latin American writers Nancy Huston Linda Le Malika Mokeddem Cristina Peri Rossi Laura Restrepo and Cristina Siscar to identify a new nomadic subjectivity in the lives and works of transnational women today Turn to Film Hugo Letiche,Jean-Luc Moriceau,2019-02-26 Turn to Film Film in the Business School offers creative and powerful uses of film in the business school classroom and surveys the pedagogical and performative value of watching films with students This volume examines not only how film offers opportunities for learning and investigation but also how they can be sources of ideological poison self delusion and mis representation Throughout the text renowned contributors embrace film s power to embark on new adventures of thought by inventing images and signs and by bringing novel concepts and fresh perspectives to the classroom If film often reveals organizational dysfunctionality and absurdity it also teaches us to understand the other to see difference and to accept experimentation A wide spectra of films are examined for their pedagogical value in terms of what can be learned explored and discussed by teaching with film and how film can be used as a tool of research and investigation The book sees film in the classroom as an educational challenge wherein rich learning and personal development are encouraged
