age the Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction is the fullest account of the period's fiction ever published. Now in a second edition, the book has been revised and a generous selection of images have been chosen to illustrate various aspects of Victorian publishing, writing, and reading life. Organised alphabetically, the information provided will be a boon to students, researchers, and all lovers of reading. The entries, though concise, meet the high standards demanded by modern scholarship. The writing, marked by Sutherland's characteristic combination of flair, clarity, and erudition, is of such a high standard that the book is a joy to read as well as a definitive work of reference.

The Centenary Edition Raymond Williams Raymond Williams, 2021-05. A collection of seminal essays in the field of Welsh literary, historical, and political studies. The book is itself a key chapter in Welsh intellectual history and an analysis of that history. It offers a revisionist Welsh view of Raymond Williams, a critic often viewed as a British Marxist or the English Sartre.

Heroes and Heroism in British Fiction Since 1800 Barbara Korte, Stefanie Lethbridge, 2016-11-09. This book is about the manifestations and explorations of the heroic in narrative literature since around 1800. It traces the most important stages of this representation but also includes strands that have been marginalised or silenced in a dominant masculine and higher class framework. The studies include explorations of female versions of the heroic and they consider working class and ethnic perspectives. The chapters in this volume each focus on a prominent conjuncture of texts, histories, and approaches to the heroic. Taken together, they present an overview of the literary heroic in fiction since the late eighteenth century.
