Merrill, Ian Marshall, Daniel J. Philippon, Adam W. Sweeting, 2010-01-25 A snapshot of ecocriticism in action Coming into Contact collects sixteen previously unpublished essays that explore some of the most promising new directions in the study of literature and the environment They look to previously unexamined or underexamined aspects of literature s relationship to the environment including swamps internment camps Asian American environments the urbanized Northeast and lynching sites The authors relate environmental discourse to practice including the teaching of green design in composition classes the restoration of damaged landscapes the persuasive strategies of environmental activists the practice of urban architecture and the impact of human technologies on nature The essays also put ecocriticism into greater contact with the natural sciences including elements of evolutionary biology biological taxonomy and geology Engaging both ecocritical theory and practice these authors more closely align ecocriticism with the physical environment with the wide range of texts and cultural practices that concern it Coming Into Contact Annie Merrill Ingram, 2007 and with the growing scholarly conversation that surrounds this concern A snapshot of ecocriticism in action Coming into Contact collects sixteen previously unpublished essays that explore some of the most promising new directions in the study of literature and the environment They look to previously unexamined or underexamined aspects of literature s relationship to the environment including swamps internment camps Asian American environments the urbanized Northeast and lynching sites The authors relate environmental discourse to practice including the teaching of green design in composition classes the restoration of damaged landscapes the persuasive strategies of environmental activists the practice of urban architecture and the impact of human technologies on nature The essays also put ecocriticism into greater contact with the natural sciences including elements of evolutionary biology biological taxonomy and geology Engaging both ecocritical theory and practice these authors more closely align ecocriticism with the physical environment with the wide range of texts and cultural practices that concern it and with the growing scholarly conversation that surrounds this concern Poetic Leaps in Zen'S Journey of Enlightenment Yong Zhi, 2012-08-09 While the philosophical discussion of Zen spirituality reaches its limit poetry offers an effective expression of the sublime experiences From a poetic perspective enlightenment is understood as poetic leaps in the spiritual journey which brings people from the habitually or conventionally established world toward new horizons of consciousness This leap is a breakthrough in the overall consciousness rather than a progression in contemplative thought Therefore it cannot be adequately described through abstract representation but poetry can metaphorically capture this leap and reveal both the spiritual meaning and the practical wisdom of enlightenment This book will take you on this fantastic journey of enlightenment Bruce Ross, 2002-03-15 This haiku book provides an invaluable guide to developing your own haiku writing skills with clear explanations brilliant examples and innovative writing exercises It also offers an introduction to related Japanese poetic forms including Senryu commentaries on human nature that are often humorous or ironic Haibun short autobiographical narratives accompanied by a haiku Tanka imaginative poems full of highly personal emotional expressions Haiga drawings accompanied by commentary in haiku form Renga a collaborative form featuring linked sequences of poetry How to Haiku is a wonderful resource for anyone who wants to try their hand at this precise and poetic form of expression Minimalism Vol.1 Joshua Fields Millburn, Andō, Joshua Hook, Shawn Mihalik, Zoë Kim, Tiina Ilmavirta, 2020-08-05 Inside Minimalism Vol 1 is a series of 50 short exclusive essays on simple living This ebook discusses minimalism as a tool to help you be more focused and feel more fulfilled covering many topics such as slow and quiet living curation consumerism and family The series is written by Minimalism Life's dedicated team of writers from differing backgrounds who are passionate about helping people craft a simpler life Supported by their own personal experiences these writers want to inspire and encourage others to clear the path of life's stuff so they can get to where they really want to be Now is the time for less Now is the time to simplify Now is the time to make a change

Japanese Business Culture and Practices Isao Takei, Jon P. Alston, 2018-05-25 Japanese Business Culture and Practices presents detailed insights and descriptions on the proper ways to conduct business with contemporary Japanese It focuses on the traditional and nontraditional business related practices including the internal mechanisms of promotion and decision making in Japanese corporations From advice on how to avoid cultural misunderstandings and how to develop trust with Japanese colleagues readers will gain insights on how to communicate negotiate entertain and socialize with Japanese as well as the minutiae of correct behavior Using linguistic examples to facilitate how Japanese themselves view their work environment authors Isao Takei and Jon P Alston describe the social etiquette and protocols Japanese expect all foreigners to adopt in order to successfully conduct business With a glossary of terms and practical real life experiences this is an essential guide for anyone who wants to forge deeper business relationships with Japanese Harp of Burma Michio Takeyama, 2011-12-20 Harp of Burma is Japan s classic novel of pathos and compassion in the midst of senseless warfare Winner of the prestigious Mainichi Shuppan Bunkasho prize and the basis for the critically acclaimed film The Burmese Harp by Ichikawa Kon Harp of Burma shares a powerful human story about Japanese soldiers on the front lines in WWII Losing a desperate battle against British forces in the tropical jungles of Burma the young soldiers discover that the trials of war involve more than just opposing the enemy Distressed and disoriented by the alien climate and terrain strange behavior of foreigners and the emotions stirred by the senselessness of war their commander's ability to lead them in song helps them discover music s power to make even the most severe situations more tolerable Even though they face the inevitability of defeat singing the songs of their homeland revives their will to live Through the story of these men and of the music that saw them through the war Takeyama presents thought provoking questions about political hostilities and the men who unleash them Harp of Burma is Japan's classic novel of pathos and compassion in the midst of senseless warfare Arran Stibbe, 2012-01-01 Amazingly clear and incisive readings of a wide range of discourses related to animals and ecology from the author of Ecolinquistics Karla Armbruster coeditor of Beyond Nature Writing Animals are disappearing vanishing and dying out not just in the physical sense of becoming extinct but in the sense of being erased from our consciousness Increasingly interactions with animals happen at a remove mediated by nature programs books and cartoons framed by the enclosures of zoos and aquariums distanced by the museum cases that display lifeless bodies In this thought provoking book Arran Stibbe takes us on a journey of discovery revealing the many ways in which language affects our relationships with animals and the natural world Animal product industry manuals school textbooks ecological reports media coverage of environmental issues and animal rights polemics all commonly portray animals as inanimate objects or passive victims In his search for an alternative to these negative forms of discourse Stibbe turns to the traditional culture of Japan Within Zen philosophy haiku poetry and even contemporary children's animated films animals appear as active agents leading their own lives for their own purposes and of value in themselves Those of us of cultures of the land both working with and yes consuming animals will applaud Arran Stibbe s analysis of the loss of soul when right relationship is discarded Alastair McIntosh author of Soil and Soul Haiku—The Sacred Art Margaret D.
